THE

CHRISTIAN HYMNARY:

A SELECTION OF HYMNS & TUNES FOR CHRISTIAN WORSHIP.

"With psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts unto God." Col. iii. 16.

CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION.

PREFACE.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNARY is a revision and enlargement of the Gospel Hymnal. It is the result of action taken by the American Christian Convention, the General Convention (South), and the Christian Publishing Association. The committee entrusted with this work represents both sections of our Zion.

The Christian Hymn Book, Christian Hymns, and Gospel Hymnal have furnished most of our hymns, yet some have been gathered from other sources. They seem to be sufficient in number and variety for the use of most congregations in their public services. Very little of music for Sunday schools and social services has been used, as there are so many books designed especially for their use. The right to use some music that greatly enriches the Hymnary, has been purchased, or free use obtained.

For the free use of their compositions, thanks are due to Dr. H. R. Palmer and Prof. W. G. Tomer.

Space has been saved by not repeating first stanzas.

To meet the wants of many we have inserted chants, responses, and responsive readings.

The indexes are sufficiently copious to render much aid in the use of the book. * * * * *

We trust this book may aid in the service of the Lord's house, and we shall be amply compensated for our labor, which has drawn us into closer fellowship, if those who use the Hymnary may be helped to a sweeter fellowship with all true disciples, to a firmer trust in God, and to a truer Christian service.

NOTE TO SECOND EDITION.

As a new edition of the HYMNARY is needed, effort has been made to correct errors, both in music and words, so far as a careful examination has revealed them. An entire change has been made in one hymn, while slight changes have been made in two others, one at the request of its author, Rev. H. Lizzie Haley. It is hoped that the work of revision will add to the usefulness of the book.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNARY.

NICÆA. Peculiar.

Rev. JOHN BACCHUS DYKES, 1861.

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God, Al - might - y! Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to thee; Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly!
mer - ci - ful and might - y! All thy works shall praise thy name in earth, and sky, and sea.

- 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Thou who wast, and art, and evermore shalt be.
- 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Infinite in power, in love, and purity.

Bp. Reginald Heber, 1827.

BEETHOVEN.

1. Thine earthly Sab-baths, Lord, we love; But there's a no - bler rest a - bove;
To that our long - ing souls as - pire With ear - nest hope and strong de - sire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin, nor death shall reach the place;
No groans to mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes;
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin;
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin:
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

Philip Doddridge.

Rejoicing in the Sabbath.

1 My opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee;
While thus my early vows I pay.

2 I yield my heart to thee alone,
Nor would receive another guest;
Eternal King, erect thy throne,
And reign sole Monarch in my breast.

3 O, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away,
Nor let me feel one vain desire,
One sinful thought, through all the day.

4 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

Hutton.

Public Worship.

1 Oh come! loud anthems let us sing,
Loud thanks to our Almighty King;
For we our voices high should raise,
When our Salvation's Rock we praise.

2 Into his presence let us haste,
To thank him for his favors past;
To him address in joyful songs,
The praise that to his name belongs.

3 Oh, let us to his courts repair,
And bow with adoration there;
With joy and fear, devoutly all
Before the Lord, our Maker, fall!

Tate & Brady.

The Lord will give Grace and Glory.

1 GREAT God, attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs:
To spend one day with thee on earth
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

3 God is our sun—he makes our day;
God is our shield—he guards our way
From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory, too;
He gives us all things, and withholds
No good from pure and upright souls.

Isaac Watts.

MIGDOL. L. M.

LOWELL MASON, 1840.

1. How pleasant, how di - vine - ly fair, O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!

With long de-sires my spir - it faints To meet th'as-sem-blies of thy saints.

6 How amiable are thy Tabernacles.

2 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

3 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength; and through the road
They lean upon their Helper, God.

4 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

7 Supplication.

1 GREAT God, the followers of thy Son,
We bow before thy mercy-seat,
To worship thee, the Holy One,
And pour our wishes at thy feet.

2 O, grant thy blessing here to-day;
O, give thy people joy and peace;
The tokens of thy love display,
And favor that shall never cease.

3 We seek the truth which Jesus brought;
His path of light we long to tread;
Here be his holy doctrines taught,
And here their purest influence shed.

4 May faith, and hope, and love abound;
Our sins and errors be forgiven;
And we, from day to day, be found
Children of God and heirs of heaven.

Henry Ware, Jr.

8 The Sabbath.

1 ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul! enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God has blessed.

2 Oh, that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense to the skies;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose,
Which none, but he that feels it, knows.

3 This heavenly calm, within the breast,
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the church of God remains—
The end of cares, the end of pains.

Stennett.

9 Surely the Lord is in this Place.

1 Lo, God is here! let us adore,
And humbly bow before his face:
Let all within us feel his power,
Let all within us seek his grace.

2 Lo, God is here! him, day and night,
United choirs of angels sing:
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's host their noblest praises bring.

3 Being of beings, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill;
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

G. Tersteegen. Tr. John Wesley, 1739.

ALL SAINTS. L. M.

W. KNAPP, 1768.

10 Every place a Temple.

- 2 Not now on Zion's height alone
Thy favored worshipers may dwell;
Nor where at sultry noon, thy Son
Sat weary, by the patriarch's well.
- 3 From every place below the skies,
The grateful song, the fervent prayer,
The incense of the heart,—may rise
To Heaven, and find acceptance there.
- 4 To thee shall age, with snowy hair,
And strength, and beauty, bend the knee,
And childhood lisp, with reverent air,
Its praises and its prayers to thee.

John Pierpont.

11 The Hour of Prayer.

- 1 Blest hour! when mortal man retires,
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
- 2 Blest hour! for, where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given;
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of heaven!
- 3 Hail, peaceful hour! supremely blest,
Amid the hours of worldly care,
The hour that yields the spirit rest,
That sacred hour, the hour of prayer.
- 4 And, when my hours of prayer are past,
And this frail tenement decays,
Then may I spend, in heaven, at last,
A never-ending hour of praise.

Thomas Raffles, 1828.

12 The Sacrifice of the Heart.

- 1 WHEN, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his Maker, God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay?
How spread his sovereign name abroad?
- 2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall curling clouds of incense rise,
And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
The costly pomp of sacrifice?
- 3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord
Thy golden offerings well may spare,
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.

Mrs. Barbauld.

13 The Close of the Sabbath.

- 1 SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.
- 2 The time how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below;
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.
- 3 Season of rest—the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts in love;
And, while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees a smiling heaven above.
- 4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath, of our God.

James Edmeston

BERA. L. M.

JOHN E. GOULD, 1846.

1. We bless thee for this sa - cred day, Thou who hast ev - 'ry bless - ing given,
Which sends the dreams of earth a - way And yields a glimpse of o - p'ning heaven.

The Day of Rest.

- 2 Rich day of holy, thoughtful rest,
May we improve thy calm repose,
And, in God's service truly blest,
Forget the world, its joys, its woes.
- 3 Lord, may thy truth upon the heart
Now fall and dwell as heavenly dew,

- And flowers of grace in freshness start
Where once the weeds of error grew.
- 4 May Prayer now lift her sacred wings,
Contented with that aim alone
Which bears her to the King of kings,
And rests her at his sheltering throne.

Mrs. Gilman.

MEAR. C. M.

Welsh Air. AARON WILLIAMS, 1760.

1. How did my heart rejoice to hear My friends devoutly say—"In Zi-on let us all ap-pear, And keep the solemn day."

15

How Lovely is Zion.

- 2 I love her gates, I love the road;
The church adorned with grace,
Stands like a palace built for God,
To show his milder face.
- 3 Peace be within this sacred place,
And joy a constant guest!
With holy gifts and heavenly grace
Be her attendants blest!
- 4 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindred, dwell,
There God, my Saviour, reigns.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

- Make this a place of thine abode,
And shed thy blessings here.
- 2 When we thy mercy-seat surround,
Thy spirit, Lord, impart;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound
With power reach every heart.
- 3 Here let the blind their sight obtain;
Here give the mourners rest;
Let Jesus here triumphant reign,
Enthroned in every breast.
- 4 Here let the voice of sacred joy
And humble prayer arise,
Till higher strains our tongues employ
In realms beyond the skies.

Prayer for special Favor.

- 1 WITHIN thy house, O Lord, our God,
In glory now appear;

DAY OF REST. C. M.

L. V. WHEELER.

1. This is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours his own;

Let heav'n re-joice, let earth be glad, And praise sur-round the throne.

17 This is the Day which the Lord hath made.

2 To-day he rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumph spread,
And all his wonders tell.

3 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
With messages of grace,—
Who comes, in God his Father's name
To save our sinful race.

4 Hosanna in the highest strains
The church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens in which he reigns
Shall give him nobler praise.

Isaac Watts.

18 Joy of Worship.

1 With joy we hail the sacred day,
Which God has called his own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at his throne.

2 Spirit of grace, O, deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

3 Let peace within her walls be found,
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

Henry F. Lyte.

19 Homage and Devotion.

1 With sacred joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,

That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal love.

2 Before the gracious throne we bow
Of heaven's almighty King;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.

3 O Lord, while in thy house we kneel
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.

4 With fervor teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

Thos. Jarvis.

20 Early will I seek thee.

1 EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away
Without thy cheering grace.

2 I've seen thy glory and thy power
Through all thy temple shine;
My God, repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.

4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King,
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my heart to sing.

Isaac Watts, 1716.

1. What shall I ren-der to my God For all his kindness shown? My feet shall visit thine abode, My songs address thy throne.

21 What shall I render unto the Lord?

2 Among the saints that fill thy house
My offerings shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.

3 How happy all thy servants are!
How great thy grace to me!
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

4 Here in thy courts I leave my vow,
And thy rich grace record;
Witness, ye saints, who hear me now,
If I forsake the Lord.

Isaac Watts.

22 Pure Worship.

1 THE offerings to thy throne which rise,
Of mingled praise and prayer,
Are but a worthless sacrifice
Unless the heart is there.

2 Upon thine all-discerning ear
Let no vain words intrude;
No tribute but the vow sincere—
The tribute of the good.

3 My offerings will indeed be blest,
If sanctified by thee—
If thy pure spirit touch my breast
With its own purity.

4 O, may that spirit warm my heart
To piety and love,
'nd to life's lowly vale impart
Some rays from heaven above.

Sir John Bowring.

23 Languid Devotion lamented.

1 FREQUENT the day of God returns
To shed its quickening beams;
And yet, how slow devotion burns!
How languid are its flames!

2 Increase, O Lord, our faith and hope,
And fit us to ascend
Where the assembly ne'er breaks up,
And Sabbath's never end;—

3 Where we shall breathe in heavenly air,
With heavenly lustre shine,
Before the throne of God appear,
And feast on love divine.

4 There shall we join, and never tire,
To sing immortal lays,
And, with the bright, seraphic choir,
Sound forth Immanuel's praise.

Brown.

24 God present in the Sanctuary.

1 My soul, how lovely is the place
To which thy God resorts!
'Tis heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.

2 There the great monarch of the skies
His saving power displays,
And light breaks in upon our eyes,
With kind and quickening rays.

3 With his rich gifts, the heavenly Dove
Descends and fills the place,
While Christ reveals his wondrous love,
And sheds abroad his grace.

1. A - gain our earth - ly cares we leave, And to thy courts re - pair;
A - gain, with joy - ful feet, we come To meet our Sav - iour here.

A Blessing sought.

- 2 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.
- 3 May we in faith receive thy word,
In faith present our prayers,
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.
- 4 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise;
And pour thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.

Anon.

27

Blest Day of God.

- 1 BLESSED day of God, most calm, most bright,
The first and best of days;
The laborer's rest, the saint's delight,
The day of prayer and praise.
- 2 My Saviour's face made thee to shine;
His rising thee did raise,
And made thee heavenly and divine
Beyond all other days.
- 3 The first-fruits oft a blessing prove
To all the sheaves behind;
And they who do the Sabbath love,
A happy week will find.

Anon.

26

The Lord's Day—Morning.

- 1 AGAIN the Lord of life and light
Awakes the kindling ray,
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
And pours increasing day.
- 2 O, what a night was that which wrapped
The heathen world in gloom!
O, what a sun which broke, this day,
Triumphant from the tomb!
- 3 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.
- 4 Ten thousand different lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wings
To nations yet unborn.

Win. Barbauld.

28

Love of Sabbath Service.

- 1 How sweet, upon this sacred day,
The best of all the seven,
To cast our earthly thoughts away,
And think of God and heaven!
- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray
Our sins may be forgiven—
With filial confidence to say,
"Father, who art in heaven!"
- 3 And if, to make our sins depart,
In vain the will has striven,
He who regards the inmost heart,
Will send his grace from heaven.
- 4 Then hail, thou sacred, blessed day,
The best of all the seven,
When hearts unite their vows to pay
Of gratitude to heaven.

Engagedness in Devotion.

2 Wandering thoughts and languid powers
Come not where devotion kneels;
Let the soul expand her stores,
Glowing with the joy she feels.

3 At the portals of thine house,
We resign our earth-born cares:
Nobler thoughts our souls engross,
Songs of praise and fervent prayers.

John Taylor.

30

Communion Hymn.

1 JESUS, we thy promise claim:
We are met in thy dear name;
In the midst do thou appear;
Manifest thy presence here.

2 Sanctify us, Lord, and bless;
Breathe thy spirit, give thy peace;
Thou thyself within us move:
Make our feast a feast of love.

3 Give to us thy humble mind,
Patient, fearless, just, and kind;
Meek and lowly let us be,—
Full of goodness, full of thee.

Wesleyan.

31

God's Presence Invoked.

1 SOVEREIGN and transforming grace!
We invoke thy quickening power;
Reign the spirit of this place,
Bless the purpose of this hour.

2 Holy and creative Light!
We invoke thy kindling ray,
Dawn upon our spirits' night,
Turn our darkness into day.

3 Give the struggling peace for strife,
Give the doubting light for gloom,
Speed the living into life,
Warn the dying of their doom.

4 Work in all,—in all renew,
Day by day, the life divine;
All our wills to thee subdue,
All our hearts to thee incline.

F. H. Hedge.

32 Did not our Heart burn within us?

1 To thy temple I repair;
Lord, I love to worship there,
When within the veil I meet
Christ before the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord, my Righteousness.

3 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.

4 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn;
That at evening we may say,—
"We have walked with God to-day."

James Montgomery.

SABBATH. 7s, 6l.

LOWELL MASON, 1824.

1. Safe - ly thro' an-o-ther week, God has bro't us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in his courts to-day:

Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter-nal rest; Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter-nal rest.

The Sabbath of Rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace,
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciling face—

Take away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free,—
May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy name to praise,
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes.

While we in thy house appear.
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting rest.

4 May thy gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints,
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief from all complaints:
Thus may all our Sabbaths prove
Till we join the church above.

John Newton, 1779.

34

The Accepted Offering.

1 LORD, what offering shall we bring,
At thine altars when we bow?—
Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow;
Soft compassion's feeling soul
By the melting eye expressed;
Sympathy, at whose control
Sorrow leaves the wounded brea-

2 Willing hands to lead the blind;
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store.
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus the accepted offering bring.—
Love to thee and all mankind.

John Taylor, 1795.

35

The House of Prayer.

1 In this peaceful house of prayer,
Stronger faith, O God, we seek;
Here we bring each earthly care,
Thou the strengthening message speak.
In our greatest trials we,
Calm, through thee, the way have trod:
In the smallest, may we feel
Thou art still our Helper-God!

2 Of thy presence and thy love
We more steadfast feeling need,
Till the high and holy thought
Hallow every simplest deed.
In our work and in our homes
Christian men we fain would be;
Learn how daily life affords
Noblest opportunity.

Hymns of the Spirit.

36 The Courts of the Lord.

1 PLEASANT are thy courts above
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe.
Oh, my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of thy saints,
For the brightness of thy face,
For the fulness of thy grace.

2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O Most High;
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast;
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls, their praises flow,
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the deserts rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length,
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.
Henry F. Lyte, 1834.

37 For a general blessing.

1 LORD, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
O, do not our suit disdain;
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend;
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 Comfort those who weep and mourn—
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.

4 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee, a gracious God and kind:
Heal the sick, the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

Anon.

38 The Temple.

1 In thy courts let peace be found;
Be thy temple full of love;
Here we read on holy ground,
All serene around, above.

2 While the knee in prayer is bent,
While with praise the heart o'erflows,
Tranquilize the turbulent,
Give the weary one repose.

3 Be the place for worship meet,
Meet the worship for the place—
Contemplation's blest retreat,
Shrine of guilelessness and grace!

4 As an infant knows its home,
Lord, may we thy temple know;
Hither for instruction come,
Hence by thee instructed go.
Sir John Bowring

39 Sabbath Evening.

1 SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Night her solemn mantle spreads
O'er the earth as daylight fades;
All things tell of calm repose
At the holy Sabbath's close.

3 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God—
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.

4 Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of peace and joy in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.
S. F. Smith.

40 Feast of Love.

1 COME, and let us sweetly join
God to praise in hymns divine;
Give we all, with one accord,
Glory to our common Lord.

2 Hands and hearts and voices raise;
Sing as in the ancient days;
Taste e'en now the joys above,
Find the heaven of mutual love.

3 Jesus, we thy promise claim,
We are met in thy great name;
In the midst do thou appear,
Manifest thy presence here.

4 Make us all in thee complete,
Make us all for glory meet,—
Meet to appear before thy sight,
Partners of the saints in light.

41 Sabbath Morning.

2 Now may the King descend
 And fill his throne of grace;
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address thy face.
 Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all thy quickening powers,
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless the sacred hours.
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbaths be enjoyed in vain.

42 A Day in thy Courts.

1 Lord of the worlds above,
 How pleasant and how fair
 The dwellings of thy love,
 Thine earthly temples are!
 To thine abode | With warm desires
 My heart aspires, | To see my God.

2 O, happy souls that pray
 Where God appoints to hear!
 O, happy men that pay
 Their constant service there!
 They praise thee still; | Who love the way
 And happy they | To Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in heaven appears.
 O, glorious seat, | Shall thither bring
 When God our King | Our willing feet.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

43 Ask, and it shall be given you.

1 O Thou, that hearest prayer,
 Attend our humble cry, —
 And let thy servants share
 Thy blessing from on high:
 We plead the promise of thy word;
 Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord.

2 If earthly parents hear
 Their children when they cry,
 If they, with love sincere,
 Their children's wants supply,
 Much more wilt thou thy love display,
 And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou;
 We, children of thy grace:
 O, let thy Spirit now
 Descend and fill the place,
 That all may feel the heavenly flame,
 And all unite to praise thy name.

44 The Day that God hath blessed.

2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose;
He burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes;
And now he pleads our cause above,
And reaps the fruit of all his love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!

Heaven with hosannas rings,
And earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings,—
Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
Through endless years to live and reign.

2 Sweet, at the dawning hour,
Thy boundless love to tell;
And, when the night-wind shuts the flower,
Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join, in heart and voice,

And heaven on earth be won.

51 Break forth into joy.

- 2 Sing how Eternal Love,
His chief beloved chose,
And bade him raise our wretched race
From their abyss of woes.
- 3 Now, sinners, dry your tears,
Let hopeless sorrow cease;
Bow to the sceptre of his love,
And take the offered peace.

We lay an humble claim
To the salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy name.

Before we reach the heavenly fields
Or walk the golden streets.

And every tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

Worship of God.

1 ETERNAL God, almighty cause
Of earth, and seas, and worlds unknown,
All things are subject to thy laws;
All things depend on thee alone.

2 Thy glorious being singly stands,
Of all within itself possessed:
Controlled by none are thy commands;
Thou in thyself alone art blessed.

3 Worship to thee alone belongs;
Worship to thee alone we give;
Thine be our hearts, and thine our songs,
And to thy glory may we live.

Simon Browne, 1720.

Be thou exalted, O God.

1 My God, in whom are all the springs
Of boundless love and grace unknown,
Hide me beneath thy spreading wings
Till the dark cloud is overblown.

2 My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name;
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise—
My tongue, the glory of my frame.

3 High o'er the earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

4 Be thou exalted, O my God,
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

Isaac Watts.

"A Joyful Song."

1 SING to the Lord a joyful song;
Lift up your hearts, your voices raise:
To us his gracious gifts belong,
To him our songs of love and praise.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for he is good,
And praise his name, for it is fair:—

3 For strength to those who on him wait,
His truth to prove, his will to do,
Praise ye our God, for he is great,
Trust in his name, for it is true;—

4 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life, which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die.

Serve the Lord with Gladness.

1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and he destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And, when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.

3 We'll crowd thy gates, with thankful songs,
High as the heaven our voices raise;
And Earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

4 Wide as the world is thy command;
Vast as eternity thy love;
I firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

Song of Gratitude and Praise.

1 God of my life, through all my days
I'll tune the grateful notes of praise;
The song shall wake with opening light,
And warble to the silent night.

2 When anxious cares would break my rest,
And griefs would tear my throbbing breast,
The notes of praise, ascending high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.

3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all the powers of language fail,
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I can not speak.

4 But, oh, when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to earth no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise
To join the music of the skies!

5 The cheerful tribute will I give,
Long as a deathless soul can live;
A work so sweet, a theme so high,
Demands and crowns eternity.

The Lord of Life.

1 LORD of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day:
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign:
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

4 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

Universal Praise.

1 YE nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues his glory sing.

2 The Lord is God; 'tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give;
We are his work, and not our own—
The sheep that on his pastures live.

3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair,
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.

4 The Lord is good; the Lord is kind;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And all the race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

"Mightier than the mighty Sea."

1 THE floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
The mighty floods lift up their roar;
The floods in tumult loud rejoice,
And climb in foam the sounding shore.

2 But mightier than the mighty sea,
The Lord of glory reigns on high;
Far o'er its waves we look to thee,
And see their fury break and die.

That ancient promise, sealed in love;
Here be thy temple ever pure,
As thy pure mansions shine above.

Rejoicing in God.

- 1 REJOICE, believer, in the Lord,
Who makes your cause his own:
The hope that's built upon his word
Can ne'er be overthrown.
Though many foes beset your road,
And feeble is your arm,
Your life is hid with Christ in God,
Beyond the reach of harm.

- 2 Weak as you are, you shall not faint,
Or, fainting, shall not die;
For God, the strength of every saint,
Will aid you from on high.
As surely as Christ overcame,
And triumphed once for you,
So surely you that love his name
Shall triumph in him too.

Rejoice in the Lord.

- 1 Now to our loving Father, God,
A gladsome song begin;
His smile is on the world abroad,
His joy our hearts within.
We need not, Lord, our gladness leave
To worship thee aright;
Our joyfulness for praise receive;
Thou make'st our lives so bright!
- 2 We turn to God a smiling face,
He smiles on us again;
He loves to see our cheerfulness,
And hear our gladsome strain.
The pure in heart are always glad,
The smile of God they feel;
He doth the secret of his joy
To blameless hearts reveal.

74 Devotion.

- 1 We bow before thy mercy-seat,
O Lord, our Heavenly King,
The wonders of thy grace repeat,
And grateful tributes bring.
- 2 Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord,
Our souls with love inspire,
And may instruction from thy word
Increase each pure desire.
- 3 Where'er thy servants worship thee,
From east to farthest west,
Upon the land, or on the sea,
May all in thee be blessed.

75 One Thing have I desired of the Lord.

- 1 THE Lord of glory is my light,
And my salvation too:
God is my strength, nor will I fear
What all my foes can do.
- 2 One privilege my heart desires—
O, grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,
The temples of my God.
- 3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still;
Shall hear thy messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.
- 4 When troubles rise and storms appear,
There may his children hide:
God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide.

Isaac Watts.

76 Psalm 65.

- 1 PRAISE waits in Zion, Lord! for thee
There shall our vows be paid;
Thou hast an ear when sinners pray
All flesh shall seek thine aid.
- 2 O Lord! our guilt and fears prevail,
But pardoning grace is thine;
And thou wilt grant us power and skill,
To conquer every sin.
- 3 Thus shall the wondering nations see
The Lord is good and just;
The distant isles shall fly to thee,
And make thy name their trust.

Isaac Watts.

77 Call to Worship.

2 He formed the deep unknown;
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
And all the solid ground.

3 Come, worship at his throne,
Come, bow before the Lord:
We are his work, and not our own;
He formed us by his word.

4 To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

78 Praise.

1 STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord, your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud and magnify?

3 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord, your God, adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, forevermore.

James Montgomery, 1825.

79 Exhortation to Praise.

1 ARISE, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Arise, and bless the Lord, your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.

2 O for the living flame,
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And win to heaven our thought!

3 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours;
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.
James Montgomery.

80 Praising God for Mercies.

1 OH bless the Lord, my soul!
Let all within me join,
And aid my tongue, to bless his name
Whose favors are divine.

2 Oh bless the Lord, my soul!
Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.

3 'Tis he forgives thy sins;
'Tis he relieves thy pain;
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee strong again.

4 He crowns thy life with love;
He rescues from the grave:
He that redeemed my soul from death
Hath sovereign power to save.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

81 Goodness of God's Mercy.

1 My soul, repeat his praise
Whose mercies are so great,
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love
Far as the east is from the west
Doth all our guilt remove.

3 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

Praise the Lord.

2 Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed:
Laws, which never can be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

3 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail:
God hath made his saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.

4 Praise the God of our salvation,
Hosts on high his power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Praise and magnify his name.

Dublin Col.

Sound his praise thro' earth and heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

4 Joyfully on earth adore him,
Till in heaven our song we raise;
There enraptured fall before him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

John Fawcett, 1767.

84

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

1 LORD, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord.

2 Heaven is still with anthems singing;
Earth takes up the angel's cry,
Holy, holy, holy, singing,
Lord of hosts, thou Lord most high.

3 Ever thus in God's high praises,
Brethren, let our tongues unite,
While our thoughts his greatness raises,
And our love his gifts excite.

4 Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt the angel's cry:
Holy, holy, holy, blessing
Thee, the Lord our God most high.

Richard Mant.

Universal Praise.

1 PRAISE to thee, thou great Creator!
Praise to thee from every tongue;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.

2 Father! Source of all compassion!
Pure, unbounded grace is thine;
Hail the God of our salvation,
Praise him for his love divine!

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the hope of future joy,

Praise the Lord.

2 For his truth and mercy stand,

Past and present and to be,

Like the years of his right hand,

Like his own eternity.

3 Praise him, ye who know his love!

Praise him, from the depths beneath!

Praise him, in the heights above!

Praise your Maker, all that breathe!

James Montgomery, 1822.

86

Holy is the Lord.

1 HOLY, holy, holy, Lord,

Be thy glorious name adored;

Lord, thy mercies never fail;

Hail, celestial goodness, hail!

2 Though unworthy, Lord, thine ear,

Deign our humble songs to hear;

Purer praise we hope to bring

When around thy throne we sing.

3 While on earth ordained to stay,

Guide our footsteps in thy way,

SAVANNAH. 10s.

1. We praise thee, Lord, with earliest morning ray; We praise thee with the glowing light of day:

All things that live and move, by sea and land, For - ev - er read - y at thy service stand.

Then on high we'll joyful raise
Songs of everlasting praise.

Benjamin Williams.

87

Lowly Praise.

1 LORD, in heaven, thy dwelling-place,

Hear the praises of our race,

And, while hearing, let thy grace

Dews of sweet forgiveness pour;

2 While we know, benignant King,

That the praises which we bring

Are a worthless offering

Till thy blessing makes it more.

3 More of truth and more of might,

More of love and more of light,

More of reason and of right,

From thy pardoning grace be given.

4 It can make the humblest song

Sweet, acceptable, and strong

As the strains the angels' throng

Pour around the throne of heaven.

Invocation.

2 Come, thou all-gracious Lord,
By heaven and earth adored,
Our prayer attend!
Come, and thy children bless;
Give thy good word success;
Make thine own holiness
On us descend.

3 Never from us depart;
Rule thou in every heart,
Hence, evermore.
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

Charles Wesley, 1757.

3 While his high praise we sing,
Strike every sounding string—
Sweet the accord.
His vital breath bestows;
Let every breath that flows
His noblest fame disclose:
Praise ye the Lord.

Praise in the Courts of the Lord.

1 PRAISE ye Jehovah's name,
Praise through his courts proclaim;
Rise and adore;
High o'er the heavens above
Sound his great acts of love,
While his rich grace we prove,
Vast as his power.

2 Now let the trumpet raise
Triumphant sounds of praise,
Wide as his fame;
There let the harp be found;
Organs, with solemn sound,
Roll your deep notes around,
Filled with his name.

91

Supplication.

1 WORD, whose creative thrill
Wakes in all nature still Life, light, and bloom!
Come with resistless ray,
Chase all our clouds away,
And with thy heavenly day
All souls illumine!

2 Spirit, in whom we live!
Thou who dost yearn to give
All hearts thy rest!
When earthly joys take flight,
Cheer thou the earthly night,
And in the morning light
Still be our guest!

3 And when th' eternal morn,
From death's deep night shades born,
Our eyes shall see,
Father, thy word, thy breath,
Thy Christ who conquereth
Sorrow and sin and death,
Our trust shall be!

2 Let them adore the Lord,
And praise his holy name,
By whose almighty word,
They all from nothing came;
And all shall last
From changes free,
His firm decree
Stands ever fast.

3 His chosen saints to grace,
He sets them up on high;
And favors Israel's race,
Who still to him are nigh:
O therefore raise
Your grateful voice,
And still rejoice
The Lord to praise.

93 I will praise thy Name forever and ever.

2 Great is the Lord, his power unknown;
O, let his praise be great;
I'll sing the honors of thy throne,
Thy works of grace repeat.

3 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name,
And children learn thy ways,

Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
And nations sound thy praise.

4 The world is governed by thy hand;
Thy saints are ruled by love;
And thine eternal kingdom stands,
Though rocks and hills remove.

Isaac Watts.

94 Praise from all Creatures.

2 The shining worlds above
In glorious order stand,
Or in swift courses move,
By his supreme command:
He spake the word, and all their frame
From nothing came, to praise the Lord.

3 He moved their mighty wheels
In unknown ages past,
And each his word fulfils,
While time and nature last:
In different ways his works proclaim
His wondrous name, and speak his praise.

4 Let all the nations fear
The God who rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them taste his love:
While earth and sky attempt his praise,
His saints shall raise his honors high.

Tate and Brady

95 God's wondrous Love

1 O FOR a shout of joy
High as the theme we sing!

To this divine employ
Your hearts and voices bring;
Sound, sound through all the earth abroad
The love, th' eternal love, of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand
Of seraphs bright and fair;
Or bow at his right hand,
And pay their homage there,
But strive in vain, with loudest chord,
To sound the wondrous love of God.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace,
In songs of lower key,
In every age and place,
Have sung the mystery,—
Have told in strains of sweet accord,
Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record
The love, th' unchanging love, of God.

1. Awake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai-ly stage of du-ty run; Shake off dull sloth, and joy-ful rise To pay thy morning sac-ri-fice, To pay thy morning sac-ri-fice.

96 I will sing aloud in the Morning.

2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praises to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

Thomas Ken.

97 Morning Prayer for Direction.

1 God of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies,—

2 O, like the sun may I fulfil
Th' appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind and active will
March on, and keep my heavenly way.

3 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes,
Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

4 Give me thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to thy bliss;
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold, compared with this.

Isaac Watts, 1700.

98*Evening.*

1 AGAIN, as evening's shadow falls,
We gather in these hallowed walls,
And vesper hymn and vesper prayer
Rise mingling on the holy air.

2 May struggling hearts, that seek release,
Here find the rest of God's own peace,
And, strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Lay down the burden and the care.

3 O God, our light, to thee we bow;
Within all shadows standest thou;
Give deeper calm than night can bring,
Give sweeter songs than lips can sing.

4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell
May hymn and praise forever dwell.

S. Longfellow, 1864.

99 Thou shalt seek me in the Morning.

1 Now with creation's early song,
Let us, the children of the day,
Cast off the darkness which so long
Has led our guilty souls astray.

2 O, may the morn, so pure, so clear,
Its own sweet calm in us instil—
A guileless mind, a heart sincere,
Simplicity of word and will.

3 And ever, as the day glides by,
May we the busy senses rein,
Keep guard upon the hand and eye,
Nor let the body suffer stain.

4 Give grace, O God, for love of thee,
To scorn all vanities below,
Faith to detect each falsity,
And knowledge thee alone to know.

Evening Hymn.

- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home,
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.
- 2 O, guide me through the various maze
My doubtful feet are doomed to tread,
And spread thy shield's protecting blaze
When dangers press around my head.
- 3 A deeper shade shall soon impend,
A deeper sleep my eyes oppress;
Yet then thy strength shall still defend,
Thy goodness still delight to bless.
- 4 That deeper shade shall break away,
That deeper sleep shall leave my eyes;
Thy light shall give eternal day;
Thy love, the rapture of the skies.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

An ancient Psalm of the Morning.

- 1 O CHRIST, with each returning morn,
Thine image to our heart be borne;
And may we ever clearly see
Our Friend and Saviour, Lord, in thee.
- 2 May grace each idle thought control,
And sanctify our wayward soul;
May guile depart, and malice cease,
And all within be joy and peace.
- 3 Our daily course, O Jesus bless;
Make plain the way of holiness;
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And cheer at last our journey's end.

Chandler.

102

The Morning Hour.

- 1 In sleep's serene oblivion laid,
I safely passed the silent night;
Again I see the breaking shade,
And drink again the morning light.

103

Let my Prayer be as Incense.

- 1 My God, accept my early vows,
Like morning incense in thy house;
And let my nightly worship rise
Sweet as the evening sacrifice.
- 2 Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord,
From every rash and heedless word,
Nor let my feet incline to tread
The guilty path where sinners lead.
- 3 O, may the righteous, when I stray,
Smite and reprove my wandering way,
Their gentle words, like ointment shed,
Shall never bruise, but cheer my head.

- 4 When I behold them pressed with grief,
I'll cry to Heaven for their relief,
And by my warm petitions prove
How much I prize their faithful love.

Sunday Morning.

- 1 How sweet, how calm, this sacred morn!
How pure the air that breathes,
And soft the sounds upon it borne
And light its vapor wreaths!

Were answered by the very air
That wafts its strains above.

Each evil thought be crushed;
Each anxious care that mars thy peace
In faith and love be hushed.

He was there alone.

- 1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

- 2 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him whom I adore.

Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,

2 The breezes waft their cries
Up to Jehovah's throne;
He listens to their burning sighs,

111 Begin with God.

1 BEGIN the day with God;
He is thy sun and day;
He is the radiance of thy dawn:
To him address thy lay.

2 Cast every weight aside;
Do battle with each sin;
Fight with the faithless world without,
The faithless heart within.

3 The first transaction be

So shall thy business prosper well,
And all the day be love.

Horatius Bonar.

112 Evening Reflections.

1 THE day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear;
O, may we all remember well
The night of death draws near.

2 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

3 And if we early rise,
And view th' unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

4 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
O, may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love.

J. Leland.

113

1 THE day is past and gone,
Great God, we bow to thee;
Again, as shades of night steal on,
Unto thy side we flee.

2 O when shall that day come,
Ne'er sinking in the West,
That country and that happy home
Where none shall break our rest;

3 Where all things shall be peace,
And pleasure without end,
And golden harps, that never cease,
With joyous hymns shall blend;

4 Where we, preserved beneath
The shelter of thy wing,
For evermore thy praise shall breathe,
And of thy mercy sing.

Though the arrow near us fly,
Angel guards from thee surround us;
We are safe if thou art nigh.
- 3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness cannot hide from thee;
Thou art He who, never weary,
Watcheth where thy people be;

And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in light and deathless bloom.

Edmeston.

116 Tarry, Saviour, at Evening.

- 1 TARRY with me, O my Saviour,
For the day is passing by;
See! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.
- 2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west;
Swift the night of death advances;
Shall it be the night of rest?
- 3 Tarry with me, O my Saviour;
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest.

Mrs C. S. Smith.

115 Evening Sacrifice.

- 1 On the dewy breath of even
Thousand odors mingling rise,
Borne like incense up to heaven—
Nature's evening sacrifice.
- 2 With her favorite offerings blending,
Let our glad thanksgiving be,
To thy throne, O Lord, ascending—
Incense of our hearts to thee.
- 3 Thou whose favors without number
All our days with gladness bless,
Let thine eye, that knows no slumber,
Guard our hours of helplessness.
- 4 Then, though conscious we are sleeping
In the outer courts of death,
Safe beneath a Father's keeping,
Calm we rest in perfect faith,

Anon.

117 Blessing sought.

- 1 GRACIOUS Saviour, thus before thee,
With our varied want and care;
For a blessing we implore thee,
Listen to our evening prayer.
- 2 By thy favor safely living,
With a grateful heart we raise
Songs of jubilant thanksgiving;
Listen to our evening praise.
- 3 Thro' the day, Lord, thou hast given
Strength sufficient for our need;
Cheered us with sweet hopes of heaven,
Helped and comforted indeed.
- 4 Lord, we thank thee, and adore thee,
For the solace of thy love;
And rejoicing thus before thee,
Wait thy blessing from above!

Jubilate.

1 SOFT as fades the sunset splendor,
And the light of day grows dim,
We to thee our praises render;
Sing we thus our vesper hymn:
Jubilate! Amen!
Father, gracious, loving, tender,
O, accept the loving strain.

2 Day by day comes rich in blessing;
Night by night brings holy calm;
Lord, to thee our praise addressing,
Rises thus our joyful psalm:
Jubilate! Amen!
But, unworthiness confessing,
Into silence fades again.

S. Longfellow.

119

Vesper Hymn.

1 HARK! the vesper hymn is stealing
O'er the waters soft and clear;
Nearer yet, and nearer pealing,
Now it bursts upon the ear!
Jubilate! Amen!
Farther now, now farther stealing,
Soft it fades upon the ear.

2 Now like moonlight waves retreating
To the shore, it dies along;
Now like angry surges meeting,
Breathes the mingled tide of song,
Jubilate! Amen!
Hush! again like waves retreating
To the shore, it dies along.

Evening Worship

2 We would adore thee, God sublime!
 Whose power and wisdom, love and grace
 Are greater than the round of time,
 And wider than the bounds of space.
 O, how shall thought expression find,
 All lost in thine immensity!
 How shall we see thee, glorious Mind,
 Amid thy dread infinity!

3 But thou art present with us here,
 As in thy glittering high, domain;
 And grateful hearts and humble fear
 Can never seek thy face in vain.
 Help us to praise thee, Lord of light!
 Help us thy boundless love declare;
 And, here within thy courts to-night,
 Aid us, and hearken to our prayer.

Sir John Bowring.

121

Evening Hymn.

1 O HOLY Father! 'mid the calm
 And stillness of this evening hour,
 We would lift up our solemn psalm,
 To praise thy goodness and thy power:
 For over us, and over all,
 Thy tender mercies still extend,
 Nor vainly shall thy children call
 On thee, our Father and our Friend!

2 Kept by thy goodness through the day,
 Thanksgiving to thy name we pour!
 Night o'er us, with its stars,—we pray
 Thy love, to guard us evermore!
 In grief, console; in gladness, bless;
 In darkness, guide; in sickness, cheer;
 Till, perfected in righteousness,
 Before thy throne our souls appear!

1. Glo - ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the bless-ings of the light;

Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings! Be - neath thine own al - mighty wings.

122 "Evening Song."

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed:

Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the judgment-day.

4 Oh, let my soul on thee repose
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close!
Sleep, which shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

126 He calleth his own Sheep by Name.

1 Now may the Lord, our Shepherd, lead
To living streams his little flock;
May he in flowery pastures feed,
Shade us at noon beneath the rock.

2 Now may we hear our Shepherd's voice,
And gladly answer to his call;
Now may our hearts for Him rejoice
Who knows, and names, and loves us all.

3 When the chief Shepherd shall appear,
And small and great before him stand,
O, be the flock assembling here
Found with the sheep on his right hand.

2 Say to the heathen, from thy throne,
"I am Jehovah!—God alone!"—
Thy voice their idols shall confound,
And cast their altars to the ground.
3 Let Zion's time of favor come;
Bring the tribes of Israel home:

To God, the great, eternal One,
To Jesus Christ, his only Son,

Make our expanding souls possess
And learn the height, and breadth, and

Closing Hymn.

1 COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell
By faith and love in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts and wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done
By all the church, through Christ, his Son.

Close of Worship.

2 Oh may the influence of this day,
Long as our memory with us stay,
And as an angel guardian prove,
To guide us to our home above.

Anon.

Grant us, our few remaining days,
To work thy will and live thy praise.

132

Dismissal.

1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord!
Help us to feed upon thy word;

2 Teach us in life and death to bless
Thee, Lord, our strength and righteousness;
And grant we all may meet above,
Where we shall better sing thy love.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
 For the gospel's joyful sound;
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound:
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.

3 Then, whene'er the signal's given,
 Us from earth to call away,
 Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
 Glad the summons to obey,
 May we ever
 Reign with Christ in endless day.

The Spirit and the Word.

1 COME, thou soul-transforming Spirit!
 Bless the sower and the seed;
 Let each heart thy grace inherit;
 Raise the weak, the hungry feed;
 From thy gospel,
 Now supply thy people's need.

2 Oh! may all enjoy the blessing
 Which thy word designs to give;
 Let us all, thy love possessing,
 Joyfully the truth receive;
 And forever
 To thy praise and glory live.

1 COME, Christians, brethren, ere we part;
 Join every voice and every heart;
 One solemn hymn to God we raise,
 Our final song of grateful praise.

2 Christians, we here may meet no more,
 But there is yet a happier shore;
 And there released from toil and pain,
 Soon, brethren, we may meet again.

Sabbath ended

1 THE day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
Yet pass not from us with the sun,
True Light that lightenest all!

2 Around thy throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to thee.

3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
But oh, the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir!

4 Shine thou within us, then,
A day that knows no end,
Till songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend.

"At Dismission."

1 ONCE more, before we part,
Oh, bless the Saviour's name!
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

2 Lord, in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart;
We met in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.

3 Still on thy holy word
Help us to feed, and grow,
Still to go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.

4 Now, Lord, before we part,
Help us to bless thy name:
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

Closing Hours.

1 LORD, at this closing hour,
Establish every heart
Upon thy word of truth and power,
To keep us when we part.

2 Peace to our brethren give;
Fill all our hearts with love;
In faith and patience may we live
And seek our rest above.

3 Through changes, bright or drear,
We would thy will pursue;
And toil to spread thy kingdom here,
Till we its glory view.

4 To God, the only wise,
In every age adored,
Let glory from the church arise
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

143 For a Blessing on Truth

- 2 Preserve it from the passing feet,
And plunderers of the air,
The sultry sun's intenser heat,
And weeds of worldly care.
- 3 Though buried deep, or thinly strown,
Do thou thy grace supply:
The hope in earthly furrows sown
Shall ripen in the sky.

Bishop Reginald Heber, 1827.

Psalm 89.

- 1 BLEST are the souls that hear and know
The gospel's joyful sound;
Peace shall attend the path they go,
And light their steps surround.
- 2 Their joys shall bear their spirits up
Through their Redeemer's name;
His righteousness exalts their hope,
Nor Satan dares condemn.
- 3 The Lord, our glory and defence,
Strength and salvation gives;

Israel! thy King for ever reigns,
Thy God for ever lives.

Isaac Watts.

Precious Seed.

- 1 ALMIGHTY God, thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Now let the dew of heaven descend,
And righteous fruits abound.
- 2 Let not the foe of Christ or man
This holy seed remove,
But give it root in every heart,
To bring forth fruits of love.
- 3 Let not the world's deceitful cares
The rising plant destroy,
But let it yield, a hundred-fold,
The fruits of peace and joy.
- 4 Nor let thy word, so kindly sent
To raise us to thy throne,
Return to thee, and sadly tell
That we reject thy Son.

God Incomprehensible.

1 GREAT God, in vain man's narrow view
Attempts to look thy nature through!
Our laboring powers with reverence own
Thy glories never can be known.

2 Not the high seraph's mighty thought,
Who countless years his God has sought,
Such wondrous height or depth can find,
Or fully trace thy boundless mind.

3 And yet thy kindness deigns to show
Enough for mortal minds to know;
While wisdom, goodness, power divine,
Through all thy works and conduct shine.

4 Oh, may our souls with rapture trace
Thy works of nature and of grace,
Explore thy sacred truth, and still
Press on to know and do thy will!

Divine Sovereignty.

1 LORD, my weak tho't in vain would climb,
To search the starry vault profound;
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.

2 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

3 Be this my joy, that evermore
Thou rulest all things at thy will;
Thy sovereign wisdom I adore,
And calmly, sweetly trust thee still.

Ray Palmer, 1833.

From everlasting thou art God.

1 ERE mountains reared their forms sublime,
Or heaven and earth in order stood,
Before the birth of ancient time,
From everlasting, thou art God.

2 A thousand ages, in their flight,
With thee are as a fleeting day;
Past, present, future, to thy sight
At once their various scenes display.

3 But our brief life's a shadowy dream,
A passing thought, that soon is o'er,
That fades with morning's earliest beam,
And fills the musing mind no more.

4 To us, O Lord, the wisdom give,
Each passing moment so to spend,
That we at length with thee may live,
Where life and bliss shall never end.

158 Mighty in Power.

2 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
 That filled the earth with food;

 And then pronounced them good.
 Lord, how thy wonders are displayed,
 Where'er I turn my eye;
 If I survey the ground I tread,
 Or gaze upon the sky!

3 There's not a plant or flower below,
 But makes thy glories known;
 And clouds arise and tempests blow,
 By order from thy throne.
 Creatures that borrow life from thee
 Are subject to thy care:
 'There's not a place where we can flee,
 But God is present there.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

159 Presence of God.

1 GREAT God, thy penetrating eye
 Pervades my inmost powers;
 With awe profound my wandering soul
 Falls prostrate, and adores.
 To be incompassed round with God,
 The holy and the just,
 Armed with omnipotence to save
 Or crumble me to dust.

2 O, how tremendous is the thought!
 Deep may it be impressed;
 And may thy Spirit firmly grave
 This truth within my breast.
 Begirt with thee, my fearless soul
 The gloomy vale shall tread;
 And thou wilt bind th' immortal crown
 Of glory on my head.

160 Holy and reverend is his Name.

 Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry;

 To his sublime abode.

2 With sacred awe pronounce his name,

 Than noblest forms of speech.
 Thou holy God, preserve my soul
 From all pollution free;
 The pure in heart are thy delight,
 And they thy face shall see.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth.
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all
Move round this dark terrestrial ball?
What though no real voice, nor sound,
Amid their radiant orbs be found.
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
Forever singing as they shine,
The hand that made us is divine.

164 God through all and in you all.

1 God of the earth, the sky, the sea;
Of all above and all below,—
Creation lives and moves in thee;
Thy present life through all doth flow.
Thy love is in the sunshine's glow,
Thy life is in the quickening air:
When lightnings flash and storm-winds blow,
There is thy power; thy law is there.

2 We feel thy calm at evening's hour,
Thy grandeur in the march of night,
And, when the morning breaks in power,
We hear thy word, "Let there be light."
But higher far, and far more clear,
Thee in man's spirit we behold;
Thine image and thyself are there,—
The indwelling God, proclaimed of old,
S. Longfellow.

165 Presence and Love of God.

1 God reigns on earth; he reigns above;
His realm embraces every shore;
He reigns in righteousness and love,
Almighty King for evermore.
With swelling heart, I look on high;
And every light that blazes there,
Each constellation of the sky,
His wisdom and his love declare.
2 There's not a leaf in yonder bower,
Or gem that sparkles in the sea,
Or blade of grass, or tender flower,
But has a voice of love to me,—
A voice that speaks of God—my trust
When danger or when death is near;
He lifts the righteous from the dust;
He wipes away the scalding tear.

O'erlook the tokens of thy care;
But what thy liberal hand imparts,
Still own in praise, still ask in prayer.
- 4 So shall our suns more grateful shine,

And thou, O God, enjoyed in all.

167 Not that we loved God, but he us.

- 1 ERE earth's foundations yet were laid,

True life in Christ, thy only Son.
Whom thou hast made my way to thee,
From whom all grace flows ever down.
- 3 O love, that, long ere time began,
This precious name of child bestowed,—
That opened heaven on earth to man,
And called us sinners, "sons of God!"
- 4 Could I but honor thee aright,
Noble and sweet my song should be,
Thatearth and heav'n should learn thy might,
And what my God hath done for me.

168 Perfections.

- 1 THE Lord! how wondrous are his ways:
How firm his truth! how large his grace!
He takes his mercy for his throne,
And thence he makes his glories known.
- 2 Not half so high his power hath spread
The starry heavens above our head,
As his rich love exceeds our praise,
Exceeds the highest hopes we raise.
- 3 Not half so far has nature placed
The rising morning from the west,
As his forgiving grace removes
The daily guilt of those he loves.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

169 God is Everywhere.

- 1 FATHER and friend, thy light, thy love,
Beaming through all thy works, we see;
Thy glory gilds the heavens above,
And all the earth is full of thee.
- 2 Thy voice we hear, thy presence feel,
While thou too pure for mortal sight,
Involved in clouds, invisible,
Reignest the Lord of life and light.
- 3 We know not in what hallowed part
Of the wide heavens thy throne may be;
But this we know, that where thou art
Strength, wisdom, goodness, dwell with thee.
- 4 Thy children shall not faint nor fear,
Sustained by this delightful thought,
Since thou, their God, art everywhere,
They cannot be where thou art not.

While every nation, every shore,

3 There is a stream, whose gentle flow

Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,

Sweet peace, thy promises afford,

172 God is greater than our Heart.

1 WHITHER. O. whither should I fly,
But to my loving Father's breast,
Secure within thine arms to lie,

2 In all my ways thy hand I own,
Thy ruling providence I see:
Assist me still thy course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.

3 Foolish, and impotent, and blind,
Lead me a way I have not known;

171 His Mercy endureth forever.

1 GIVE to our God immortal praise;
Mercy and truth are all his ways;
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

2 He built the earth, he spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

3 He sent his Son with power to save
From guilt, and darkness, and the grave:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

4 Thro' this vain world he guides our feet,
And leads us to his heavenly seat:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When this vain world shall be no more.

173 Paternal Providence of God.

1 THROUGH all the various shifting scene
Of life's mistaken ill or good,
Thy hand, O God! conducts, unseen,

2 Thou givest with paternal care,
Howe'er unjustly we complain,

Of joy and sorrow, health and pain.

3 All things on earth, and all in heaven,
On thine eternal will depend;
And all for greater good were given,

- 2 He rides and thunders through the sky; 2 I hear it in the rushing breeze:

Ye saints, rejoice before his face. All swell the chorus, "God is good."
- 3 Proclaim him King, pronounce him blest; 3 Yea, God is good, all nature says,
He's your defence, your joy, your rest; By God's own hand with speech endued;
When terrors rise, and nations faint, And man, in louder notes of praise,
God is the strength of every saint. Should sing for joy that God is good.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

Every good Gift is from above.

- 1 GREAT God, let all my tuneful powers
Awake, and sing thy mighty name:
Thy hand revolves my circling hours—
Thy hand, from whence my being came.
- 2 Seasons and moons, still rolling round
In beauteous order, speak thy praise;
And years, with smiling mercy crowned;
To thee successive honors raise.
- 3 My life, my health, my friends I owe,
All to thy vast, unbounded love;
Ten thousand precious gifts below,
And hope of nobler joys above.
- 4 Thus will I sing till nature cease,
Till sense and language are no more;
And, after death, thy boundless grace
Through everlasting years adore.
- 4 For all thy gifts we bless thee, Lord;
But chiefly for our heavenly food,
Thy pardoning grace, thy quickening word:
These prompt our song, that God is good.

John Hampdon Gurney, 1838.

Behold, what Manner of Love.

- 1 O LOVE of God, how strong and true!
Eternal and yet ever new,
Above all price, and still unbought,
Beyond all knowledge and all thought.
- 2 O wide-embracing, wondrous love,
We read thee in the sky above,
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.
- 3 We read thee best in Him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame;
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.
- 4 O love of God, our shield and stay,
Through all the perils of our way;
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
Forever safe, forever blest.

Ottiwell Heginbotham, 1768-1794.

God is Good.

- 1 OUR God is good; in earth and sky,
From ocean-depths and spreading wood,
Ten thousand voices seem to cry,
"God made us all, and God is good."

Horatius Bonar.

1. The Lord my pas - ture shall pre-pare, And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants sup-ply. And guard me with a watch-ful eye:

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the verdant paths I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall feel no ill,
For thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade,

4 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious lonely wilds I stray,
Thy presence shall my pains beguile,
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

Addison.

2 Help us with man in peace to live,
Our brothers wrong in love forgive,
And, day and night, the tempter flee
Thro' strength which comes alone in thee!
Thus will our spirits find their rest,
In thy deep peace forever blest.

Anon.

180 "My Strength, my Tower."

1 THEE will I love, my strength, my tower,
Thee will I love, my joy, my crown!
Thee will I love, with all my power,
In all thy works, and thee alone:
Thee will I love, till the pure fire
Fill my whole soul with chaste desire.

2 Uphold me in the doubtful race,
Nor suffer me again to stray;
Strengthen my feet, with steady pace
Still to press forward in thy way;
That all my powers with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

3 Thee will I love, my joy, my crown!
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God!
Thee will I love beneath thy frown,
Or smile, thy sceptre or thy rod:
What though my heart and flesh decay?
Thee shall I love in endless day.

John Wesley, 77

The Peace of God.

1 O FATHER, lift our souls above,
Till we find rest in thy dear love;
And still that peace divine impart
Which sanctifies the inmost heart,
And make each morn and setting sun
But bring us nearer to thy throne.

BREMEN, C. P. M.

THOMAS HASTINGS.

1. Great Source of un-exhausted good, Who giv'st us health and friends and food And peace and calm content, { Like fragrant in-cense, to the skies, } Let songs of grateful praises rise } For all thy blessings lent.

181 Providential Goodness of God.

2 Through all the dangers of the day,
Thy providence attends our way,
To guard us and to guide;
Thy grace directs our wandering will,
And warns us, lest seducing ill
Allure our souls aside.

3 To thee our lives, our all, we owe,
Our peace and sweetest joys below,
And brightest hopes above;
Then let our lives and all that's ours,
Our souls, and all our active powers,
Be sacred to thy love.

182 Fullness of Love.

2 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.—Ref.

3 Pining souls! come nearer Jesus;
Come, but come not doubting thus,
Come with faith that trusts more freely
His great tenderness for us.
If our love were but more simple
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.—Ref.

God's Condescension.

2 When heaven, thy glorious work on high,
Employs my wandering sight,
The moon, that nightly rules the sky,
With stars of feebler light,—

3 Lord, what is man, that thou shouldst
To keep him in thy mind? [choose
Or what his race, that thou shouldst prove
To them so wondrous kind?

4 O thou, to whom all creatures bow
Within this earthly frame,
Through all the world, how great art thou
How glorious is thy name!

The Guide of Life.

1 I CANNOT walk in darkness long,
My light is by my side;
I cannot stumble or go wrong,
While following such a guide.

2 He is my stay and my defense,
How shall I fail or fall?
My keeper is Omnipotence,
My ruler ruleth all.

3 The powers below and powers above
Are subject to his care;
I cannot wander from his love
Whose love is everywhere.

Divine Goodness in Affliction.

1 GREAT Ruler of all nature's frame,
We own thy power divine;
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,
They work thy sovereign will;
And, awed by thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.

3 Thy merey tempers every blast
To those who seek thy face;
And mingles, with the tempest's roar,
The whispers of thy grace.

4 Those gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumult cease,
And gales of Paradise shall lull
My weary soul to peace.

Phillip Doddridge, 1755

God's Loving Grace.

1 COME, happy souls, approach your God
With new, melodious songs;
Come, render to almighty grace
The tribute of your tongues.

2 So strange, so boundless was the love
That pitied dying men,
The Father sent his only son
To give them life again.

3 Yes, all was merciful and mild,
And wrath forsook the throne,
When Christ on the kind errand came,
And brought salvation down.

4 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
Accept thine offered grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's love,
And give the Father grace.

God's Care.

- 2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 4 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.

The Love of God.

- 1 COME, ye that know and fear the Lord,
And raise your souls above;
Let every heart and voice accord,
To sing that "God is love."
- 2 His precious truth his word declares,
And all his mercies prove;
Jesus, the gift of gifts appears,
To show that "God is love."
- 3 Behold his patience, bearing long
With those who from him rove;
"Till mighty grace their hearts subdues
To teach them—"God is love."
- 4 Oh! may we all, while here below,
This best of blessings prove;
Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
Shall shout that "God is love."

George Burder, 1784.

Thy Judgments are a great Deep.

- 1 GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.
- 2 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace:
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 3 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
- 4 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

William Cowper, 1779.

190

The Earth is full of God's Goodness.

- 1 THY goodness, Lord, our souls confess,
Thy goodness we adore—
A spring whose blessings never fail,
A sea without a shore.
- 2 Sun, moon, and stars thy love declare
In every golden ray;
Love draws the curtains of the night
And love brings back the day.
- 3 But chiefly thy compassion, Lord,
Is in the gospel seen;
There, like a sun, thy mercy shines,
Without a cloud between.

2 Great God, how high thy glories rise!
How bright thine armies shine!
Where is the power with thee that vies,
Or truth compared to thine?

3 Thy words the raging winds control,
And move the boisterous deep;
Thou mak'st the sleeping billows roll,
The rolling billows sleep.

4 Justice and judgment are thy throne,
Yet wondrous is thy grace;
While truth and mercy, joined in one,
Invite us near thy face.

Isaac Watts.

192 All as God wills.

1 ALL as God wills! who wisely heeds
To give or to withhold,
And knoweth more of all my needs
Than all my prayers have told.

2 Enough, that blessings undeserved
Have marked my erring track;
That, wheresoe'er my feet have swerved,
Thy chastening turned me back;

3 That death seems but a covered way
Which opens into light,
Wherein no blinded child can stray
Beyond the Father's sight.

4 No longer forward or behind
I look, in hope or fear,
But grateful take the good I find,
God's blessing now and here.

193 The Book of Nature.

1 THERE is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts;
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God, above, below
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book to show
How God himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Father's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small,
In peace and order move.

4 Thon who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee.
And read thee everywhere.

John Keble.

194 Now we see through a Glass darkly.

1 Thy way, O God, is in the sea;
Thy paths I can not trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.

2 Though but in part I know thy will,
I bless thee for the sight:
When will thy love the whole reveal
In glory's clearer light?

3 With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace,
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

English Melody.

1. Be - ing of be - ings, God of love, To thee our hearts we raise;

Thy all - sus - tain - ing power we prove, And glad - ly sing thy praise.

195 The Fullness of God.

2 Thine, wholly thine, we want to be;
Our sacrifice receive;
Made, and preserved, and saved by thee,
To thee ourselves we give.

3 To thee our every wish aspires:
For all thy mercy's store,
The sole return thy love requires
Is that we ask for more.

4 For more we ask; we open, Lord,
Our hearts to embrace thy will:
Renew us by thy quickening word,
And from thy fulness fill.

Charles Wesley.

196 In Nature.

1 LORD, when my raptured thought surveys
Creation's beauties o'er,
All nature joins to teach thy praise,
And bid my soul adore.

2 Where'er I turn my gazing eyes,
Thy radiant footsteps shine;
Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise,
And speak their source divine.

3 On me thy providence has shone
With gentle smiling rays;
Oh, let my lips and life make known
Thy goodness and thy praise.

4 All-bounteous Lord, thy grace impart!
Oh, teach me to improve
Thy gifts with humble, grateful heart,
And crown them with thy love.

Anne Steele.

197 Nature's Worship.

1 The harp at Nature's advent strung
Has never ceased to play;
The song the stars of morning sung
Has never died away.

2 And prayer is made, and praise is given
By all things near and far;
The ocean looketh up to heaven
And mirrors every star;

3 So Nature keeps the reverent frame
With which her years began;
And all her signs and voices shame
The prayerless heart of man.

J. G. Whittier.

198 The Lord is thy Keeper.

1 UP to the hills I lift mine eyes;
There all my hope is laid;
The Lord, who built the earth and skies,—
From him will come mine aid.

2 Thy foot unmoved he ever keeps,
And all thy ways will guard;
He slumbers not, and never sleeps—
Thy Keeper is the Lord.

3 The Lord, thy Keeper, shades thy way,
Preserves thee in his sight;
Nor shall the sun smite thee by day,
Nor shall the moon by night.

4 The Lord preserves thy soul from sin,
From evils great and sore—
Thy going out and coming in,
Now and for evermore.

Oh, give Thanks.

[Omit Repeat.]

2 Oh, give thanks to nature's King,
Who made every breathing thing!
His our warm and sentient frame;
His the mind's immortal flame;
Oh, how close the ties that bind
Spirits to the Eternal Mind!

3 Oh, give thanks with heart and lip,
For we are his workmanship,
And all creatures are his care;
Not a bird that cleaves the air
Falls unnoticed;—but who can Speak the Father's love to man!

All from God.

1 FATHER, thy paternal care
Has my guardian been, my guide;
Every hallowed wish and prayer
Has thy hand of love supplied:
Thine is every thought of bliss,
Left by hours and days gone by;
Every hope thy offspring is,
Beaming from futurity.

2 Every sun of splendid ray;
Every moon that shines serene;
Every morn that welcomes day;
Every evening's twilight scene;
Every hour which wisdom brings;
Every incense at thy shrine,—
These, and all life's holiest things,
And its fairest,—all are thine.

God Everywhere.

2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want and in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the woes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer:
God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father come and wait;
He will answer every prayer;
God is present everywhere.

The only Refuge.

1 HOLY Father, heavenly King,
O'er me spread thy guardian wing;
When by trembling fears distressed
Let me flee to thee and rest.

2 Call me, keep me by thy side;
Teach me there alone to hide;
Where for safety should I flee,
If my footsteps strayed from thee?

3 Warn me with thy gentle voice;
Point my path, and guide my choice;
Let me, Lord, in thee possess
Wisdom, peace and righteousness.

But his mercy waneth never,
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth
Will his changeless goodness prove;

God is wisdom, God is love.

Hope and comfort from above.
Everywhere his glory shineth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

Sir John Bowring.

For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows:

2 Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my love be warmed to praise.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless.

4 Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

208 God our Benefactor.

- 1 My Maker and my King,
To thee my all I owe;
Thy sovereign bounty is the spring
From whence my blessings flow.

My God, thy benefits demand
More praise than life can give.

And shall my passion rove?
Lord, form this wretched heart anew,
And fill it with thy love.

Anne Steele, 1760.

209 God our Father.

- 1 My Father,—cheering name,—
Oh! may I call thee mine?
Give me the humble hope to claim
A portion so divine.
- 2 This can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly:
What real harm can reach my soul,
Beneath my Father's eye?
- 3 Whate'er thy will denies,
I calmly would resign;
For thou art just and good and wise;
Oh bend my will to thine!
- 4 Whate'er thy will ordains,
Oh give me strength to bear;
Still let me know a Father reigns,
And trust a Father's care!

Star of the East.

2 Cold on his cradle the dewdrops are shining;
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Lord, and Redeemer, and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean;
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morn-ing, [aid;
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,

1. { Hark! what ce-les-tial sounds, What mu-sic fills the air! } { Soft warbling to the morn, (Omit.....) } It strikes the rav-ish'd ear:

Fear not.

2 Th' angelic hosts descend,
With harmony divine;
See how from heaven they bend,
And in full chorus join:—
‘Fear not,’ say they; ‘great joy we bring;
Jesus, your King, is born to-day.’

3 Glory to God on high!
Ye mortals, spread the sound,
And let your raptures fly
To earth’s remotest bound:
For peace on earth, from God in heaven,
To man is given, at Jesus’ birth.

Williams.

The Christ of prophecy.
Mortals, be glad; your praises bring;
All hearts, all lands, exultant sing.

4 Enter our hearts to-day,

We give ourselves,—our all to Thee,
For time and for eternity.

Christmas Hymn.

1 Lo! from the upper skies
Angelic hosts appear;
Hark! how their songs arise,
In accents sweet and clear,—
The Christ of God is born to-day,
The Christ that takes our sins away.

2 The chorus swells on high,
In melody divine;
And lo! the Heralds nigh,
In dazzling glory shine,
As they proclaim the Saviour’s birth,—
“Good-will to men, and peace on earth.”

3 The darkness falls away;
All types and shadows flee;
Messiah comes to-day,

217 Good Tidings of Great Joy.

1 HARK! hark! the notes of joy
Roll o’er the heavenly plains,
And seraphs find employ
For their sublimest strains.
Some new delight in heaven is known,
Loud sound the harps around the throne.

2 Hark! hark! the sound draws nigh;
The joyful hosts descend;
Jesus forsakes the sky;
To earth his footsteps bend:
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

3 Strike, strike the harps again
To great Immanuel’s name;
Arise, ye sons of men,
And all his grace proclaim:
Angels and men, wake every string;
’Tis Christ the Saviour’s praise we sing.

218 The Mission of Christ.

- 2 Joy to the earth! the Saviour reigns:
Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground:
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.
- 4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness.
And wonders of his love.

219 The Birth-song of Christ.

- 1 CALM on the listening ear of night
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains.

- 2 Celestial choirs from courts above
Shed sacred glories there;
And angels with their sparkling lyres
Make music on the air.

- 3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply;
And greet from all their holy heights
The Dayspring from on high.

- 4 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their Anthems ring;
"Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."

E. H. Sears.

220 Prepare ye the Way of the Lord.

- 1 SING to the Lord, ye distant lands,
Ye tribes of every tongue;
His new-discovered grace demands
A new and nobler song.
- 2 Say to the nations, Jesus reigns,
God's own almighty Son;
His power the sinking world sustains,
And grace surrounds his throne.
- 3 Let an unusual joy surprise
The islands of the sea:
Ye mountains, sink; ye valleys, rise;
Prepare the Lord his way.
- 4 Behold, he comes; he comes to bless
The nations as their Lord,
To show the world his righteousness,
And send his truth abroad.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

221 Star of Bethlehem.

- 1 AS SHADOWS, cast by cloud and sun,
Flit o'er the summer grass,
Lo, in thy sight, Almighty One!
Earth's generation's pass.

- 2 Yet doth the star of Bethlehem shed
A lustre pure and sweet;
And still it leads, as once it led,
To the Messiah's feet.

- 3 O Father, may that holy Star
Grow every year more bright,
And send its glorious beams afar,
To fill the world with light.

2 And ye, beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow,—
Look now; for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!

3 For lo, the days are hastening on
By prophet bards foretold,
When, with the ever-circling years,
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends.
Traveller, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveller, ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth!

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveller, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.

Hie thee to thy quiet home!

Lo! the Son of God is come!

231. "Holy, harmless."

2 Oh! who like thee—so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
Oh! who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 Oh! who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility!

4 Oh! in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe;
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God!

A. C. COXE.

232 Behold how he loved Him.

1 "SEE how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews,
As tender tears from Jesus fell;
My grateful heart the thought pursues,
And on the theme delights to dwell.

2 See how he loved, who traveled on,
Teaching the doctrines from the skies;
Who bade disease and pain be gone,
And called the sleeping dead to rise.

3 See how he loved, who never shrank
From toil or danger, pain or death,
Who all the cup of sorrow drank,
And meekly yielded up his breath.

4 Such love can we, unmoved, survey?
O, may our breasts with ardor glow,
To tread his steps, his laws obey.
And thus our warm affections show.

1 How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place!

To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come:
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

234 Abide with us.

1 ABIDE with us; the evening shades
Begin already to prevail;
And, as the lingering twilight fades,
Dark clouds along the horizon sail.

2 Abide with us; and still unfold
Thy sacred, thy prophetic lore;
What wondrous things of Jesus told!
Stranger, we thirst, we pant for more.

3 Abide with us; our hearts are cold;
We thought that Israel he'd restore;
But sweet the truths thy lips have told,
And, stranger, we complain no more.

4 Abide with us; amazed they cry,
As, suddenly, while breaking bread,
Their own lost Jesus meets their eye,
With radiant glory on his head.

- 1 WHAT equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?
- 2 Worthy is he who once was slain,
The Prince of Peace, who groaned and died;
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
- 3 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
And a bright crown without a thorn.

Who bore the curse for wretched men:
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen!

And justice armed with frowns appears:
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.
- 3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on his heart.

Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

At the Cross.

2 What language shall I borrow,
 To praise thee, heavenly Friend.
 For this, thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end?
 Lord, make me thine forever,
 Nor let me faithless prove:
 Oh! let me never, never,
 Abuse such dying love.

3 Forbid that I should leave thee;
 O Jesus, leave not me;
 By faith I would receive thee;
 Thy blood can make me free:

When strength and comfort languish,
 And I must hence depart:
 Release me then from anguish,
 By thine own wounded heart.

4 Be near when I am dying,
 Oh! show thy cross to me!
 And for my succor flying,
 Come, Lord, to set me free:
 These eyes new faith receiving,
 From Jesus shall not move;
 For he who dies believing,
 Dies safely—through thy love.

Christ in Gethsemane.

2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone, with fears;
E'en that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he who hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by his God.

4 'Tis midnight; from celestial plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

W. B. Tappan.

It is finished.

1 'Tis finished! so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head, and died.
'Tis finished; yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'Tis finished!—all that heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view
That kings and prophets never knew.

3 'Tis finished! Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.

4 'Tis finished! let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round;
'Tis finished! let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

Through his Poverty made Rich.

1 On the dark wave of Galilee
The gloom of twilight gathers fast;
And o'er the waters heavily
Sweeps cold and drear the evening blast.

2 Still near the lake with weary tread,
Lingers a form of human kind;
And on his lone, unsheltered head
Flows the chill night-damp of the wind.

3 Why seeks he not a home of rest?
Why seeks he not the pillowed bed?
Beasts have their dens, the birds their nest;
He hath not where to lay his head.

4 Such was the lot he freely chose,
To bless, to save the human race;
And through his poverty there flows
A rich, full stream of heavenly grace.

Christ's Passion.

1 THE morning dawns upon the place
Where Jesus spent the night in prayer;
Through yielding glooms behold his face;
Nor form nor comeliness is there.

2 Brought forth to judgment, now he stands
Arraigned, condemned, at Pilate's bar;
Here, spurned by fierce praetorian bands,
There, mocked by Herod's men of war.

3 He bears their buffeting and scorn,
Mock homage of the lip, the knee,
The purple robe, the crown of thorn,
The scourge, the nail, th' accurséd tree.

4 No guile within his mouth is found;
He neither threatens, nor complains;
Meek as a lamb for slaughter bound,
Dumb, 'mid his murderers he remains.

5 But hark! he prays: 'tis for his foes:
And speaks: 'tis comfort to his friends;
Answers: and paradise bestows;
He bows his head: the conflict ends.

Saviour of all who trust thy word!

It flows from every streaming wound,—
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.

The quaking earth acknowledged thee;
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree;
The Lord of glory dies for men;
But lo, what sudden joys I see,
Jesus, the dead, revives again.

3 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns.
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
And led the monster, Death, in chains.

4 Say, "Live forever, wondrous King,
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask the monster, "Where's thy sting?"
"And where's thy vict'ry, boasting Grave?"

The King of Glory.

1 Our Lord is risen from the dead;
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates,
Ye everlasting doors, give way.

2 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold th' ethereal scene:
He claims these mansions as his right,
Receive the King of glory in.

3 Who is the King of glory—who?
The Lord, who all our foes o'ercame;
Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the Conqueror's name.

4 Lo, his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay;
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;
Ye everlasting doors, give way.

"He lives."

1 "I KNOW that my Redeemer lives;"
What comfort this sweet sentence gives,
He lives, He lives, who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living Head.

2 He lives to bless me with His love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to help in time of need.

3 He lives, and grants me daily breath,
He lives, and I shall conquer death,
He lives, my mansions to prepare,
He lives to bring me safely there.

The Song of Songs.

1 COME, let us sing the song of songs—
The saints in heaven began the strain—
The homage which to Christ belongs:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God—
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

3 To him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

4 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign;
This song, our song of songs shall be:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain."

James Montgomery.

AVISON, [EASTER HYMN.]

1. Lift your glad voices in triumph on high,..... For Je-sus hath ris-en, and man can not die. Vain were the terrors that gathered a-round him, And short the do-min-ion of death and the grave; He burst from the fet-ters of darkness that bound him, Resplendent in glo-ry, to live and to save. Loud was the chorus of an-gels on high,.....

"The Saviour hath ris-en, and man shall not die, and man shall not die, and man shall not die."

249

2 Glory to God in full anthems of joy;
 The being he gave us death cannot destroy.
 'Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow,
 If tears were our birth-right, and death were our end;
 But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
 And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend.
 Lift, then, your voices in triumph on high,
 For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

1. An-gels! roll the rock a-way; Hal-le-lu-jah! Death! yield up thy mighty prey; Hal-le-lu-jah!

See! the Saviour leaves the tomb, Hal-le-lu-jah! Glowing with immortal bloom, Hal-le-lu-jah!

2 Hark! the wondering angels raise
Louder notes of joyful praise;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Echo with the blissful sound.
3 Heaven unfolds its portals wide,
See the Conqueror through them ride!

King of glory! mount thy throne—
Boundless empire is thine own.
4 Praise him, ye celestial choirs!
Tune, and sweep your golden lyres;
Raise, O earth! your noblest songs,
From ten thousand thousand tongues.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ has opened paradise.
4 Lives again our glorious King;
"Where, O Death, is now thy sting?"

Once he died our souls to save;
"Where's thy victory, boasting grave?"
5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!
6 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day!
Sons of men and angels say:
Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply!
Raise your joys and triumphs high!

Surpassing all the joys we know,
All that we can desire,—

2 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore,
And seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

3 Thee may our tongue forever bless,
Thee may we love alone,
And ever in our lives express,
The image of thine own.

Bernard.

259 Christ our All.

1 O JESUS, Lord of all below,
Thou fount of life and fire,

260 The Way, the Truth, and the Life.

2 Thou art the Truth; thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life; the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life:
Grant us to know that way,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Which lead to endless day.

Geo. W. Doane, 1824.

2 I find him lifting up my head;
He brings salvation near;
His presence makes me free indeed,
And he will soon appear.

3 He wills that I should holy be:
What can withstand his will?
The counsel of his grace in me
He surely shall fulfill.

4 Jesus, I hang upon thy word;
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to thyself receive.

Charles Wesley.

261 Lift up your Heads, O ye Gates.

1 LIFT up your heads, eternal gates;
Unfold; to entertain
The King of glory; see, he comes
With his celestial train.

2 Who is this King of glory—who?
The Lord, for strength renowned;
In battle mighty; o'er his foes
Eternal Victor crowned.

3 Who is the King of glory—who?
The Lord of hosts renowned:
Of glory he alone is King,
Who is with glory crowned.

Tate & Brady.

262 "I have prayed for thee."

1 I know that my Redeemer lives,
And ever prays for me;
A token of his love he gives,
A pledge of liberty.

263 "All in Jesus."

1 BEHOLD, where in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine!
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.

3 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned he bowed, and said,—
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"

4 Be Christ our pattern, and our guide,
His image may we bear;
Oh! may we tread his holy steps,—
His joy and glory share.

W. Unfield.

264 He is altogether lovely.

- 2 No mortal can with him compare
 Among the sons of men;
 Fairer is he than all the fair
 Who fill the heavenly train.
 3 Since from his bounty I receive
 Such proofs of love divine,
 Had I a thousand hearts to give,
 Lord, they should all be thine.

Joseph Stennett, d. 1713.

265 The precious Name.

- 1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
 In a believer's ear!

It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
 And drives away his fear.

- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
 And calms the troubled breast;
 'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
 And to the weary rest.

- 3 Dear name, the rock on which I build,
 My shield and hiding-place;
 My never-failing store, filled
 With boundless treasures of grace.

Sweet Name.

- 2 My Jesus shall be all my theme,
 While on this earth I stay;
 And still I'll sing his lovely name
 When all things else decay.

 With all his favored throng,
 Then will I sing more sweet, more loud,
 And Christ shall be my song.

Love of Christ.

- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and—O, amazing love!—
He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste he fled,

Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.

- 4 O, for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.

Isaac Watts.

Are saved, to sin no more.

Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,

Salvation by Christ.

Salvation shall inspire our hearts,

Tempted like as We are.

2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he hath felt the same.

3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out his cries and tears,
And, in his measure, feels afresh
What every member bears.

His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace

The Life was the Light of Men.

1 O, WHAT a treasure all divine
Is hid in Christ, the Lord!
From him what rays of glory shine!
What peace his paths afford!

Though we were dead before;
And now he makes our joys abound,
Who all our sorrows bore.

3 When sore distressed, he to our aid
On rapid pinions flies,
And to the wounds which sin has made
A healing balm applies.

LOVING-KINDNESS. L. M.

1. A-wake, my soul, to joy-ful lays, And sing the great Redeem-er's praise; He just-ly claims a song from us;
His lov-ing-kind-ness, oh, how free! Lov-ing-kindness, lov-ing-kindness, His lov-ing-kind-ness, oh, how free!

272

2 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood;
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

Soon all my mortal powers must fail:

Oh, may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death!

4 Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
And sing, with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies!

But in thy life the law ap-pears Drawn out in liv-ing char-ac-ters.

274 The Divine Example.

2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict, and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; may I bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then, God the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

275 There is none other Name.

1 THERE is none other name than thine,
Immanuel Jesus, name divine,
On which to rest for sins forgiven—
For peace with God, for hope of heaven.

2 There is none other name than thine,
When cares, and fears, and griefs are mine,
That with a gracious power can heal
Each care, and fear, and grief I feel.

3 There is none other name than thine,
When called my spirit to resign,
To bear me through that latest strife,
And e'en in death to be my life.

Anon.

276 Not to condemn the World.

1 Nor to condemn the sons of men,
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword nor thunder there.

2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live;
A thousand joys his lips afford;
His hands a thousand blessings give.

Isaac Watts.

277 Kingdom of Christ.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

3 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

4 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King,
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

280 Christ all in All.

- 2 Jesus, my all in all thou art:
My rest in toil, my ease in pain;
The healing of my broken heart;
In strife, my peace; in loss, my gain;
My smile beneath the tyrant's frown;
In shame, my glory and my crown;—
- 3 In want, my plentiful supply;

In bonds, my perfect liberty;
My light in Satan's darkest hour;

My life in death, my all in all.

Charles Wesley.

281 Unto you which believe he is precious.

- 1 O, SPEAK of Jesus: other names
Have lost for me their interest now—
His is the only one that claims
To be an antidote for woe:
It falls like music on the ear
When nothing else can soothe or cheer.
- 2 O, speak of Jesus—of his power
As Son of God and Son of Man,
Which day by day, and hour by hour,
As he wrought out the wondrous plan,
Led him as God, to save and heal—
As man to sympathize and feel.
- 3 O, speak of Jesus—of his death;
For us he lived, for us he died;
“Tis finished,” with his latest breath
The Lord, Immanuel-Jesus, cried.
That death of shame and agony
Won life, eternal life, for me,

Anon.

282 Christ-like.

[Omit Repeat.]

- 1 MAKE us, by thy transforming grace,
Dear Saviour, daily more like thee!
Thy fair example may we trace,
To teach us what we ought to be!
- 2 Oh, how benevolent and kind!
How mild!—how ready to forgive!
Be this the temper of our minds,
And these the rules by which we live.
- 3 To do his heavenly Father's will,
Was his employment and delight;
Humility and holy zeal,
Shone through his life divinely bright.
- 4 But ah! how blind, how weak we are!
How frail!—how apt to turn aside!
Lord, we depend upon thy care,
And ask thy Spirit for our guide.

Anne Steele.

283 Christ the Sun of Righteousness.

[Omit Repeat.]

- 1 To thee, O God, we homage pay,
Source of the light that rules the day;
Who, while he gilds all nature's frame,
Reflects thy rays and speaks thy name.
- 2 In louder strains we sing that grace
Which gives the Sun of Righteousness,
Whose nobler light salvation brings,
And scatters healing from his wings.
- 3 Still on our hearts may Jesus shine,
With beams of light and love divine!
Quickened by him our souls shall live,
And cheered by him shall grow and thrive.

Philip Doddridge.

Who, O God, my guide shall be? Who shall lead thy child to thee?

284 Jesus our Leader.

2 Blessed Father, gracious One,
Thou hast sent thy holy Son:
He will give the light I need;
He my trembling steps will lead.

3 Through this world, uncertain, dim,
Let me ever lean on him:
From his precepts wisdom draw,
Make his life my solemn law.

4 Thus in deed and thought and word,
Led by Jesus Christ the Lord,
In my weakness, thus shall I
Learn to live, and learn to die:—

5 Learn to live in peace and love,
Like the perfect ones above;
Learn to die without a fear,
Feeling thee, my Father, near.

William Henry Furness.

285 The Good Shepherd.

1 SHEPHERD of the ransomed flock,
Lead us to the shadowing rock,
Where the cooling waters flow,
Where the freshening pastures grow.

2 Saviour, when thy loved ones stray
From the new and living way,
Gently call thine own by name,
All our wandering steps reclaim.

3 Through the hours of darksome night,
Keep us in thy watchful sight;
O'er each deadly foe prevail;
Let no harm thy fold assail.

4 Jesus, who thy life didst give,
Dying that thy sheep might live,
Let us in thy presence rest,
With eternal comfort blest.

288 The Day-star from on High.

1 We lift our hearts to thee,
O'Day-star from on high!
The sun itself is but thy shade,
Yet cheers both earth and sky.

2 O let thy rising beams
The night of sin disperse,—
The mists of error and of vice,
Which shade the universe.

3 How beauteous nature now;
How dark and sad before;
With joy we view the pleasing change,
And nature's God adore.

John Wesley.

289 Salvation by Grace.

1 GRACE! 'tis a charming sound,
Harmonious to the ear:
Heaven with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.

2 Grace first contrived a way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace taught my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet,
While pressing on to God.

4 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;

It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
'And well deserves our praise.

The chosen of the Lord,
God's well-belovéd Son fulfils
The sure, prophetic word.

And rests upon his head.

3 Jesus, thou Light of men!
Thy doctrine life imparts:
O may we feel its quickening power,
To warm and cheer our hearts.

4 Cheered by its beams, our souls
Shall run the heavenly way;
The path which thou hast marked and trod
Will lead to endless day.

John Needham.

291 Christ is All.

1 O EVERLASTING Light,

Brightest of all on earth that's bright,
Come, shine away my sin.

Truest of all that's true,
Sure Guide of erring age and youth
Lead me and teach me too.

3 O everlasting Strength,
Uphold me in the way;
Bring me, in spite of foes, at length,
To joy, and light, and day.

Nor sun's faint, sickly ray;
But glory from the eternal throne
Spreads everlasting day.

 Could or would have shed his blood?
 But our Jesus died to have us
 Reconciled in him to God.

2 When he lived on earth abaséd,
 Friend of Sinners was his name;
 Now, above all glory raised,
 He rejoices in the same.
 O for grace our hearts to soften!

 We, alas! forget too often
 What a Friend we have above.

He careth for Me.

1 YES, for me, for me he careth
 With a brother's tender care;
 Yes, with me, with me he shareth
 Every burden, every fear.
 Yes, in me abroad he sheddeth
 Joys unearthly, love and light;
 And to cover me he spreadeth
 His love-brooding wing of might.
 2 Yes, in me, in me he dwelleth;
 I in him, and he in me;
 And my empty soul he filleth,
 Here and through eternity.
 Thus I wait for his returning,
 Singing all the way to heaven;
 Such the joyful song of morning,
 Such the tranquil song of even.

I am with you alway.

1 ALWAYS with us, always with us—
 Words of cheer and words of love;
 Thus the risen Saviour whispers
 From his dwelling-place above.
 With us when we toil in sadness,
 Sowing much and reaping none,
 Telling us that in the future
 Golden harvests shall be won;—

2 With us when the storm is sweeping
 O'er our pathway dark and drear;
 Waking hope within our bosoms,
 Stilling every anxious fear;—
 With us in the lonely valley,
 When we cross the chilling stream,
 Lighting up the steps to glory
 With salvation's radiant beam.

When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end:
The numbers of thy grace?

2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore;
And since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.

3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road,
And march with courage in thy strength
To see my Father, God.

4 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

Isaac Watts.

303*The unsearchable Riches of Christ.*

1 To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song:
O, may his love—immortal flame—
Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love what mortal thought can reach?
What mortal tongue display?
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we, adoring, pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say,
"The Saviour died for me."

4 O, may the sweet, the blissful theme
Fill every heart and tongue,
Till strangers love thy charming name,
And join the sacred song.

1. Come, let us join our cheer-ful songs With an-gels round the throne; Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one, But all their joys are one.

304 Worthy is the Lamb.

- 2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus;"
"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give
Be, Lord, forever thine.
- 4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.
- Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.
- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My Transport and my Trust;
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to mine eyes is life so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

305 Christ Precious.

- 1 Jesus! I love thy charming name,
'Tis music to mine ear,
- Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.
- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My Transport and my Trust;
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to mine eyes is life so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 4 Thy grace still dwells upon my heart,
And sheds its fragrance there;
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

1. A-wake, and sing the song Of Moses and the Lamb; Wake, every heart, and ev-'ry tongue, To praise the Saviour's name.

306 The Song of Moses and the Lamb.

- 2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Sing till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues;
Sing, till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.

307 Excellency of Christ.

2 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne:

In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would, to everlasting days,
Make all his glories known.

3 Oh, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face!
Then, with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

Samuel Medley, 1789.

308 "Complete in Him."

1 COME join, ye saints, with heart and voice,
Alone in Jesus to rejoice,
And worship at his feet;

Come, take his praises on your tongues,
And raise to him your thankful songs,
"In him ye are complete!"

2 In him, who all our praise excels
The fullness of the Godhead dwells,
And all perfections meet;

The head of all celestial powers,
Divinely theirs, divinely ours;
"In him ye are complete!"

3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,
Dependent on him day by day,
His presence still entreat;

His precious name forever bless,
Your glory, strength and righteousness,
"In him ye are complete!"

4 Nor fear to pass the vale of death;
In his dear arms resign your breath,
He'll make the passage sweet;
The gloom and fears of death shall flee,
And your departing souls shall see
"In him ye are complete!"

Samuel Medley.

309 The Saviour's Mission.

1 OH, let your mingling voices rise
In grateful rapture to the skies,
And hail a Saviour's birth:
Let songs of joy the day proclaim
When Jesus all-triumphant came
To bless the sons of earth!

2 He came to bid the weary rest,
To heal the sinner's wounded breast,
To bind the broken heart;
To spread the light of truth around,
And to the world's remotest bound
The heavenly gift impart.

3 He came our trembling souls to save
From sin, from sorrow, and the grave,
And chase our fears away;
Victorious o'er death and time,
To lead us to a happier clime,
Where reigns eternal day.

310 Response to the New Song.

2 Shall they adore the Lord,
Who bought them with his blood,
And all the love record
That led them home to God,
And shall not we take up the strain,
And send the echo back again?

3 O, spread the joyful sound;
The Saviour's love proclaim;
And publish all around
Salvation through his name;
Till all the world take up the strain,
And send the echo back again.

James J. Cummins, 1849.

2 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robe aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What he endured, no tongue can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell.

3 From the dark grave he rose—
The mansions of the dead;
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour-God.

311 The Debt of Love.

1 COME, every pious heart,
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame;
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

4 Jesus, we ne'er can pay
The debt we owe thy love;
Yet tell us how we may
Our gratitude approve;
Our hearts, our all to thee we give;
The gift, though small, thou wilt receive.

Be thou our guar-dian, thou our guide; O'er ev-'ry thought and step pre-side.

312 He will guide you into all Truth.

2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

3 Lead us to holiness—the road
Which we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his pasture stray.

4 Lead us to God—our final rest,
To be with him forever blest;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share—
Fullness of joy forever there.

Simon Browne.

313 He dwelleth with you.

1 SURE, the blest Comforter is nigh;
'Tis he sustains my fainting heart;
Else would my hope forever die,
And every cheering ray depart.

2 When'er to call the Saviour mine,
With ardent wish my heart aspires,
Can it be less than power divine
That animates these strong desires?

3 And when my cheerful hope can say,
I love my God and taste his grace.
Lord, is it not thy blissful ray
Which brings this dawn of sacred peace?

4 Let thy kind Spirit in my heart
Forever dwell, O God of love,
And light and heavenly peace impart—
Sweet earnest of the joys above.

Anne Steele.

314 It is the Spirit that Quickeneth.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, calm my mind,
And fit me to approach my God;
Remove each vain, each worldly thought,
And lead me to thy blest abode.

2 Hast thou imparted to my soul
A living spark of holy fire?
O, kindle now the sacred flame,
And make me burn with pure desire.

3 A brighter faith and hope impart,
And let me now my Saviour see;
O, soothe and cheer my burdened heart,
And bid my spirit rest in thee.

George Burdett.

315 He shall teach you all Things.

1 COME, blessed Spirit, Source of light,
Whose power and grace are unconfined,
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The thicker darkness of the mind.

2 To mine illumined eyes display
The glorious truth thy work reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way;
The book unfold, unloose the seals.

3 Thine inward teachings make me know
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The emptiness of things below,
The excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

Creator Spirit.

2 Plenteous in grace, descend from high,
Rich in thy matchless energy;
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make us temples worthy thee.

3 Cleanse and refine our earthly parts,
Inflame and sanctify our hearts,
Our frailties help, our vice control,
Submit the senses to the soul.

4 Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire!
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire;
Make us eternal truths receive;
Aid us to live as we believe.

John Dryden.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger, and our refuge too.

3 The troubled conscience knows thy voice;
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

Isaac Watts.

317

Creator Spirit.

1 OH come, Creator Spirit blest!
Within these souls of thine to rest;
Come, with thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2 With patience firm and purpose high
The weakness of our flesh supply;
Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love.

Breviary.

Power of the Holy Spirit.

And sing the wonders of thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.

Thy Will be done.

1 SPIRIT of peace, and health, and power,
Fountain of life and light below,
Around thy healing influence shower,
O'er all the nations let it flow.

2 Inspire our hearts with perfect love;
In us the work of faith fulfil;
So not heaven's host shall swifter move
Than we on earth, to do thy will.

3 Father, 'tis thine each day to yield
Thy children's wants a fresh supply;
Thou cloth'st the lilies of the field,
And hear'st young ravens when they cry.

4 To thee we pray; for all must live
By thee, who know'st their every need;
Pray for the world, that thou wilt give
All human hearts thy living bread.

320 Prayer for the Holy Spirit.

2 Look, how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!

Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;

Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate?

Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

While all their glowing souls are borne
To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh, let a holy flock await
In crowds around thy temple-gate!
Each pressing on the zeal to be
A living sacrifice to thee.

Philip Doddridge.

322 "Quicken me, O Lord."

1 COME, mighty Spirit, penetrate
This heart and soul of mine;
And my whole being with thy grace
Pervade, O Life divine.

2 As the clear air surrounds the earth,
Thy grace around me roll;
As the fresh light pervades the air,
So pierce and fill my soul.

3 As from the clouds drops down in love
The precious summer rain,
So from thyself pour down the flood
That freshens all again.

4 Thus life within our lifeless hearts
Shall make its glad abode;
And we shall shine in beauteous light,
Filled with the light of God.

Horatius Bonar, 1857.

321 "Spirit of Grace."

1 COME, sacred Spirit, from above,
And fill the coldest heart with love:
Oh, turn to flesh the flinty stone,
And let thy sovereign power be known.

2 Speak thou, and from the haughtiest eyes
Shall floods of contrite sorrow rise;

323 "Oh, come to-day."

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest!

With soothing power;
Rest, which the weary know;
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow;
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow;
Cheer us, this hour!

3 Come, Light serene! and still,
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast:
We know no dawn but thine;
Send forth thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest.

4 Come, all the faithful bless;
Let all, who Christ confess,
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

324 Let there be Light.

1 Thou, whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight!
Hear us, we humbly pray;
And, where the gospel day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
Let there be light.

2 Thou, who didst come to bring,
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight!
Health to the sick in mind,
Light to the inly blind,
Oh, now to all mankind
Let there be light!

3 Descend thou from above,
Spirit of truth and love,—
Speed on thy flight!
Move o'er the waters' face,
Spirit of hope and grace,
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light!

- 2 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.
- 3 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.
- 4 Dwell, Spirit! in our hearts;
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love,
And rise at length to thee.

Joseph Hart, 1750.

- 2 Draw with thy still small voice
From every sinful way;
And bid the mourning heart rejoice,
Though earthly joys decay.
- 3 By thine inspiring breath
Make every cloud of care,
And e'en the gloomy vale of death,
A smile of glory wear.

And on this poor benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine.

But thine shall be the praise;
And unto thee will I devote

To thy divine control.
- 3 Let all that own thy name
Thy sacred image bear,

Our only sure relief,
Ah, raise our earthly minds to thee,
And help our unbelief!

The Bible a Light.

1 How PRECIOUS is the Book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 Its light, descending from above,
Our gloomy world to cheer,
Display's a Saviour's boundless love,
And brings his glories near.

3 It shows to man his wandering ways,
And where his feet have trod;
And brings to view the matchless grace
Of a forgiving God.

4 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

5 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

Who makes that pearl his own.

4 Here living water freely flows,
To cleanse me from my sin;
'Tis here the tree of knowledge grows,
Nor danger dwells within.

5 O, may thy counsels, mighty God,
My roving feet command;
Nor I forsake the happy road
That leads to thy right hand.

CH. ZEUNER. FR. "Ancient Lyre," by per.

1. Let ev'ry mor-tal ear attend, And ev'ry heart re-joice; The trumpet of the gospel sounds With an in-vit-ing voice.

347 Ho, every one that thirsteth.

- 2 Eternal wisdom has prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.
- 3 Ho, ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
Here you may quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.
- 4 Rivers of love and merey here
In a rich ocean join;
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.

Isaac Watts.

348 Forsoaken by the Living Fountain.

- 1 How long shall dreams of earthly bliss
Our flattering hopes employ,
And mock our fond, deluded eyes
With visionary joy?
- 2 Why from the mountains and the hills
Is our salvation sought,
While our eternal Rock's forsook,
And Israel's God forgot?
- 3 The living spring neglected flows
Full in our daily view;
Yet we, with anxious, fruitless toil,
Our broken cisterns hew.
- 4 These fatal errors, gracious God,
With gentle pity see;
To thee our roving eyes direct,
And fix our souls on thee.

Philip Doddridge.

349 Come, buy without Money.

- 1 Ye wretched, hungry, starving poor,
Behold a royal feast,
Where Mercy spreads her bounteous store
For every humble guest.
- 2 See, Jesus stands with open arms;
He calls—he bids you come;

Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms;
But, see, there yet is room.

- 3 O come, and with his children taste
The blessings of his love;
While hope attends the sweet repast
Of nobler joys above.

Anne Steele.

350 The Wicked like the troubled Sea.

- 1 SINNERS, the voice of God regard;
His merey speaks to-day;
He calls you by his sovereign word
From sin's destructive way.
- 2 Like the rough sea, that cannot rest;
You live devoid of peace,
A thousand stings within your breast
Deprive your souls of ease.
- 3 But he who turns to God shall live,
Through his abounding grace;
His mercy will the guilt forgive
Of those who seek his face.

Fawcett.

351 The Saviour's Invitation.

- 1 THE Saviour calls; let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound;
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear;
Hope smiles reviving round.
- 2 For every thirsty, longing heart
Here streams of bounty flow,
And life, and health, and bliss impart,
To banish mortal woe.
- 3 Ye sinners, come—'tis merey's voice;
That gracious voice obey;
'Tis Jesus calls to heavenly joys:
And can you yet delay?
- 4 Dear Saviour, draw reluctant hearts;
To thee let sinners fly,
And take the bliss thy love imparts,
And drink, and never die.

Anne Steele.

1. Re - turn, O wan-d'r'er, to thy home, Thy Fa - ther calls for thee: No lon - ger now an ex - ile roam In guilt and mis - er - y. Re-turn, re-turn!

352 Return to thy Home.

- 2 Return, O wanderer, to thy home;
Thy Saviour calls for thee:
"The Spirit and the Bride say, Come;"
Oh, now for refuge flee!
- 3 Return, O wanderer, to thy home,
'Tis madness to delay;
There are no pardons in the tomb;
And brief is mercy's day!

William Hastings.

353 Now Return.

- 1 RETURN, O wanderer, now return,
And seek thy Father's face!
Those new desires, which in thee burn,
Were kindled by his grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer, now return!
He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Return, O wanderer, now return
Thy Saviour bids thee live:
Go to his bleeding feet, and learn
How freely he'll forgive.
- 4 Return, O wanderer, now return
And wipe the falling tear!
Thy Father calls—no longer mourn:
His love invites thee near.

Wm. B. Collyer, 1802.

354 All Things ready.

- 1 THE King of heaven his table spreads,
And dainties crown the board;
Not paradise, with all its joys,
Could such delight afford.
- 2 Ye hungry poor, that long have strayed
In sin's dark mazes, come;
Come, from your most obscure retreats,
And grace shall find you room.
- 3 All things are ready; come away,
Nor weak excuses frame;
Crowd to your places at the feast,
And bless the Master's name.

Philip Doddridge.

355 Spiritual Banquet.

- 1 Ho, ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
There you may quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.
- 2 Rivers of love and mercy here
In a rich ocean join:
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.
- 3 The happy gates of gospel grace
Stand open night and day:
Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
And drive our wants away.

Isaac Watts, 1709

BRIDGEWATER. L. M.

JONATHAN EDSON.

1. Come, sin-ners, to the gos-pel feast; Let ev-'ry soul be Je-sus' guest; Ye need not one be left be-hind, For God hath bid-den all mankind, For God hath bidden all man-kind.
 left be-hind, For God hath bid-den all mankind, For God hath bid-den all man-kind.

356 The Gospel Feast.

2 Sent by my Lord, on you I call;
 The invitation is to all:
 Come, all the world; come, sinner, thou;
 All things in Christ are ready now.

3 Come, all ye souls by sin oppressed,
 Ye restless wanderers after rest;
 Ye poor, and maimed, and halt, and blind,
 In Christ a hearty welcome find.

Charles Wesley.

357 Come, ye Heavy-laden.

1 COME hither, all ye weary souls;
 Ye heavy-laden sinners come;
 I'll give you rest from all your toils,
 And raise you to my heavenly home.

2 They shall find rest who learn of me,
 I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
 But passion rages like the sea,
 And pride is restless as the wind.

3 Blest is the man whose shoulders take
 My yoke, and bear it with delight:
 My yoke is easy to his neck;
 My grace shall make the burden light.

4 Jesus, we come at thy command,
 With faith, and hope, and humble zeal;
 Resign our spirits to thy hand,
 To mould and guide us at thy will.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

358 The Accepted Time.

1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
 The time to insure the great reward;
 And while the lamp holds out to burn,
 The vilest sinner may return.

2 Life is the hour that God has given
 To escape from hell and fly to heaven—
 The day of grace; and mortals may
 Secure the blessings of the day.

3 Then what my thoughts design to do,
 My hands, with all your might pursue,
 Since no device nor work is found,
 Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

4 There are no acts of pardon passed
 In the cold grave, to which we haste;
 But darkness, death, and long despair
 Reign in eternal silence there.

Isaac Watts.

359 Waiting for a convenient Season.

1 O, do not let the word depart,
 And close thine eyes against the light;
 Poor sinner, harden not thy heart;
 Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
 To bless thy long-deluded sight;
 This is the time; O, then, be wise;
 Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;
 And wilt thou thus his love requite?
 Renounce at length thy stubborn will;
 Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

4 Our blessed Lord refuses none
 Who would to him their souls unite;
 Then be the work of grace begun:
 Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

Mrs. Reed.

WOODWORTH L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY, 1849.

360

Come with me.

- 2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee;
O, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, 'Come to me.'
- 3 'Come, for all else must fail and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye;
I am thy portion; come to me.'

Mrs. C. Elliott.

361

The Spirit's Call.

- 1 SAY, sinner! hath a voice within
Oft whispered to thy secret soul,
Urged thee to leave the ways of sin,
And yield thy heart to God's control?

- 2 Sinner! it was a heavenly voice,—
It was the Spirit's gracious call;
It bade thee make the better choice,
And haste to seek in Christ thine all,

- 3 God's Spirit will not always strive
With hardened, self-destroying man;
Ye who persist his love to grieve,
May never hear his voice again.

- 4 Sinner! perhaps, this very day,
Thy last accepted time may be:
Oh! shouldst thou grieve him now away,
Then hope may never beam on thee.

Ann B. Hyde.

362

One Thing Needful.

- 1 WHY will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares?
While in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot?

- 2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

- 3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue:
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

- 4 Almighty God! thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

Philip Doddridge.

363

Escape for thy life.

- 1 HASTE, traveler, haste; the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou far off from home and rest.

- 2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path—no refuge near.

- 3 Haste, while a shelter you may gain,
A covert from the wind and rain,
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
A refuge from the wrath to come.

- 4 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life—the mountain gain;
Look not behind—make no delay:
O, speed thee, speed thee on thy way.

Collyer.

1. While life prolongs its precious light,
Mercy is found, and peace is given;
But soon, ah, soon, approaching night
Shall blot out every hope of heaven.

364 No Hope in the Grave.

- 2 While God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come, sinners, haste, O, haste away,
While yet a pardoning God is found.
- 3 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing.
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.
- 4 Now God invites—how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come, sinners, come, O, haste away,
While yet a pardoning God is found.

Dwight.

365 The Road to Life and to Death.

- 1 BROAD is the road that leads to death,
And thousands walk together there;
But wisdom shows a narrow path,
With here and there a traveler.
- 2 "Deny thyself, and take thy cross,"
Is the Redeemer's great command;
Nature must count her gold but loss,
If she would gain this heavenly land.
- 3 Lord! let not all my hopes be vain,
Create my heart entirely new;
Which hypocrites could ne'er attain,
Which false apostates never knew.

Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither haste.

3 Ye, who tossed on beds of pain,
Seek for ease, but seek in vain,—
Ye, whose swollen and sleepless eyes
Watch to see the morning rise,—

In remorse for guilt who mourn,

A wounded spirit, who can bear?

Balm that flows from every wound,
Peace that ever shall endure,

369 Why will ye die?

1 SINNERS, turn: why will ye die?
God, your Maker, asks you why—
God, who did your being give,
Made you with himself to live.

2 Sinners, turn: why will ye die?
Christ, your Saviour, asks you why—
Christ, who did your souls retrieve,
Died himself that ye might live?

3 Will ye not his grace receive?
Will ye still refuse to live?
Why, ye long-sought sinners, why
Will ye grieve your God, and die?

Charles Wesley.

368 The Prodigal Son.

1 BROTHER, hast thou wandered far
From thy Father's happy home,
With thyself and God at war?
Turn thee, brother, homeward come.

2 Hast thou wasted all the powers
God for noble uses gave?
Squandered life's most noble hours?
Turn thee, brother, God can save.

3 Is a mighty famine now
In thy heart and in thy soul?
Discontent upon thy brow?
Turn thee, God will make thee whole.

370 The Fields are White.

1 WORD of Life, most pure, most strong!
Lo! for thee the nations long;
Spread, till from its dreary night
All the world awakes to light.

2 Lo! the ripening fields we see:
Mighty shall the harvest be;
But the reapers still are few;
Great the work they have to do.

3 Lord of harvest, let there be
Joy and strength to work for thee,
Till the nations far and near
See thy light, thy law revere.

'Tis Jesus bids him come.

Bp. H. U. Onderdonk.

372 The accepted Time.

1 Now is the accepted time,
Now is the day of grace;
Now, sinners, come, without delay
And seek the Saviour's face.

2 Now is the accepted time,
The Saviour calls to-day;
To-morrow it may be too late.
Then why should you delay?

373 The Open Door.

1 Oh, cease, my wandering soul,
On restless wing to roam;
All this wide world, to either pole,
Hath not for thee a home.

2 Behold the home of God;
Behold the open door;
O, haste to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

3 There safe thou shalt abide;
There sweet shall be thy rest;
And, every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

Wm. A. Mecklenburg.

374 Ye are not as yet come to the Rest.

1 Oh, where shall rest be found—
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live.
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love.

4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O, what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

 Weak and wounded, sick and sore;

 All the fitness he requireth

 If you tarry till you're better,
 You will never come at all.
 Not the righteous—
 Sinners Jesus came to call.

1 SINNERS, will you slight the message
 Sent in mercy from above?
 Every sentence, O, how tender!
 Every line how full of love!
 Heavenly accents,
 Full of strength, and peace, and love.

2 Tempted souls, they bring you succor;
 Fearful hearts, they quell your fears;
 And with deepest consolation,
 Chase away the falling tears;
 Tender Heralds,
 Blesséd be their word who hears.

3 Holy Angels, hovering round us
 Waiting spirits, speed your way,
 Hasten to the court of heaven,
 Tidings bear without delay:
 Ransomed sinners
 Glad the message will obey.

383 Success of the Gospel.

2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us,

In many a gentle shower,

And brighter scenes before us

Are opening every hour;

Each cry to heaven going,

Abundant answers brings,

And heavenly gales are blowing,

With peace upon their wings.

3 See heathen nations bending

Before the God we love,

And thousand hearts ascending

In gratitude above;

While sinners, now confessing,

The gospel call obey,

And seek the Saviour's blessing,—

A nation in a day.

4 Blest river of salvation!

Pursue thine onward way;

Flow thou to every nation,

Nor in thy richness stay:—

Stay not till all the lowly

Triumphant reach their home;

Stay not till all the holy

Proclaim "The Lord is come."

S. F. Smith.

He comes to break oppression,

To set the captive free,

To take away transgression,

And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succor speedy,

To those who suffer wrong;

To help the poor and needy,

And bid the weak be strong;

To give them songs for sighing,

Their darkness turn to light,

Whose souls condemned and dying,

Were precious in his sight.

3 He shall come down, like showers

Upon the fruitful earth,

And love, and joy, like flowers,

Spring in his path to birth:

Before him on the mountains,

Shall peace, the herald, go;

And righteousness in fountains,

From hill to valley flow.

4 For him shall prayer unceasing

And daily vows ascend;

His kingdom still increasing,—

A kingdom without end:

The tide of time shall never

His covenant remove;

His name shall stand forever,—

That name to us is—Love.

390 The Jubilee.

2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made;

Ye weary spirits, rest;

Ye mournful souls, be glad;

The year of Jubilee is come,

Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace,
And, saved from earth, appear

Before your Saviour's face;

The year of Jubilee is come,

Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

Whence sagest teachers may be taught,
And Wisdom's self become more wise.
3 More glorious still as centuries roll,

Expanding with th' expanding soul,

393 What Sinners value, I resign.

1 WHAT sinners value, I resign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
2 This life's a dream, an empty show;
But the bright world to which I go
Hath joys substantial and sincere:
When shall I wake, and find me there?
3 O, glorious hour! O, blest abode!
I shall be near and like my God,
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasure of the soul.

Commune with your Heart.

- 2 O thou great God, whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep retreat,
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And let me here thy presence meet.
- 3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide,
And still its radiant beams impart
Till all be known and purified.
- 4 Then let the visits of thy love
My inmost soul be made to share,
Till every grace combine to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there.

Philip Doddridge.

395

"The River of Life."

- 1 GREAT Source of being and of love,
Thou waterest all the worlds above;
And all the joys we mortals know
From thine exhaustless fountain flow.
- 2 A sacred spring, at thy command
From Zion's mount, in Canaan's land,
Beside thy temple cleaves the ground,
And pours its limpid stream around.
- 3 Close by its banks, in order fair,
The blooming trees of life appear;
Their blossoms fragrant odors give,
And on their fruit the nations live.
- 4 Flow, wondrous stream, with glory crown'd,
Flow on to earth's remotest bound,
And bear us on thy gentle wave
To Him who all thy virtues gave.

The Stubborn Heart.

- 1 OH, for a glance of heavenly day,
To take this stubborn heart away;
And thaw, with beams of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine.
- 2 The rocks can rend; the earth can quake;
The seas can roar; the mountains shake:
Of feeling, all things show some sign
But this unfeeling heart of mine.
- 3 To hear the sorrows thou hast felt,
O Lord, an adamant would melt:
But I can read each moving line,
And nothing moves this heart of mine.
- 4 But power divine can do the deed;
And, Lord, that power I greatly need;
Thy Spirit ean from dross refine,
And melt and change this heart of mine.

Joseph Hart, 1762.

397

A broken and a contrite Heart.

- 1 A BROKEN heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring;
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.
- 2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.
- 3 O may thy love inspire my tongue;
Salvation shall be all my song;
And all my powers shall join to bless
The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

1. O Lord, thy heavenly grace impart, And fix my frail, in-constant heart;
Hence-forth my chief de-light shall be To ded-i-cate my-self to thee.

398 I delight to do thy Will.

2 What'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be,
That all my hopes are fixed on thee.

3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to thee.

4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath thy sheltering wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in thee.

J. F. Oberlin, 1820.
Tr. Mrs. Daniel Wilson, 1830.

399 Consecration to God.

1 My gracious Lord, I own thy right
To every service I can pay,
And call it my supreme delight
To hear thy dictates and obey.

2 What is my being but for thee—
Its sure support, its noblest end?
'Tis my delight thy face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend.

3 Thy work my hoary age shall bless,
When youthful vigor is no more.
And my last hour of earth confess
Thy saving love, thy glorious power.

Philip Doddridge.

400 Be Merciful.

1 With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord I cry:
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
O God, be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed,
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me!

4 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God hath been merciful to me!

Cornelius Elvin.

401 Self-consecration.

1 I WILL resolve, with all my heart,
With all my powers to serve the Lord
Nor from his precepts e'er depart,
Whose service is a rich reward.

2 O, be his service all my joy;
Around let my example shine,
Till others love the best employ,
And join in labors so divine.

3 O, may I never faint nor tire,
Nor, wandering, leave his sacred ways;
Great God, accept my soul's desire,
And give me strength to live thy praise.

Just as I am.

2 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

3 Just as I am—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

4 Just as I am—thy love unknown
Hath broken every barrier down;
Now, to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

Charlotte Elliott.

403

Thy Will be done.

[Repeat last line.]

1 My God, my Father, while I stray
Far from my home on life's rough way,
O, teach me from my heart to say,
Thy will be done.

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh?
Submissive still would I reply,
Thy will be done.

3 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with thine, and take away
Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
Thy will be done.

4 Then, when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing upon a happier shore,
Thy will be done.

Charlotte Elliott, 1834.

404

Psaln 51.

1 Show pity, Lord! O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes, though great, do not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace;
Great God, thy nature hath no bound,
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offenses pain mine eyes.

4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

405

1 God calling yet; shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
And life's swift-passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

2 God calling yet; and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive;
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?

3 God calling yet; I cannot stay:
My heart I yield without delay.
Vain world, farewell; from thee I part:
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

4 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away—
'Tis all that I can do.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

407 Forsaking all for Christ.

1 AND must I part with all I have,
My dearest Lord, for thee?
It is but right, since thou hast done
Much more than this for me.

2 Yes, let it go: one look from thee
Will more than make amends
For all the losses I sustain,
Of credit, riches, friends.

3 Ten thousand worlds, ten thousand lives,
How worthless they appear,
Compared with thee, supremely good,
Divinely bright and fair!

4 Saviour of souls, could I from thee
A single smile obtain,
The loss of all things I could bear,
And glory in my gain.

Benjamin Beddome.

408 If I perish, I perish.

1 COME, humble sinner, in whose breast:
A thousand thoughts revolve;
Come, with your guilt and fears oppressed,
And make this last resolve:—

2 I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
Hath like a mountain rose;
I know his courts: I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.

3 I'll to the gracious King approach,
Whose sceptre pardon gives;
Perhaps he may command my touch,
And then the suppliant lives.

4 Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer;
But if I perish, I will pray,
And perish only there.

Jones.

1 OH! for that tenderness of heart,
That bows before the Lord;
That owns how just and good thou art,
And trembles at thy word.

2 Oh! for those humble, contrite tears,
Which from repentance flow;
That sense of guilt, which, trembling, fears
The long-suspended blow!

3 Saviour! to me in pity give,
For sin, the deep distress;
The pledge thou wilt, at last, receive,
And bid me die in peace.

Charles Wesley.

CORFU, G. M.

410 The Promises are Yea and Amen.

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea;
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 O, wondrous love—to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners such as I
Might plead thy gracious name!

Newton.

411 "Remember me."

- 1 O THOU, from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my soul to thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
O Lord, remember me!
- 2 When on my aching, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, new peace impart,
Thus, Lord, remember me!
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
Oh, let my strength be as my day—
Dear Lord, remember me!
- 4 When in the solemn hour of death
I wait thy just decree:
Be this the prayer of my last breath:
Now, Lord, remember me!

Thomas Haweis.

412 Giving all to God.

- 1 How CAN I sink with such a prop
As my eternal God,
Who bears the earth's huge pillars up,
And spreads the heavens abroad?
- 2 How can I die while Jesus lives,
Who rose and left the dead?
Pardon and grace my soul receives
From my exalted head.
- 3 Yet, if I might make some reserve,
And duty did not call,
I love my God with zeal so great,
That I should give him all.

Isaac Watts.

413 "The full Purpose."

- 1 In all my Lord's appointed ways,
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not,—ye much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.
- 2 Thro' floods and flames, if Jesus leads,
I'll follow where he goes;
Hinder me not!—shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through duty, and through trials too,
I'll go at his command:
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be,—
Hinder me not,—Come! welcome death,
I'll gladly go with thee.

2 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and joys remove;
With patient, uncomplaining love,
Still would I cling to thee!

3 If e'er I seem to tread alone
Life's weary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,

Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Still whispers, "Cling to me."

Become as Little Children.

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,

That seeks for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know;
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatso'er estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts
To keep and cultivate—
A work of lowly love to do
For Him on whom I wait.

416 "My repentings are kindled."

2 Kindled his relentings are;
 Me he now delights to spare;
 Cries, How shall I give thee up?—
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.
 There for me the Saviour stands;
 Shows his wounds and spreads his hands,
 God is love! I know, I feel:
 Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

C. Wesley.

Lord! thou canst my guilt forgive,
 Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel,

Conversion.

[Omit Repeat.]

1 JESUS, Lamb of God, for me,
 Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;
 Whither, whither, but to thee,
 Can a trembling sinner fly! •
 Death's dark waters o'er me roll,
 Save, oh, save my sinking soul!

2 Never bowed a martyr's head
 Weighed with equal sorrow down,
 Never blood so rich was shed,
 Never king wore such a crown:
 To thy cross and sacrifice
 Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul, by love subdued,
 Melts in deep contrition there;
 By thy mighty grace renewed,
 New-born hope forbids despair:

418

The name "Jesus."

1 JESUS! name of wondrous love!
 Name all other names above!
 Unto which must every knee
 Bow in deep humility.
 Jesus! name decreed of old:
 To the maiden mother told,
 Kneeling in her lonely cell,
 By the angel Gabriel.

2 Jesus! name of priceless worth
 To the fallen sons of earth,
 For the promise that it gave—
 "Jesus shall his people save."—
 Jesus! name of wondrous love!
 Human name of God above;
 Pleading only this we flee,
 Helpless, O our God, to thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

Benjamin Beddome.

420 The Penitent.

1 O THAT I could repent,
With all my idols part;
And to thy gracious eye present
A humble, contrite heart.

2 Jesus, on me bestow
The penitent desire:
With true sincerity of woe
My aching breast inspire;

3 With soft'ning pity look,
And melt my hardness down;
Strike with thy love's resistless stroke,
And break this heart of stone!

4 Grant me my sins to feel,
And then the load remove;
Wound, and pour in, my wounds to heal,
The balm of pardoning love.

Charles Wesley, 1740.

421 Do all to the Glory of God.

1 TEACH me, my God and King,
In all things thee to see;
And what I do in anything,
To do it as for thee:

2 To scorn the senses' sway,
While still to thee I tend;
In all I do, be thou the way,
In all be thou the end.

3 All may of thee partake;
Nothing so small can be
But draws, when acted for thy sake,
Greatness and worth from thee.

4 If done beneath thy laws
E'en servile labors shine;
Hallowed is toil, if this the cause;
The meanest work, divine.

George Herbert, 1852.

422 Out of the Depths have I cried unto Thee.

1 OUT of the depths of woe,
To thee, O Lord, I cry;
Darkness surrounds me, yet I know
That thou art ever nigh.

2 I cast my hopes on thee:
Thou canst, thou wilt forgive;
If thou shouldst mark iniquity—
Who in thy sight could live?

3 I wait for thee—I wait,
Confessing all my sin;
Lord, I am knocking at the gate;
Open, and take me in.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give

I came to Jesus, and I drank

My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.

432

What shall a Man give in Exchange for his Soul?

- 1 WHAT is the thing of greatest price,
The whole creation round?
Man's soul, once lost in Paradise,
But now in Jesus found.
- 2 God, to redeem it, did not spare
His well-belovéd Son;
Jesus, to save it, deigned to bear
The sins of all in one.
- 3 And is this treasure borne below
In earthen vessels frail?
Can none its utmost value know
Till flesh and spirit fail?

That knowledge to obtain;
Not by the soul's eternal loss,
But everlasting gain.

Ye must be born again.

- 1 THE Saviour speaks to every heart—
May he not speak in vain,
But unto all this truth impart—
Ye must be born again.
- 2 The rich, the poor, the sad, the blest,
To every class of men,
The words of Jesus are addressed,

The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.
- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And when the evening shade prevailed
His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.

GEORGE KINGSLEY.

1. O for a faith that will not shrink, Tho' pressed by every foe, That will not tremble on the brink Of an - y earth-ly woe.

435

- 2 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;—
- 3 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed!
- 4 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
And then whate'er may come,
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.
- 2 The wounded conscience knows its power,
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer,
And make the dying live.
- 3 Wide it unveils the heavenly world,
Where endless pleasures reign;
It bids us seek our portion there,
Nor bids us seek in vain.
- 4 There, still unshaken, would we rest,
Till this frail body dies,
And then, on faith's triumphant wing,
To endless glory rise.

Bathurst.

436 Lord, I believe; help Thou mine Unbelief.

1 LORD, I believe: thy power I own;
Thy word I would obey;
I wander comfortless and lone,
When from thy truth I stray.

2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
Sometimes bedim my sight;
I look to thee with prayers and tears,
And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know,
My faith is cold and weak;
My weakness strengthen, and bestow
The confidence I seek.

4 Yes, I believe; and only thou
Canst give my soul relief;
Lord, to thy truth my spirit bow;
Help thou mine unbelief.

Wrexford.

438

A Cloud of Witnesses.

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil and see,
The saints above—how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.
- 3 I ask them, whence their victory came?
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.
- 4 They marked the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspired their breast,
And following their triumphant Lord,
Possess the promised rest.
- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise
For his own pattern given;
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

Power of Faith.

1 FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves us from its snares;
It yields support in all our toils,
And softens all our cares.

OLIVET. 6s & 4s.

LOWELL MASON, 1831.

439 The Life of Faith.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my Guide:
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

Ray Palmer.

440 For we Walk by Faith.

2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

2 One cup of healing oil and wine,
One tear-drop shed on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.

3 In true and heaven-born faith, we trace
The source of every Christian grace;
Within the pious heart it plays—
A living fount of joy and praise.

441 Faith without Works is dead.

1 AS BODY when the soul has fled,
As barren trees decayed and dead,
Is faith—a hopeless, lifeless thing,
If not of righteous deeds the spring.

4 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream has found its way;
But where these spring not rich and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

442 They shall be as Mount Zion.

2 Not walls nor hills could guard so well
Old Salem's happy ground,
As those eternal arms of love
That every saint surround.

3 Deal gently, Lord, with souls sincere,
And lead them safely on
Within the gates of Paradise,
Where Christ, their Lord, is gone.

Isaac Watts.

443 Haste thee to help me.

1 O, HELP us, Lord; each hour of need
Thy heavenly succor give;
Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
Each hour on earth we live.

2 O, help us when our spirits bleed
With contrite anguish sore;
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O, help us, Lord, the more.

3 O, help us, through the prayer of faith,
More firmly to believe;
For still the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.

4 O, help us, Father, from on high;
We know no help but thee;
O, help us so to live and die,
As thine in heaven to be.

Milman.

444 All Things work together for Good.

1 I worship thee, sweet will of God,
And all thy ways adore;
And every day I live, I long
To love thee more and more.

2 Man's weakness, waiting upon God,
Its end can never miss;
For man on earth no work can do
More angel-like than this.

3 He always wins who sides with God;
To him no chance is lost;
God's will is sweetest to him when
It triumphs at his cost.

4 When obstacles and trials seem
Like prison-walls to be;
I do the little I can do,
And leave the rest to thee.

F. W. Faber.

445 Submission.

1 O LORD, my best desires fulfil;
And help me to resign
Life, health, and comfort to thy will,
And make thy pleasure mine.

2 Why should I shrink at thy command,
Whose love forbids my fears;
Or tremble at thy gracious hand,
That wipes away my tears?

3 No; let me rather freely yield
What most I prize, to thee,
Who never hast a good withheld,
Nor wilt withhold, from me.

1. O thou, in all thy might so far, In all thy love so near,
Be - yond the range of sun and star, And yet be - side us here:

446

Trust in God.

- 2 What heart can comprehend thy name
Or, searching, find thee out?
Who art, within, a quickening flame,
A presence round about.
- 3 Lord, though we know thee but in part,
We ask not now for more:
Enough to us to know thou art,
To love thee and adore!

Frederick L. Hosmer, 1876.

447

Delight in God.

- 1 O LORD! I would delight in thee,
And on thy care depend;
To thee in every trouble flee,
My best, my only Friend!
- 2 When all created streams are dried,
Thy fullness is the same;
May I with this be satisfied,
And glory in thy name.

- 3 Oh! that I had a stronger faith,
To look within the veil,
To credit what my Saviour saith,
Whose word can never fail.
- 4 O Lord! I cast my care on thee;
I triumph and adore;
Henceforth my great concern shall be,
To love and praise thee more.

John Ryland, 1787.

448

They shall walk and not faint.

- 1 SUPREME in wisdom, as in power,
The Rock of Ages stands;
We see him not, yet may we trace
The workings of his hands.

- 2 He gives the conquest to the weak,
Supports the fainting heart,
And courage in the evil hour
His heavenly aids impart.

- 3 Mere human power shall fast decay,
And youthful vigor cease;
But they who wait upon the Lord
In strength shall still increase.

- 4 They with unwearied feet shall tread
The path of life divine;
With growing ardor onward move,
With growing brightness shine.

- 5 On eagles' wings they mount, they soar—
The wings of faith and love;
Till, past the cloudy regions here,
They rise to heaven above.

Anon.

449

Need of Help.

- 1 Not only for some task sublime
Do I thy help implore;
Not only at some solemn time
Thy Holy Spirit pour!
- 2 But daily for each task of mine
I need thy quickening power;
I need thy presence everywhere,
I need thee every hour.

- 3 Each action finds in thee its spring,
Each joy thy love makes bright,
Each footstep is thine ordering,
Each grief shines in thy light.

450 Trust in Grace.

- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.
- 3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

Augustus M. Toplady.

451 To present you holy.

- 1 To God, the only wise,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.
- 2 'Tis his almighty love,
His counsel, and his care,
Preserves us safe from sin and death,
And every hurtful snare.
- 3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
Before the glory of his face,
With joys divinely great.
- 4 Then all the chosen seed
Shall meet around the throne,
Shall bless the conduct of his grace,
And make his wonders known.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

452 When I am weak, then am I strong.

- 1 To THEE and to thy love,
For help, O Lord, I flee;
In thy great might I must prevail;
O Lord, deliver me.
- 2 It is not strength that wins;
My weakness is my shield;
In lowly trust we fight the fight,
And meekness wins the field.
- 3 Give me the lowly heart;
Cast out each thought of pride;
Let gentleness and love come in,
And as my guests abide.

Anon.

453 Wait thou His Time.

- 1 Give to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs, God counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Thro' waves, thro' clouds and storms,
He gently clears the way;
Wait thou his time, so shall the night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 He everywhere hath rule,
And all things serve his might;
His every act pure blessing is,
His path unsullied light.
- 4 Thou comprehend'st him not;
Yet earth and heaven tell
God sits as sovereign on the throne:
He ruleth all things well.

1. We all, O Fa-ther! all are thine: All feel thy pro-vi-den-tial care;

454 All things work for Good.

2 And whether grief oppress the heart,
Or whether joy elate the breast,
Or life keep on its little course,
Or death invite the heart to rest,—

3 All are thy messengers, and all
Thy sacred pleasure, Lord, obey;
And all are training men to dwell
Nearer to heaven, and nearer thee.

George Dyer.

455 Manna.

1 Thy bounteous hand with food can bless
The bleak and barren wilderness;
And thou hast taught us, Lord, to pray
For daily bread from day to day.

2 And, oh, when through the wilds we roam,
That part us from our heavenly home;
When, lost in danger, want, and woe,
Our faithless tears begin to flow,—

3 Do thou thy gracious comfort give,
By which alone the soul can live;
And grant thy children, Lord, we pray.
The bread of life from day to day.

Bishop Reginald Heber.

456 Following after God.

1 O God, thou art my God alone;
Early to thee my soul shall cry,
A pilgrim in a land unknown,
A thirsty land, whose springs are dry.

2 Yet, through this rough and thorny maze,
I follow hard on thee, my God;
Thine hand unseen upholds my ways;
I lean upon thy staff and rod.

3 Thee, in the watches of the night,
When I remember on my bed,
Thy presence makes the darkness light,
Thy guardian wings are round my head,

4 Better than life itself thy love,
Dearer than all beside to me;
For whom have I in heaven above,
Or what on earth, compared with thee?

5 Praise with my heart, my mind, my voice,
For all thy mercy, I will give;
My soul shall still in God rejoice;
My tongue shall bless thee while I live.

James Montgomery, 1822.

457 All Things work together for Good.

1 O FATHER, humbly we repose
Our souls on thee, who dwell'st above,
And bless thee for the peace which flows
From faith in thine encircling love.

2 Though every earthly trust may break,
Infinite might belongs to thee;
Though every earthly friend forsake,
Unchangeable thou still wilt be.

3 Though griefs may gather darkly round,
They can not veil us from thy sight;
Though vain all human aid be found,
Thou every grief canst turn to light.

4 All things thy wise designs fulfil,
In earth beneath and heaven above;
And good breaks out from every ill,
Through faith in thine encircling love.

458 He doeth all Things well.

2 So, trusting in thy love, I tread
The narrow path of duty on;
What though some cherished joys are fled?
What tho' some flattering dreams are gone?
Yet purer, nobler joys remain,
And peace is won through conquered pain.

Sir John Bowring.

459 Thy Will be done.

1 He sendeth sun, he sendeth shower;
Alike they're needful for the flower;

And joys and tears alike are sent
To give the soul fit nourishment:
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done.

2 Can loving children e'er reprove
With murmers whom they trust and love?
Creator, I would ever be
A trusting, loving child to thee.
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done.

467 Memorial of Praise.

2 Here I'll raise my Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God,
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.
3 Oh! to grace how great a debtor,
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love—
Here's my heart, oh, take and seal it;
Seal it for thy courts above.

Robert Robinson, 1758.

468 Divine Love.

1 LOVE divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down;
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.

Pure unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every longing heart.

3 Breathe, oh, breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast;
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find thy promised rest.
Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Graciously come down, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

All that is done in heaven or hell,
Or could my faith the world remove,
Still I am nothing without love.

To feed the hungry, clothe the poor,—
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name,—

Be absent, all my hopes are vain:
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,

471 A Prayer for Faith.

- 1 I ASK not wealth, but power to take
And use the things I have aright;
Not years, but wisdom that shall make
My life a profit and delight.
- 2 I ask not that for me the plan
Of good and ill be set aside,
But that the common lot of man
Be nobly borne and glorified.
- 3 I know I may not always keep
My steps in places green and sweet,
Nor find the pathway of the deep
A path of safety to my feet;
- 4 But pray that, when the tempest's breath
Shall fiercely sweep my way about,
I make not shipwreck of my faith
In the unfathomed sea of doubt.

Phoebe Cary.

472 Living to God.

- 1 O THOU who hast at thy command
The hearts of all men in thy hand!
Our wayward, erring hearts incline
To have no other will but thine.
- 2 Our wishes, our desires, control;
Mould every purpose of the soul;
O'er all may we victorious be
That stands between ourselves and thee.
- 3 Thrice blest will all our blessings be,
When we can look through them to thee,
When each glad heart its tribute pays
Of love and gratitude and praise.
- 4 And, while we to thy glory live,
May we to thee all glory give;
Until the final summons come,
That calls thy willing servants home.

Mrs. Joseph Cotterill, 1808.

473 Love Divine.

- 1 O LOVE Divine, whose constant beam
Shines on the eyes that will not see,
And waits to bless us while we dream,
Thou leav'st us when we turn from thee!
- 2 All souls that struggle and aspire,
All hearts of prayer, by thee are lit;
And, dim or clear, thy tongues of fire
On dusky tribes and centuries sit.
- 3 Nor bounds, nor clime, nor creed thou
Wide as our need thy favors fall; [know'st:
The white wings of the Holy Ghost
Stoop, unseen, o'er the heads of all.

John G. Whittier.

Practical Religion.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God,
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion and envy, lust and pride;
While justice, temperance, truth and love
Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on his word.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

The man who minds religion now,—
And humbly walks with God below.

2 Whose hands are pure, whose heart is clean,
Whose lips still speak the things they mean;
No slanders dwell upon his tongue;
He hates to do his neighbor wrong.

3 He loves his enemies and prays
For those who curse him to his face,
And does to all men still the same
That he would hope or wish from them.

4 Yet when his holiest works are done,
His soul depends on grace alone:
This is the man thy face shall see,
And dwell forever, Lord, with Thee.

Isaac Watts.

475

Christian Fellowship.

1 HOW BLEST the sacred tie that binds,
In union sweet, according minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one.

2 To each, the soul of each how dear!
What jealous love, what holy fear!
How doth the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!

3 In glad accord they seek the place
Where God reveals his gracious face:
How high, how strong, their raptures swell,
There's none but kindred souls can tell.

4 Nor shall the flowing flame expire
When droops at length frail nature's fire;
For they shall meet in realms above,—
A heaven of joy, because of love.

Anna L. Barbauld.

477 Who art thou that judgest?

1 ALL-SEEING God, 'tis thine to know
The springs whence wrong opinions flow;
To judge from principles within,
When frailty errs, and when we sin.

2 Who among men, great Lord of all,
Thy servant at the bar shall call?
Judge him, for modes of faith, thy foe,
And doom him to the realms of woe?

3 Who with another's eye can read?
Or worship by another's creed?
Trusting thy grace, we form our own,
And bow to thy commands alone.

4 If wrong, correct; accept if right;
While, faithful, we improve our light,
Condemning none, but zealous still
To learn and follow all thy will.

Scott.

476 Who shall dwell in Thy Holy Hill?

1 Who shall ascend the heavenly place,
Great God, and dwell before thy face?

STONEFIELD. L. M.

SAMUEL STANLEY, 1820.

1. What pre - cept, Je - sus, is like thine— For - give, as ye would be for - given:

In this we see the pow'r di - vine Which shall transform our earth to heaven.

478 "Forgive, and ye shall be forgiven."

2 O, not the harsh and scornful word
The victory over sin can gain,
Not the dark prison, or the sword,
The shackle, or the weary chain.

3 But from our spirits there must flow
A love that will the wrong outweigh;
Our lips must only blessings know,
And wrath and sin shall die away.

4 'Twas heaven that formed the holy plan
To win the wanderer back by love;
Thus let us save our brother man,
And imitate our God above.

Mrs. Livermore.

479 My Soul follows hard after Thee.

1 O, THAT it were as it hath been,
When praying in thy holy place,
Thy power and glory I have seen,
And marked the footsteps of thy grace!

2 Yet, through this rough and thorny maze,
I follow hard on thee, my God;
Thine hand unseen upholds my ways;
I lean upon thy staff and rod.

3 Thee, in the watches of the night,
When I remember on my bed,
Thy presence makes the darkness light,
Thy guardian wings are round my head.

4 Better than life itself thy love,
Dearer than all beside to me;

For whom have I in heaven above,
Or what on earth, compared with thee?

James Montgomery, 1822.

480 "The Love of God."

1 O SOURCE divine, and Life of all,
The Fount of being's wondrous sea!
Thy depth would every heart appal,
That saw not Love supreme in thee.

2 We shrink before thy vast abyss, [brood;
Where worlds on worlds unnumbered
We know thee truly but in this,—
That thou bestowest all our good.

3 Bestow on every joyous thrill
A deeper tone of reverent awe,
Make pure thy children's erring will
And teach their hearts to love thy law.

John Sterling, 1839.

481 "Jesus Our Joy."

1 JESUS, thou Joy of loving hearts,
Thou Fount of Life, thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to thee again.

2 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see;
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

3 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away,
Shed o'er the world thy holy light.

Tr. Ray Palmer, 1858.

WILLIS. 7s.

R. STORRS WILLIS.

1. Lord of our su-preme de-sire! Fill us now with heav'nly fire: No-bly may we bear the strife, Keep the ho-li-ness of life, Keep the ho-li-ness of life.

482

Following Christ.

2 Father, fill us with thy love;
Never from our souls remove;
Dwell with us, and we shall be
Thine through all eternity.

Charles Wesley, 1740.

2 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done,—
Partner of my throne shalt be:
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"

483

Lovest thou Me?

1 HARK, my soul; it is the Lord;
'Tis thy Saviour; hear his word;
Jesus speaks; he speaks to thee,—
"Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"

3 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint,
Yet I love thee, and adore:
O for grace to love thee more!

William Cowper, 1779.

BROWNELL. L. M. 61.

HAYDN.

1. Je-sus, thy boundless love to me No tho't can reach, no tongue de-clare; Oh, knit my thankful heart to thee, And reign without a ri-val there: Thine wholly, thine a-lone, I am; Be thou a-lone my con-stant flame.

484

"Thy boundless love."

2 Oh, grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone:
Oh, may thy love possess me whole,—
My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
Strange flames far from my heart remove
My every act, word, thought, be love.

3 O Love! how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise:
O Jesus! nothing may I see,
Nothing desire, or seek but thee!

John Wesley, cr.

ARLINGTON, C. M.

THOMAS A. ARNE, 1744.

1. Amazing grace! how sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.

485

2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

3 Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come:
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

4 Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.

5 The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun forbear to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Shall be forever mine.

J. Newton.

487

Lord, my Heart is not haughty.

1 IS THERE ambition in my heart?
Search, gracious God, and see;
Or do I act a haughty part?
Lord, I appeal to thee.

2 Whate'er thine all-discerning eye
Sees for thy creature fit,
I'll bless the good and to the ill
Contentedly submit.

3 Feed me, O Lord, with needful food:
I ask not wealth or fame;
Give me an eye to see thy will,
A heart to praise thy name.

4 O, may my days securely pass,
Without remorse or care;
And let me for my parting hour
From day to day prepare.

Isaac Watts.

486

Charity thinketh no Evil.

1 THINK gently of the erring one,
And let us not forget,
However darkly stained by sin,
He is our brother yet.

2 Heir of the same inheritance,
Child of the self-same God,
He hath but stumbled in that path
We have in weakness trod.

3 Speak gently to the erring one:
Thou yet mayst lead him back,
With holy words and tones of love,
From misery's thorny track.

4 Forget not thou hast often sinned,
And sinful yet mayst be:
Deal gently with the erring one,
As God hath dealt with thee.

Miss Fletcher.

488

Who is thy Neighbor?

1 Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou
Hast power to aid or bless;
Whose aching heart or burning brow
Thy soothing hand may press.

2 Thy neighbor? 'Tis the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim;
O, enter thou his humble door,
With aid and peace for him.

3 Thy neighbor? He who drinks the cup
When sorrow drowns the brim;
With words of high sustaining hope,
Go thou and comfort him.

4 Thy neighbor? Pass no mourner by;
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery;
Go, share thy lot with him.

Peabody.

HUMMEL. C. M.

CHARLES ZEUNER, 1832.

489 Thou knowest that I love Thee.

2 Do not I love thee from my soul?

Then let me nothing love:

Deed be my heart to every joy

When Jesus cannot move.

3 Is not thy name melodious still

To mine attentive ear?

Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound

My Saviour's voice to hear?

4 Thou know'st I love thee, dearest Lord;

But, O, I long to soar

Far from the sphere of mortal joys,

And learn to love thee more.

Philip Doddridge.

2 Speak gently to the young, for they

Will have enough to bear;

Pass through this life as best they may,

'Tis full of anxious care.

3 Speak gently to the aged one—

Grieve not the care-worn heart;

The sands of life are nearly run;

Let them in peace depart.

4 Speak gently—'tis a little thing

Dropped in the heart's deep well;

The good, the joy that it may bring,

Eternity shall tell.

Bates.

490 Longing after God.

1 I ASK not now for gold to gild

An aching, weary frame;

The yearning of the mind is stilled,—

I ask not now for fame.

2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind,

I make my wishes known;

I only ask a will resigned,

O Father, to thine own.

3 And now my spirit sighs for home,

And longs for light to see,

And, like a weary child, would come,

O Father, unto thee.

John G. Whittier.

491 Speak Gently.

1 SPEAK gently—it is better far

To rule by love than fear;

Speak gently—let no harsh word mar

The good we may do here.

492 The Law of Sympathy.

1 ALL nature feels attractive power,

A strong, embracing force;

The drops that sparkle in the shower,

The planets in their course.

2 In this fine, sympathetic chain

All creatures bear a part;

Their every pleasure, every pain,

Linked to a feeling heart.

3 More perfect bond, the Christian plan

Attaches soul to soul;

Our neighbor is the suffering man,

Though at the farthest pole.

4 To earth below, from heaven above,

The faith in Christ professed

More clear reveals that God is love,

And whom he loves is blest.

SWANWICK, C. M.

LUCAS.

1. I love the Lord; he heard my cries, And pit - ied ev - 'ry groan; Long as I live, when trou - bles rise, I'll hast - en to his throne, I'll hast - en to his throne.

493 Acknowledgment of God's Goodness.

- 2 The Lord beheld me sore distressed;
He bade my pains remove;
Return, my soul, to God, thy rest,
For thou hast known his love.
- 3 My God hath saved my soul from death,
And dried my falling tears;
Now to his praise I'll spend my breath,
And my remaining years.

Isaac Watts.

494 For a tender Conscience.

- 1 I WANT a principle within
Of jealous, godly fear;
A sensibility to sin,
A pain to find it near.
- 2 I want the first approach to feel
Of pride, or fond desire;
To catch the wandering of my will,
And quench the killing fire.
- 3 From thee that I no more may part,
No more thy goodness grieve,
The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience give.
- 4 Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God! my conscience make;
Awake my soul when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

Charles Wesley.

495 Whom have we, Lord, in Heaven but Thee?

- 1 WHOM have we, Lord, in heaven, but thee,
And whom on earth beside?
Where else for succor can we flee,
Or in whose strength confide?
- 2 Thou art our portion here below,
Our promised bliss above;
Ne'er may our souls an object know
So precious as thy love.
- 3 Lord, thou shalt be our guide thro' life,
And help and strength supply;
Sustain us in death's fearful strife,
And welcome us on high.

Henry F. Lyte.

496 The New Commandment.

- 1 WITH love the Saviour's heart o'erflowed;
Love spoke in every breath;
Supreme it reigned, throughout his life,
And triumphed in his death.
- 2 Behold, this new command he gives
To those who bear his name,—
That they shall one another love,
As he hath loved them.
- 3 In every action, every thought,
Be this great thought fulfilled;
Forgotten be each selfish aim,
Each angry passion stilled.
- 4 Let all who bear the name of Christ,
While they his sufferings view,
Think of his words, "Each other love,
As I have loved you."

The beloved Name.

2 Not softest strains can charm my ears
Like thy beloved name;
Nor aught beneath the skies inspire
My heart with equal flame.

3 Where'er I look, my wondering eyes
Unnumbered blessings see;
But what is life, with all its bliss,
If once compared with thee?

4 Hast thou a rival in my breast?
Search, Lord, for thou canst tell,
If aught can raise my passions thus,
Or please my soul so well.

5 No; thou art precious to my heart,
My portion and my joy:
Forever let thy boundless grace
My sweetest thoughts employ.

Heginbotham.

498 Ye have the Poor always with you.

1 LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And, that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Small are the offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

CROSSWELL.

499

Greater Love hath no Man than this.

1 My blessed Saviour, is thy love
So great, so full, so free?
Behold, I give my love, my heart,
My life, my all, to thee.

2 I love thee for the glorious worth
In thy great self I see;
I love thee for that shameful cross
Thou hast endured for me.

3 No man of greater love can boast
Than for his friend to die;
But for thy foes, Lord, thou wast slain;
What love with thine can vie?

4 O Lord, I'll treasure in my soul
The memory of thy love;
And thy dear name shall still to me
A grateful odor prove.

Anon.

500

Ye have done it unto Me.

1 Jesus, my Lord, how rich thy grace!
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall I count the matchless sum?
How pay the mighty debt?

2 High on a throne of radiant light
Dost thou exalted shine;
What can my poverty bestow,
When all the worlds are thine?

3 But thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of thy grace,
And wilt confess their humble names
Before thy Father's face.

4 In them thou mayst be clothed and fed,
And visited, and cheered;
And in their accents of distress
My Saviour's voice is heard.

Philip Doddridge.

GREATOR EX COLLECTION.

1. O, love that casts out fear, O, love that casts out sin, Tar - ry, tar - ry... no more with - out, But come and dwell with - in.

501 Perfect Love casteth out Fear.

- 2 True sunlight of the soul,
 Surround me as I go;
 So shall my earthly way be safe,
 My feet no straying know.
- 3 Great love of God, come in,
 Well-spring of heavenly peace;
 Thou Water of Salvation, come,
 Spring up, and never cease.
- 4 Love of the living God,
 And his beloved Son,
 Come into every thirsty heart;
 Fill thou each needy one.

Horatius Bonar.

502 How good to dwell in Unity.

- 1 BLEST are the sons of peace,
 Whose hearts and hopes are one;
 Whose kind desires to serve and please
 Through all their actions run.
- 2 Blest is the pious house
 Where zeal and friendship meet;
 Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
 Make their communion sweet.
- 3 From those celestial springs
 Such streams of comfort flow,
 As no increase of riches brings,
 No honors can bestow.
- 4 Thus, on the heavenly hills,
 The saints are blest above,
 Where joy like morning dew distils,
 And all the air is love.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

503 I say unto all, Watch.

- 1 YE servants of the Lord,
 Each in your office wait,
 Observant of his heavenly word,
 And watchful at his gate.
- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
 And trim the golden flame:
 Gird up your loins, as in his sight,
 For holy is his name.
- 3 Watch: 'tis your Lord's command;
 And while we speak, he's near;
 Mark the first signal of his hand,
 And ready all appear.
- 4 O, happy servant he
 In such a posture found;
 He shall his Lord with rapture see,
 And be with honor crowned.

Philip Doddridge, 1755.

504 The Voice of Conscience.

- 1 GIVE forth thine earnest cry,
 O conscience, voice of God!
 To young and old, to low and high,
 Proclaim his will abroad.
- 2 Within the human breast
 Thy strong monitions plead;
 Still thunder thy divine protest
 Against th'unrighteous deed.
- 3 Show the true way of peace,
 O thou our guiding light!
 From bondage of the wrong release,
 To service of the right.

2 I would love thee; every blessing
Flows to me from out thy throne;
I would love thee, he who loves thee,
Never feels himself alone.

3 I would love thee; look upon me,
Ever guide me with thine eye;
I would love thee; if not nourished
By thy love, my soul would die.

4 I would love thee; may thy brightness
Dazzle my rejoicing eyes;
I would love thee; may thy goodness
Watch from heaven o'er all I prize.

5 I would love thee, I have vowed it;
On thy love my heart is set;
While I love thee, I will never

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun,—

To rest in his embrace.

507 The Lord's Prayer.

- 2 Thy kingdom come; thy will
On earth be done in love,
As saints and seraphim fulfil
Thy perfect law above,
- 3 Our daily bread supply,
While by thy word we live;
The guilt of our iniquity
Forgive, as we forgive.
- 4 Thine, then, forever be
Glory and power divine;
The sceptre, throne, and majesty
Of heaven and earth are thine.

James Montgomery.

508 Occupy till I come.

- 1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save.
And fit it for the sky.
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil:
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.
- 4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

Charles Wesley, 1737.

509 Desire to find God.

- 1 My Father bids me come;
Oh why do I delay?
He calls the wandering spirit home,
And yet from him I stay.
- 2 Father, the hindrance show,
Which I have failed to see;
And let me now consent to know
What keeps me far from thee.
- 3 Searcher of hearts, in mine
Thy trying power display;
Into its darkest corners shine,
Take every veil away.

Anon.

510 Spiritual Wants.

- 1 My God, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.
- 2 Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do—
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 3 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near.
And bids the tempter fly;
- 4 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
Forever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

Charles Wesley.

SAMUEL STANLEY, 1840.

511

- 2 If in my Father's love
 I share a filial part,
 Send down thy Spirit, like a dove,
 To rest upon my heart.
- 3 We would no longer lie,
 Like slaves beneath the throne:
 My faith shall Abba, Father, cry,
 And thou the kindred own.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

512

Glorious Liberty.

- 1 OH, come, and dwell with me,
 Spirit of power within;
 And bring the glorious liberty
 From sorrow, fear, and sin!
- 2 Hasten the joyful day
 Which shall my sins consume;
 When old things shall be done away,
 And all things new become.
- 3 I want the witness, Lord,
 That all I do is right,—
 According to thy will and word,—
 Well pleasing in thy sight.
- 4 I ask no higher state:
 Indulge me but in this,
 And soon or later thou translate
 To my eternal bliss.

Charles Wesley.

513

I will write it in their Hearts.

- 1 THAT blessed law of thine,
 Father, to me impart;
 The Spirit's law of life divine,
 O, write it in my heart.

- 2 Implant it deep within,
 Whence it may ne'er remove—
 The law of liberty from sin,
 The perfect law of love.

- 3 Thy nature be my law,
 Thy spotless sanctity,
 And sweetly every moment draw
 My happy soul to thee.

Charles Wesley.

514

Ask, and ye shall receive.

- 1 Ask, and ye shall receive:
 On this my hope I build;
 I ask forgiveness, and believe
 My prayer shall be fulfilled.
- 2 Seek, and expect to find;
 Wounded with sin my soul,
 I seek the Saviour of mankind,
 For he can make me whole.
- 3 Knock, and with patience wait;
 By faith free entrance gain:
 I stand and knock at mercy's gate
 Till I thy grace obtain.
- 4 Shall I, then ask, in vain?
 Seek, and not find the Lord?
 Knock, and yet no admittance gain,
 And doubt thy holy word?
- 5 No, Lord, thou'lt ne'er deceive:
 Thy promises are sure;
 In thy good time I shall receive:
 What can I ask for more?

1. Lead, kind-ly light, a-mid th'encircling gloom, Lead thou me on; The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead thou me on. Keep thou my feet; I

515

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou Should'st lead me on:
 I loved to choose and see my path; but now Lead thou me on.
 I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears, And with the morn, those angel faces smile,
 Pride ruled my will; remember not past years. Which I have loved long since, and lost a-while.

John Henry Newman, 1853.

516 Lead me in Thy Truth, and teach me.

1 I ASK a perfect creed:
 O that to me were given
 The teaching that leads none astray,
 The scholarship of heaven!

2 The one, whole truth I seek,
 In this sad age of strife—
 The truth of Him who is the Truth,
 And in whose truth is life,—

3 Truth which contains true rest,
 Which is the grave of doubt,
 Which ends uncertainty and gloom,
 And casts the falsehood out.

4 O True One, give me truth,
 And let it quench in me
 The thirst of this long-craving heart,
 And set my spirit free.

The Mercy-seat.

2 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

3 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And sense and sin molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Hugh Stowell, 1832.

518

With my Soul have I desired Thee.

1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense;
One sovereign word can draw me thence;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.

4 Be earth with all her scenes withdrawn;
Let noise and vanity be gone;
In secret silence of the mind,
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

Isaac Watts.

To be made perfect in Divine Love.

1 Oh that my heart was right with thee,
And loved thee with a perfect love!
Oh that my Lord would dwell in me,
And never from his seat remove!

2 Father, I dwell in mournful night,
Till thou dost in my heart appear:
Arise, propitious Sun, and light
An everlasting morning there.

3 Oh, let my prayer acceptance find,
And bring the mighty blessing down;
Eyesight impart, for I am blind,
And seal me thine adopted Son!

Augustus M. Toplady, 1759.

The Highway of Holiness.

1 JESUS, my all, to heaven is gone—
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go, for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long have sought,
And mourned because I found it not,
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
Come hither, soul; I am the way.

4 Lo, glad I come; and thou blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am;
Nothing but sin have I to give,
Nothing but love shall I receive.

John Cennick, 1749.

Thy king-dom come in truth and love; And earth, like heav'n, o-bey thy will.

521

The Lord's Prayer.

2 Lord, make our daily wants thy care,
Forgive the sins which we forsake:
In thy compassion let us share,
As fellow-men of ours partake.

3 Evils beset us every hour;
Thy kind protection we implore:
Thine is the kingdom, thine the power,
The glory thine for evermore.

522

Choosing the Better Part.

1 BESET with snares on every hand,
In life's uncertain path I stand:
Father divine, diffuse thy light,
To guide my doubtful footsteps right.

2 Engage this roving, treacherous heart
Wisely to choose the better part;
To scorn the trifles of a day,
For joy that none can take away.

3 Then let the wildest storms arise,
Let tempests mingle earth and skies,
No fatal shipwreck shall I fear,
But all my treasure with me bear.

4 If thou, my Father, still be nigh,
Cheerful I live, and joyful die;
Secure, when mortal comforts flee,
To find ten thousand worlds in thee.

Philip Doddridge.

523

1 ASSIST us, Lord, to act, to be,
What nature and thy laws decree,
Worthy that intellectual flame
Which from thy breathing Spirit came.

2 Our moral freedom to maintain,
Bid passion serve, and reason reign;
Self-poised and independent still
On this world's varying good or ill.

3 May our expanded souls disclaim
The narrow view, the selfish aim;
But with a Christian zeal embrace
Whate'er is friendly to our race.

4 O Father! grace and virtue grant;
No more we wish, no more we want:
To know, to serve thee, and to love,
Is peace below,—is bliss above.

Henry Moore.

524

This is the Gate of Heaven.

1 HOW SWEET to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word.

2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee.
Ah, Lord, behold us at thy feet—
Let this the gate of heaven be.

3 Chief of ten thousand, now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face;
O, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

Thomas Kelly.

ORLAND. L. M.

525 Watchfulness.

- 2 Endue me with a holy fear;
The frailty of my heart reveal;
Sin and its snares are always near—
Thee may I always nearer feel.
- 3 O that to thee my constant mind
May with a steady flame aspire;
Pride in its earliest motions find,
And check the rise of wrong desire!
- 4 O that my watchful soul may fly
The first perceived approach of sin,
Look up to thee when danger's nigh,
And feel thy fear control within!

Exeter Collection.

526 Search me, O God, and know my Heart.

- 1 O THOU to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart—it pants for thee:
O, burst these bonds, and set it free.

- 2 Wash out its stains; refine its dross;
Nail my affections to the cross;
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean as thou, my Lord, art clean.

- 3 When rising floods my soul o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
O God, thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.

- 4 If rough and thorny be the way,
My strength proportion to my day,
Till toil, and grief, and pain shall cease,
Where all is calm, and joy, and peace.

John Wesley.

527 Here have we no continuing City.

- 1 WE'VE no abiding city here;
Sad truth, were this to be our home;
But let this thought our spirits cheer—
We seek a city yet to come.
- 2 We've no abiding city here;
We seek a city out of sight—
Zion its name; the Lord is there:
It shines with everlasting light.
- 3 O, sweet abode of peace and love,
Where pilgrims freed from toil are blest!
Had I the pinions of the dove,
I'd fly to thee and be at rest.
- 4 But hush, my soul, nor dare repine;
The time my God appoints is best;
While here, to do his will be mine,
And his to fix my time of rest.

Thomas Kelly.

528 For Steadiness of Principle.

- 1 AMIDST a world of hopes and fears,
A world of cares and toils and tears,
Where foes alarm, and dangers threat,
And pleasures kill, and glories cheat;

- 2 Shed down, O Lord! a heavenly ray
To guide me in the doubtful way;
And o'er me hold thy shield of power,
To guard me in the dangerous hour.

- 3 May never pleasure, wealth, or pride,
Allure my wandering soul aside!
But through this maze of mortal ill,
Safe lead me to thy heavenly hill.

Henry Moore.

BISHOP. L. M.

DON JOSÉ.

1. My God, is any hour so sweet,
 From blush of morn to evening star,
 As that which calls me to thy feet,
 The calm and holy hour of prayer?

529

The Hour of Prayer.

- 2 Blest is the tranquil break of morn,
 And blest the hush of solemn eve,
 When on the wings of prayer up-borne
 This fair, but transient, world, I leave.
- 3 Then is my strength by thee renewed
 Then are my sins by thee forgiven;

- Then dost thou cheer my solitude,
 With clear and beauteous hopes of heaven.
- 4 No words can tell what sweet relief,
 There for my every want, I find;
 What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
 What deep and cheerful peace of mind!

God our Guide.

- 2 By thine unerring spirit led,
 We shall not in the desert stray,
 We shall not full direction need,
 Nor miss our providential way;
 As far from danger as from fear,
 While love, Almighty love, is near.

Wesleyan.

- 2 O that I, as a little child,
 May follow thee, and never rest
 Till sweetly thou hast breathed a mild,
 A lowly mind into my breast;
 Nor ever may we parted be,
 Till I become as one with thee.

531

Desire for Union with God.

- 1 O LOVE, how cheering is the ray!
 All pain before thy presence flies;
 Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
 Where'er thy healing beams arise:
 O Father, nothing may I see,
 And nought desire or seek, but thee.

- 3 Still let thy love point out my way;
 How wondrous things thy love hath
 Still lead me, lest I go astray; [wrought!
 Direct my word, inspire my thought;
 And if I fall, soon may I hear
 Thy voice, and know that Love is near.

532 Prayer the Life of the Soul.

- 2 If pain afflict or wrongs oppress,
If cares distract or fears dismay,
If guilt deject, if sin distress,—
In every case, still watch and pray.
- 3 'Tis prayer supports the soul that's weak;
Tho' thought be broken, language lame,

Pray, if thou canst or canst not speak;
But pray with faith in Jesus' name.

- 4 Depend on him—thou canst not fail:
Make all thy wants and wishes known;
Fear not—his promise must prevail:
Ask but in faith, it shall be done.

533 God in the Soul.

- 2 We hear thy voice when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air;
The waves obey thy dread control,
Yet still thou art not there;
Where shall I find him, O my soul,
Who yet is everywhere?

- 3 O, not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast;
Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
There does his spirit rest!
Oh, come, thou presence Infinite,
And make thy creature blest!

534 Life more abundantly.

2 Oh for fuller life we pine!
Let us more receive of thine;
Still for more on thee we call,
Thou who fillest all in all!

3 Live we now in thee; be fed
Daily with the living bread;
Into thee our spirits grow;
Into us thy spirit flow;

4 While we feel the vital blood,
While thy full and quickening flood
Through life's every channel rolls,
Soul of all believing souls.

Hymns of the Spirit

535 Seeking God.

1 THIRSTING for a living spring,
Seeking for a higher home,
Resting where our souls must cling,
Trusting, hoping, Lord, we come.

2 Glorious hopes our spirits fill,
When we feel that thou art near;
Father, then our fears are still,
Then the soul's bright end is clear.

3 Life's hard conflict we would win,
Read the meaning of life's frown;
Change the thorn-bound wreath of sin
For the spirit's starry crown.

4 Make us beautiful within
By thy spirit's holy light;
Guard us when our faith is dim,
Father of all love and might.

Frank P. Appleton.

536 The Light of Life.

1 LIGHT of life, seraphic fire,
Love divine, thyself impart;
Every fainting soul inspire;
Enter every drooping heart:

2 Every mournful spirit cheer;
Scatter all our doubt and gloom;
Father, in thy grace appear,
To thy human temples come!

3 Come, in this accepted hour,
Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;
Fill us with thy glorious power,
Rooting out the seeds of sin:

4 Nothing more can we require
We can rest in nothing less;
Be thou all our hearts' desire,
All our joy and all our peace.

Charles Wesley.

537 Life in God.

1 FATHER, we look up to thee;
Let us in thy love agree;
Thou who art the God of peace,
Bid contention ever cease.

2 Make us of one heart and mind,
Self-forgetful, true, and kind;
Strong; yet meek in thought and word,
Like thy Son, our blessed Lord!

3 Let us for each other care,
Each the other's burden bear;
Ready, when reviled, to bless;
Studious of the law of peace.

4 Free from anger, free from pride,
Let us thus in thee abide;
All the depths of love express,—
All the heights of holiness.

Charles Wesley.

538 The Soul's Cry for God.

2 Why art thou cast down, my soul?

Why art thou disquieted?

God shall lift thy fallen head,

Be the saving health of thine.

2 Plant in us the humble mind,
Patient, pitiful, and kind;
Meek and lowly let us be,
Full of goodness, full of thee.

Charles Wesley, 1740.

2 Humble, holy, all resigned
To thy will—thy will be done:

540 Let this Mind be in you which was in Christ.

Rise with him to thee, my God.

Thy Will be done.

1 HOW SWEET to be allowed to pray
To God, the Holy One,—
With filial love and trust to say,
O God, thy will be done!

2 We in these sacred words can find
A cure for every ill:
They calm and soothe the troubled mind,
And bid all care be still.

3 O, let that will which gave me breath
And an immortal soul,
In joy or grief, in life or death,
My every wish control.

4 O, teach my heart the blessed way
To imitate thy Son;
Teach me, O God, in truth to pray,
Thy will, not mine, be done.

Mrs. Follen.

543

Desires for Holiness.

1 O, COULD I find, from day to day,
A nearness to my God.
Then would my hours glide sweet away
While leaning on his word.

2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
. Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 O Father, come and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.

4 Thus, till my last expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And, when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

B. Cleveland.

544

Enter into thy Closet.

1 SWEET is the prayer whose holy stream
In earnest pleading flows:
Devotion dwells upon the theme,
And warm and warmer glows.

2 Faith grasps the blessings she desires;
Hope points the upward gaze;
And Love, celestial Love, inspires
The eloquence of praise.

3 But sweeter far the still small voice,
Unheard by human ear,
When God has made the heart rejoice,
And dried the bitter tear.

4 No accents flow, no words ascend;
All utterance faileth there;
But Christian spirits comprehend,
And God accepts the prayer.

Prayer.

- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air:
His watchword at the gates of death—
He enters heaven with prayer.

James Montgomery, 1810.

547

Prayer for Purity.

- 1 BE thou, O God, by night, by day,
My Guide, my Guard, from sin,
My life, my trust, my light divine,
To keep me pure within.
- 2 Pure as the air when day's first light
A cloudless sky illumines,
And active as the lark that soars
Till heaven shines round its plumes.
- 3 So may my soul upon the wings
Of faith unwearied rise,
Till at the gate of heaven it sings,
'Midst light from Paradise.

Anon.

548

Divine Help.

- 1 O GRACIOUS God, in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.
- 2 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.
- 3 Oh keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee;
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

Anne Steele, 1760.

549

Desiring Holiness.

- 1 TRY us, O God, and search the ground
Of every sinful heart;
Whate'er of sin in us is found,
O, bid it all depart.
- 2 Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's cross to bear;
Let each his friendly aid afford,
And feel his brother's care.
- 3 Help us to build each other up,
Our heart and life improve;
Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
And perfect us in love.
- 4 Up into thee, our living Head,
Let us in all things grow,
Till thou hast made us free indeed,
And spotless here below.

1. Oh, for a clos - er walk with God! A calm and heav'n-ly frame!

A light to shine up - on the road That leads me to... the Lamb!

550 Oh, for a Closer Walk.

- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?
- 3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But now I find an aching void
The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, oh, holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame,
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

William Cowper, 1772.

551 Invoking God's Aid.

- 1 FATHER in heaven, to thee my heart
Would lift itself in prayer;
Drive from my soul each earthly thought
And show thy presence there.
- 2 Oh, help me break the galling chains
This world has round me thrown,

Each passion of my heart subdue,
Each darling sin disown!

- 3 O Father, kindle in my breast
A never-dying flame
Of holy love, of grateful trust
In thine almighty name.

William Henry Furness, 1822.

552 Lord, Teach us to Pray.

- 1 LORD, teach us how to pray aright,
With reverence and with fear:
Though dust and ashes in thy sight,
We may, we must, draw near.
- 2 Burdened with guilt, convinced of sin,
In weakness, want, and woe,
Fightings without, and fears within,
Lord, whither shall we go?
- 3 God of all grace, we come to thee,
With broken, contrite hearts;
Give what thine eye delights to see,
Truth in the inward parts;—
- 4 Give deep humility; the sense
Of godly sorrow give;
A strong, desiring confidence
To hear thy voice, and live;—
- 5 Give these, and then thy will be done;
Thus, strengthened with all might,
We by thy Spirit and thy Son,
Shall pray, and pray aright.

CONWAY, C. M.

553 Prayer for Prudence and Wisdom.

2 Let heaven-eyed prudence be my guide;
And, when I go astray,
Recall my feet from folly's path,
To wisdom's better way.

3 That heavenly wisdom from above
Abundantly impart,
And let it guard and guide and warm
And penetrate my heart.

Anon.

554 Prayer for Divine Direction.

1 ETERNAL Source of life and light,
Supremely good and wise!
To thee we bring our grateful vows,
To thee lift up our eyes.

2 Our dark and erring mind illumine
With truth's celestial rays;
Inspire our hearts with sacred love,
And tune our lips to praise.

3 Safely conduct us, by thy grace,
Through life's perplexing road;
And place us, when that journey's o'er,
At thy right hand, O God!

Cappe's Selection.

555 Make haste to help me.

1 GREAT God, let not thy grace delay
To meet me with thy love;
Drive interposing clouds away,
And make my guilt remove.

2 We long to meet our God to-day,
And taste his grace divine,
That every soul with joy may say,
My Lord, my God, I'm thine.

3 O, how I pant, great God, to see
Thy face, and taste thy love;
O, speak, and bring me near to thee,
And all my doubts remove.

4 O God, inspire each heart and tongue
To learn thy precious name;
Redeeming love shall be my song,
While I thy love proclaim.

Anon.

556 Prayer for Wisdom.

1 ALMIGHTY God, in humble prayer
To thee our souls we lift;
Do thou our waiting minds prepare
For thy most needful gift.

2 We ask not golden streams of wealth
Along our path to flow;
We ask not undecaying health,
Nor length of years below;—

3 We ask not honors, which an hour
May bring and take away;
We ask not pleasure, pomp, and power,
Lest we should go astray;—

4 We ask for wisdom; Lord, impart
The knowledge how to live;
A wise and understanding heart
To all before thee give.

557 Immortal Joys.

- 2 There joys unseen by mortal eyes,
Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospect rise,
Unconscious of decay.
- 3 Lord, send a beam of light divine,
To guide our upward aim;
With one reviving ray of thine
Our languid hearts inflame.
- 4 Then shall, on faith's sublimest wing,
Our ardent wishes rise, [spring
To those bright scenes, where pleasures
Immortal in the skies.

Anne Steele.

558 Prayer for Grace in Trial.

- 1 FATHER of all our mercies, thou
In whom we move and live,
Hear us in heaven, thy dwelling, now,
And answer and forgive.
- 2 When, harassed by ten thousand foes,
Our helplessness we feel,
Oh give the weary soul repose,
The wounded spirit heal!
- 3 When dire temptations gather round,
And threaten or allure,
By storm or calm, in thee be found,
A refuge strong and sure.
- 4 When age advances, may we grow
In faith and hope and love,
And walk in holiness below
To holiness above!

James Montgomery.

559 Prayer for Submission.

- 1 ONE prayer I have—all prayers in one,
When I am wholly thine—
Thy will, my God, thy will be done,
And let that will be mine.
- 2 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe;
And back in gratitude from me
May all thy bounties flow.
- 3 Thy gifts are only then enjoyed
When used as talents lent;
Those talents only well employed
When in thy service spent.
- 4 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will?
No, let me bless thy name, and say,
The Lord is gracious still.

James Montgomery.

560 Your Life is hid with Christ in God.

- 1 THE Crucified is gone before
To the blest realms of light:
Oh, thither may our spirits soar,
And wing their upward flight!
- 2 Lord, make us to those joys aspire,
That spring from love to thee,
That pass the carnal heart's desire.
And faith alone can see.
- 3 To guide us to thy glories, Lord!
To lift us to the sky,
Oh, may thy spirit still be poured
Upon us from on high!

565 O visit me with Thy Salvation.

2 O, warm my heart with holy fire,
And kindle there a pure desire;
Come, my dear Jesus, from above,
And fill my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour, what delicious fare!
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine:
In thee thy Father's glories shine,
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One
That eyes have seen, or angels known.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

566 Walking with God.

1 THROUGH all this life's eventful road,
Fain would I walk with thee, my God,
And make thy presence light around,
And every step on holy ground.

2 Each blessing would I trace to thee,
In every grief thy mercy see,
And through the paths of duty move,
Conscious of thine encircling love.

3 And when the angel Death stands by,

A glory o'er the world I see,
And Paradise returns to earth,
And blooms again for us in thee.

3 Thou openest heaven once more for men,
The soul's true home, thy kingdom, Lord,
And I can trust and hope again,
And feel myself akin to God.

Novalis.

568 I will that they be with Me where I am.

1 LET me be with thee where thou art,
My Saviour, my eternal Rest,
Then only will this longing heart
Be fully and forever blest.

2 Let me be with thee where thou art,
Thine unveiled glory to behold;
Then only will this wandering heart
Cease to be false to thee and cold.

3 Let me be with thee where thou art,
Where spotless saints thy name adore;
Then only will this sinful heart
Be evil and defiled no more.

4 Let me be with thee where thou art,

WARRINGTON, L. M.

1. O that I could for - ev - er dwell, De - light - ed at the Sav - iour's feet,
Be - hold the form I love so well, And all his ten - der words re - peat!

569 The hidden Life.

- 2 This is the hidden life I prize—
A life of penitential love;
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above;—
- 3 When all I am I clearly see,
And freely own with deepest shame;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathly flame.
- 4 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake,
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joy partake.

Anon.

570 Did not our hearts burn within us?

- 1 HATH not thy heart within thee burned
At evening's calm and holy hour,
As if its inmost depths discerned
The presence of a loftier power?
- 2 As they, who once with Jesus trod,
With kindling breast his accents heard,
But knew not that the Son of God
Was uttering every burning word,—
- 3 Father of Jesus, thus thy voice
Speaks to our hearts in tones divine;
Our spirits tremble and rejoice,
But know not that the voice is thine.
- 4 Still be thy hallowed accents near;
To doubt and passion whisper peace;
Direct us on our journey here,
And bid, in heaven, our wanderings cease

Bulfinch.

571 Lo, I am with you alway.

- 1 THERE'S not a hope with comfort fraught,
Triumphant over death and time,
But Jesus mingles in the thought,
Forerunner of our course sublime.
- 2 I see him in the daily round
Of social duty, mild and meek;
With him I tread the hallowed ground,
Communion with my God to seek.
- 3 I meet him at the lowly tomb;
I weep where Jesus wept before;
And there above the grave's dark gloom,
I see him rise and weep no more.

Taylor.

572 "Jesus, the Best Beloved."

- 1 JESUS, my heart within me burns,
To tell thee all its conscious love;
And from earth's low delights it turns,
To taste a joy like that above.
- 2 When thou to me dost condescend,
In love divine, thou blessed One,
The moments that with thee I spend,
Seem e'en as Heaven itself begun.
- 3 I breathe my words into thine ear;
I seem to fix mine eyes on thine;
And sure that thou dost wait to hear,
I dare in faith to call thee mine.
- 4 Reign, thou sole Sovereign of my heart,
My all I yield to thy control;
O let me never from thee part,
Thou best Beloved of my soul.

573 Nearer to God.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet, in my dreams, I'd be
Nearer, my God! to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

3 There let the way appear,
Steps up to heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God! to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God! to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

5 Or if, on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,

Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God! to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

Mrs. Sarah Flower Adams, 1841.

574 Closer with God.

1 SAVIOUR, I follow on,
Guided by thee,
Seeing not yet the hand
That leadeth me;
Hushed be my heart and still,
Fear I no further ill,
Only to meet thy will
My will shall be.

2 Riven the rock for me,
Thirst to relieve;
Manna from heaven falls
Fresh every eve;
Never a want severe
Causeth my eye a tear,
But thou dost whisper near,
"Only believe!"

3 Saviour! I long to walk
Closer with thee;
Led by thy guiding hand
Ever to be;
Constantly near thy side,
Quickened and purified,
Living for him who died
Freely for me.

Charles S. Robinson, 1862.

1. Not with our mor - tal eyes Have we be - held the Lord;
Yet we re - joice to hear his name, And love him in his word.

576 Whom, having not seen, ye love.

- 2 On earth we want the sight
Of our Redeemer's face;
Yet, Lord, our inmost thoughts delight
To dwell upon thy grace.
- 3 And when we taste thy love,
Our joys divinely glow
Unspeakable, like those above,
And heaven begins below.

Isaac Watts. 1709.

577 Blessed are the pure in heart.

- 1 BLEST are the pure in heart,
For they shall see their God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2 The Lord, who left the heavens,
Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
Their pattern and their King,—
- 3 He to the lowly soul
Doth still himself impart,
And for his dwelling, and his throne,
Chooseth the pure in heart.
- 4 Lord, we thy presence seek;
May ours this blessing be;
O give the pure and lowly heart,—
A temple meet for thee.

John Keble.

578 Spiritual Communion.

- 1 OUR heavenly Father calls;
And Christ invites us near;
With both, our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.

- 2 God pities all our griefs;
He pardons every day,—
Almighty to protect our souls,
And wise to guide our way.
- 3 How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!

- 4 Here fix, my roving heart,
Here wait, my warmest love;
Till the communion be complete
In nobler scenes above.

Philip Doddridge.

579 Christ crucified.

- 1 I BLESS the Crucified,
I rest on love divine,
And, with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine.
- 2 His cross dispels each doubt;
I bury in his tomb
Each thought of unbelief and fear,
Each lingering shade of gloom.
- 3 I praise my Saviour's name,
I trust his truth and might;
He calls me his, I call him mine,
My Lord, my joy, my light.

- 4 'Tis he who saveth me,
And freely pardon gives:
I love because he loveth me,
I live because he lives.

English Melody. Arr. by Dr. L. MASON, 1832.

1. Walk in the light! so shalt thou know That fellowship of love His Spir-it on-ly can be-stow, Who reigns in light a-bove.

580 "Walk in the Light."

2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away;
Because that light hath on thee shone
In which is perfect day.

3 Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.

4 Walk in the light! and thine shall be
A path, though thorny, bright;
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light.

Bernard Barton.

581 Walk with God.

1 WALK with your God, along the road
Your strength he will renew;
Wait on the Everlasting God,
And he will work with you.

2 Ye shall not faint, ye shall not fail,
Made in the spirit strong;
Each task divine ye still shall hail,
And blend it with a song.

T. H. GILL.

582 Fellowship with God.

1 FROM all that's mortal, all that's vain,
And from this earthly clod,
Arise, my soul, and strive to gain
Sweet fellowship with God.

2 Not life, nor friendship, here below,
Nor pleasure's flowery road,
Can to my soul such bliss impart
As fellowship with God.

3 And when I'm made in love to bear
Affliction's needful rod,
Light, sweet, and kind the strokes appear,
Through fellowship with God.

4 So when the icy hand of death
Shall chill our flowing blood;
With joy we'll yield our latest breath
In fellowship with God.

Anon.

583 Sympathy and Resignation.

1 LET not despair nor fell revenge
Be to my bosom known,
O, give me tears for others' woe,
And patience for my own.

2 Feed me, O Lord, with needful food:
I ask not wealth or fame;
Give me an eye to see thy will,
A heart to praise thy name.

3 Whate'er thine all-discerning eye
Sees for thy creature fit,
I'll bless the good, and to the ill
Contentedly submit.

4 O, may my days securely pass,
Without remorse or care:
And let me for my parting hour
From day to day prepare.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

584 The Bond of Love.

1 BENEATH the shadow of the cross,
As earthly hopes remove,
His new commandment Jesus gives,—
His blessed word of love.

2 O bond of union, strong and deep;
O bond of perfect peace!
Not e'en the lifted cross can harm
If we but hold to this.

3 Then, Jesus, be thy Spirit ours;
And swift our feet shall move
To deeds of pure self-sacrifice,
And the sweet tasks of love.

Samuel Longfellow.

1. Must Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free? No, there's a cross for ev'ry one, And there's a cross for me.

585

Cross and Crown.

- 2 How happy are the saints above,
Who once went sorrowing here!
But now they taste unmingled love
And joy, without a tear.
- 3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.
- 4 Oh, precious cross! oh, glorious crown!
Oh, resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the stars come down,
And bear my soul away.

G. N. Allen.

Speak to our hearts, and let us feel
The kindlings of thy love.

2 With thee conversing, we forget
All toil, and time, and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou art present there.

3 Here then, my God, be pleased to stay,
And bid my heart rejoice;
My bounding heart shall own thy sway,
And echo to thy voice.

4 Thou callest me to seek thy face
Thy face, O God, I seek,
Attend the whispers of thy grace
And hear thee only speak.

Charles Wesley.

- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my Lord:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See! from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!

Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small:
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

588 In the Cross of Christ I Glory.

- 2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo, it glows with peace and joy.
- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.
- 4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

Sir John Bowring, 1825.

589 Before the Cross.

- 1 SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.
- 2 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his gracious eye.
- 3 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears his feet I'll bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.
- 4 May I still enjoy this feeling,
Still to my Redeemer go,
Prove his wounds each day more healing,
And himself more truly know.

James Allen, 1757.
Alt. Walter Shirley, 1776.

590 Work while it is Day.

- 1 ALL around us, fair with flowers,
Fields of beauty sleeping lie;
All around us clarion voices
Call to duty stern and high.
- 2 Following every voice of mercy
With a trusting, loving heart,
Let us in life's earnest labor
Still be sure to do our part.
- 3 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,—
Let us work with all our might,
Lest the wretched faint and perish
In the coming stormy night,—
- 4 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,—
Lest, before to-morrow's sun,
We too, mournfully departing,
Shall have left our work undone.

Book of Hymns.

591 The Prayer of Life.

- 1 FATHER, hear the prayer we offer;
Not for ease that prayer shall be;
But for strength, that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.
- 2 Not forever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be;
But the steep and rugged pathway
May we tread rejoicingly.
- 3 Not forever by still waters
Would we idly quiet stay;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.
- 4 Be our strength in hours of weakness;
In our wanderings be our guide;
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side.

Gethsemane.

2 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adorning at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear him cry;—
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

3 Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid his breathless clay;
All is solitude and gloom,
Who hath taken him away?
Christ is risen;—he meets our eyes;
Saviour, teach us so to rise!

James Montgomery.

593

As ye are Partakers of Christ's Sufferings.

[Omit Repeat.]

1 WHEN my love to Christ grows weak,
When for deeper faith I seek,
Then in thought I go to thee,
Garden of Gethsemane.

2 There behold his agony,
Suffered on the bitter tree;
See his anguish, see his faith;
Love triumphant still in death.

3 Then to life I turn again,
Learning all the worth of pain,
Learning all the might that lies
In a full self-sacrifice.

Psalms of Life.

2 Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each to-morrow
Finds us farther than to-day.
Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time:

3 Footprints, that perhaps another
Sailing o'er life's solemn main—
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.
Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor—and to wait.

Longfellow.

March to the gates of end - less joy, Where Je - sus, thy great Cap - tain's gone.

595 Captain of our Salvation.

2 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

3 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace;
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

2 That all of good the past hath had
Remains to make our own time glad,
Our common, daily life divine,
And every land a Palestine.

3 Through the harsh noises of our day,
A low, sweet prelude finds its way;
Thro' clouds of doubt, and creeds of fear,
A light is breaking calm and clear.

4 Henceforth my heart shall sigh no more
For olden time and holier shore;
God's love and blessing, then and there,
Are now and here and everywhere.

J. G. Whittier.

Press on!

1 PRESS ON, press on! ye sons of light,
Untiring in your holy fight,
Still treading each temptation down,
And battling for a brighter crown.

2 Press on, press on! through toil and woe,
With calm resolve, to triumph go;
And make each dark and threatening ill
Yield but a higher glory still.

3 Press on, press on! still look in faith
To him who conquereth sin and death,
Then shall ye hear his word, 'Well done!'
True to the last, press on, press on!

William Gaskell.

The Hope of Man.

1 Oh, sometimes gleams upon our sight,
Through present wrong, the eternal Right,
And step by step, since time began,
We see the steady gain of man.

598 Taking the Shield of Faith.

1 AWAKE, my soul, lift up thine eyes;
See where thy foes against thee rise,
In long array, a numerous host;
Awake, my soul, or thou art lost.

2 See where rebellious passions rage,
And fierce desires and lusts engage;
The meanest foe of all the train
Has thousands and ten thousands slain.

3 Thon tread'st upon enchanted ground;
Perils and snares beset thee round;
Beware of all; guard every part;
But most, the traitor in thy heart.

4 Come, then, my soul, now learn to wield
The weight of thine immortal shield;
Put on the armor from above
Of heavenly truth and heavenly love.

1 HE liveth long who liveth well!
All other life is short and vain;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of living most for heavenly gain.

Hold up to earth the torch divine;
Be what thou prayest to be made;

The life above, when this is past,

Sow sunbeams on the rock and moor,

Let us go forth without the Camp.

1 SILENT, like men in solemn haste,
Girded wayfarers of the waste,
We press along the narrow road
That leads to life, to bliss, to God.

2 We fling aside the weight and sin,
Resolved the victory to win;
We know the peril, but our eyes
Rest on the splendor of the prize.

3 No love of present gain or ease,
No seeking man or self to please;
With the brave heart and steady eye,
We onward march to victory.

4 What tho' with weariness oppressed?
'Tis but a little, and we rest:
Finished the toil,—the race is run!
The battle fought,—the field is won!

The Harvest Call.

1 ABIDE not in the realm of dreams,
O man, however fair it seems;
But with clear eye the present scan,
And hear the call of God and man.

2 Think not in sleep to fold thy hands,
Forgetful of thy Lord's commands;
From duty's claims no life is free,—
Behold to-day hath need of thee!

3 The present hour allots thy task:
For present strength and patience ask,
And trust his love whose sure supplies
Meet all thy needs as they arise.

604 "Go work To-day in my Vineyard."

1 Go, LABOR on; spend and be spent,
Thy joy to do thy Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on; 'tis not for nought;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain:
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises,—what are men?

3 Go, labor on; enough while here,
If he shall praise thee: if he deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer,
No toil for him shall be in vain.

4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice:
For toil, comes rest; for exile, home:
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal, Behold, I come!

The Christian Soldier.

1 THE Christian warrior,—see him stand
In the whole armor of his God!
The Spirit's sword is in his hand,
His feet are with the gospel shod;

2 In panoply of truth complete,
Salvation's helmet on his head,
With righteousness, a breastplate meet,
And faith's broad shield before him spread:

3 With this omnipotence he moves,
From this the alien armies flee;
Till more than conqueror he proves,
Through God who gives him victory.

James Montgomery.

606

Why stand ye all the Day idle?

1 THE God of glory walks his round,
From day to day, from year to year,
And warns us each with awful sound,
No longer stand ye idle here.

2 O, if the griefs ye would assuage,
That wait on life's declining year;
Secure a blessing for your age,
And work your master's business here!

3 And ye, whose locks of scanty gray
Foretell your latest travail near,
How swiftly fades your worthless day;
And stand ye yet so idle here?

4 O Thou, by all thy works adored,
To whom the sinner's soul is dear,
Recall us to thy vineyard, Lord,
And grant us grace to please thee here.

607 The Cross before the Crown.

- 2 There is a battle to be fought,
An upward race to run,
A crown of glory to be sought,
A victory to be won.
- 3 O, faint not, Christian, for thy sighs
Are heard before the throne;
The race must come before the prize,
The cross before the crown.

T. B. Onderdonk.

608 Despise not the Day of small Things.

- 1 SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.
- 2 A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.
- 3 No act falls fruitless; none can tell
How vast its power may be,
Nor what results unfolded dwell
Within it silently.
- 4 Work on, despair not; bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be;
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

Anon.

609 Working with God.

- 1 WORKMAN of God, oh, lose not heart,
But learn what God is like!
And, in the darkest battle-field,
Thou shalt know where to strike.

- 2 Oh, blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he Is most invisible!

- 3 And best is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

- 4 For right is right, since God is God,
And right the day must win;
To doubt it is disloyalty;
To falter is to sin.

Frederick W. Faber, 1849

610 As the Hart panteth after the Water-brooks.

- 1 AS PANTS the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
And thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O, when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty divine?
- 3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, and he'll employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.
- 4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still, and thou shalt sing
The praise of Him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal Spring.

2 Oh, watch and fight and pray!

The battle ne'er give o'er;

Renew it boldly every day,

And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,

Nor once at ease sit down;

Thy arduous work will not be done

Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death

Shall bring thee to thy God:

He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,

Up to his blest abode.

George Heath, 1781.

612 Not as one that beateth the air.

1 My soul, weigh not thy life

Against thy heavenly crown,

Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife

To beat thy courage down.

2 With prayer and crying strong,

Hold on the fearful fight;

And let the breaking day prolong

The wrestling of the night.

3 The battle soon will yield,

If thou thy part fulfil;

For, strong as is the hostile shield,

Thy sword is stronger still.

4 Thine armor is divine,

Thy feet with victory shod,

And on thy head shall quickly shine

The diadem of God.

L. Swain.

613 Put on the whole Armor of God.

1 SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,

And put your armor on,

Strong in the strength which God supplies

Through his beloved Son.

2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts,

And in his mighty power,

Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,

Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand then in his great might,

With all his strength endued;

But take, to arm you for the fight,

The panoply of God;—

4 That, having all things done,

And all your conflicts past,

Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,

And stand entire at last.

Charles Wesley, 1745.

614 Endure Hardness, as a good Soldier.

1 ARISE, ye saints, arise;

The Lord our Leader is;

The foe before his banner flies,

For victory is his.

2 Lead on, almighty Lord,

Lead on to victory;

Encouraged by the bright reward,

With joy we'll follow thee.

3 We hope to see the day

When all our toils shall cease;

When we shall cast our arms away,

And dwell in endless peace.

4 This hope supports us here;

It makes our burdens light;

'Twill serve our drooping hearts to cheer

Till faith shall end in sight;—

5 Till, of the prize possessed,

We hear of war no more,

And—O sweet thought!—forever rest

On yonder peaceful shore.

Let us not Sleep.

2 Up, and take thy shield and sword;
Up, it is the call of Heaven;
Shrink not, faithless, from thy Lord;
Nobly strive as he hath striven.

3 Break through all the force of ill,
Tread the might of passion down,
Struggle onward, upward still,
To the conquering Saviour's crown.

4 Through the midst of toil and pain,
Let this thought ne'er leave thy breast:
Every triumph thou dost gain
Makes more sweet thy coming rest.

William Gaskell.

2 We are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest;
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Lift your eyes, ye sons of light;
Zion's city is in sight;
There our endless home shall be,
There our Lord we soon shall see.

5 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee!

John Cennick, 1742.

The Christian Warfare.

1 BRETHERN, while we sojourn here,
Fight we must, but should not fear;
Foes we have, but we've a friend,
One who loves us, to the end;

2 Forward then with courage go,
Long we shall not dwell below;
Soon the joyful news will come,
Child, your Father calls—come home.

3 In the world a thousand snares
Lay to take us unawares;
Satan with malicious art,
Watches each unguarded heart;

4 But from Satan's malice free,
Saints shall soon victorious be;
Soon the joyful news will come,
Child, your Father calls—come home.

J. Swain.

618

That they go forward.

1 OFT in sorrow, oft in woe,
Onward, Christian, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the bread of life.

2 Onward, Christian, onward go;
Join the war, and face the foe:
Will you flee in danger's hour?
Know you not your Captain's power?

3 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
March, in heavenly armor clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long;
Soon shall victory tune your song.

4 Onward, then, to battle move;
More than conqueror you shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldier, onward go.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
 Work, in the sunny noon;
 Fill brightest hours with labor,
 Rest comes sure and soon.
 Give every flying minute
 Something to keep in store:
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
 Under the sunset skies;
 While their bright tints are glowing,
 Work, for the daylight flies.
 Work till the last beam fadeth,
 Fadeth to shine no more;
 Work while the night is dark'ning,
 When man's work is o'er.

2 Where the cross, God's love revealing,
 Sets the fettered spirit free,
 Where it sheds its wondrous healing,

 But, each precious hour redeeming,

Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.—CHO.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;

Gates of hell can never

We have Christ's own promise,

Success from God.

1 VAINLY through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;—
Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.

2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given,
Who in humble faith applies.

4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed;
He shall grant us peace and rest:
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
Who to Christ his prayer addressed.

SAMUEL WEBBE,

1. I'm not ashamed to own my Lord, Or to de-fend his cause,

624 Not ashamed of the Gospel.

- 2 Jesus, my Lord, I know his name;
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour
- 4 How long, dear Saviour, O. how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swiftly round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

625

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.
- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye;
- 4 That prize, with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new lustre boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
Shall blend in common dust.

Phillip Doddridge, 1755.

626 The Christian Soldier.

- 1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies,
On flow'ry beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 4 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of vict'ry through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.
- 627 He, being dead, yet speaketh.
- 1 RISE, O my soul, pursue the path
By ancient worthies trod;
Aspiring, view those worthy men
Who lived and walked with God.
- 2 'Twas thro' the Lambs most precious blood
They conquered every foe,
And to his power and matchless grace
Their crown of life they owe.
- 3 Lord, may I ever keep in view
The patterns thou hast given,
And ne'er forsake the blessed road
That led them safe to heaven.

1. Go forward, Christian soldier, Be - neath his banner true: } His love foretells thy tri - als,
The Lord himself, thy Leader, Shall all thy foes sub - due, }

He knows thine hourly need; He can, with bread of heaven, Thy faint-ing spir - it feed.

628 Go forward, Christian Soldier.

2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished
And heaven is all possest;
Till God himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear, in endless glory,
The crown of victory.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the gathering night:
The Lord hath been thy shelter,
The Lord will be thy light.
When morn his face revealeth,
Thy dangers all are past;
Oh, pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last!

Laurence Tuttielt, 1854.

629 Having done all, to stand.

1 STAND up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner;
It must not suffer loss;
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus;
The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle:
The next, the victor's song:

To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

Duffield.

630 Captain of our Salvation.

1 Oh, when shall I see Jesus,
And reign with him above;
And from that flowing fountain
Drink everlasting love?
When shall I be delivered
From this vain world of sin,
And with my blessed Jesus
Drink endless pleasures in?

2 But now I am a soldier,
My Captain's gone before;
He's given me my orders,
And bid me not give o'er.
If I continue faithful,
A righteous crown he'll give,
And all his valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.

3 Thro' grace I am determined
To conquer though I die,
And then away to Jesus
On wings of love I'll fly.
Farewell to sin and sorrow,
I bid you all adieu;
And oh, my friends, prove faithful,
And on your way pursue.

Cold, heat, and moist, and dry,

For garner in the sky.

The angel-reapers shall descend,
And shout the harvest home.

2 The Shepherd sought his sheep,
The Father sought his child;
He followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild;
He found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone;
He bound me with the bands of love;
He saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is,
'Twas he that loved my soul.
'Twas he that washed me in his blood,
'Twas he that made me whole:

'Twas he that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep,
'Twas he that brought me to the fold—
'Twas he that still doth keep.

4 No more a wandering sheep,
I love to be controlled,
I love my tender Shepherd's voice,
I love the peaceful fold:
No more a wayward child,
I seek no more to roam,
I love my heavenly Father's voice—
I love, I love his home.

The End of Trials.

1 Know, my soul, thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin and fear and care;
Joy to find, in every station,
Something still to do or bear.
Think what spirit dwells within thee;
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think what Jesus did to win thee,
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?
2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Arm'd with faith and wing'd with prayer;
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.

635

Strength in Temptation.

1 HOLY Father, thou hast taught me
I should live to thee alone;
Year by year, thy hand hath brought me
On through dangers oft unknown.
When I wandered, thou hast found me;
When I doubted, sent me light;
Still thine arm has been around me.
And my paths were in thy sight.
2 I would trust in thy protecting,
Wholly rest upon thine arm,
Follow wholly thy directing,
Thou mine only guard from harm:
Keep me from mine own undoing,
Help me turn to thee when tried;
Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at thy side.

2 In thine all-gracious providence
Our cheerful hopes confide;
Oh, let thy power be our defense,
Thy love our footsteps guide!

3 And since, by passion's force subdued,
Too oft, with stubborn will,
We blindly shun the latent good,
And grasp the specious ill,—

4 Not what we wish, but what we want;
Let mercy still supply:
The good unasked, O Father, grant;
The ill, though asked, deny.

James Merrick.

637 Mine Arm also shall strengthen him.

1 We praise and bless thee, gracious Lord,
Our Saviour kind and true,
For all the old things passed away,
For all thou hast made new.

2 But yet how much must be destroyed,
How much renewed must be,
Ere we can fully stand complete
In likeness, Lord, to thee!

3 So shall we faultless stand at last
Before thy Father's throne;
The blessedness forever ours,
The glory all thine own.

Anon.

638 Have Mercy on me.

1 O thou whose tender mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh,
Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
From sorrow's weeping eye,—

2 See, Lord, before thy throne of grace,
A wretched wanderer mourn;
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said, Return?

3 Absent from thee, my Guide, my Light,
Without one cheering ray,
Through dangers, fears, and gloomy night,
How desolate my way!

4 O, shine on this benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine;
And let thy healing voice impart
A taste of joy divine.

Anne Steele.

639 Inconstancy lamented.

1 Long have I sat beneath the sound
Of thy salvation, Lord;
Yet still how weak my faith is found,
And knowledge of thy word!

2 Great God, thy sovereign power impart
To give thy word success;
Write thy salvation in my heart,
And make me learn thy grace.

3 Show my forgetful feet the way
That leads to joys on high,
Where knowledge grows without decay,
And love shall never die.

Isaac Watts.

640 Man's Need of God's Help.

1 WEAK and irresolute is man:
The purpose of to-day,
Woven with pains into his plan,
To-morrow reuds away.

2 Bound on a voyage of fearful length,
Through dangers little known,
A stranger to superior strength,
Man vainly trusts his own.

3 But oars alone can ne'er prevail
To reach the distant coast:
The breath of heaven must swell the sail,
Or all the toil is lost.

William Cowper.

2 Swift to its close, ebbs out life's little day;

Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away:
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou, who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?

Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Thro' cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness,
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

5 Hold thou thy Cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;

Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

643 I will go unto my Father.

2 Those arms were round our childish ways,
A guard through helpless years to be;
Oh, leave not our maturer days.
We still are helpless without thee!

3 We trusted hope and pride and strength:
Our strength proved false, our pride was
Our dreams have faded all at length,— [vain,
We come to thee, O Lord, again!

4 A guide to trembling steps yet be,
Give us of thine eternal powers!
So shall our paths all lead to thee,
And life smile on like childhood's hours.

T. W. Higginson, 1847.

644 Imploring the Divine Presence.

1 WHEN Israel, of the Lord beloved,
Out from the land of bondage came,
Her fathers' God before her moved,
An awful guide, in smoke and flame.

2 By day, along the astonished lands;
The cloudy pillar glided slow;
By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
Returned the fiery column's glow.

3 Thus present still, though now unseen,
When brightly shines the prosperous day,
Be thoughts of thee a cloudy screen,
To temper the deceitful ray.

4 And oh! when gathers on our path,
In shade and storm, the frequent night,
Be thou, long-suffering, slow to wrath,
A burning and a shining light.

Sir Walter Scott, 1820.

645 Where is the Blessedness ye spake of?

1 O, WHERE is now that glowing love
That marked our union with the Lord?
Our hearts were fixed on things above,
Nor could the world a joy afford.

2 Where is the zeal that led us then
To make our Saviour's glory known?
That freed us from the fear of men,
And kept our eye on him alone?

3 Where are the happy seasons spent
In fellowship with him we loved?
The sacred joy, the sweet content,
The blessedness that then we proved?

4 Behold, again we turn to thee;
O, cast us not away, though vile;
No peace we have, no joy we see,
O Lord, our God, but in thy smile.

Thomas L. Kelly, 1866.

646 He knoweth how to deliver the Godly.

1 My God, my hope, my Father thou;
To thee, lo, now my soul I bow;
Be thou my strength, be thou my way;
Protect me through my life's short day.

2 In fierce temptation's darkest hour,
Save me from sin and Satan's power;
Tear every idol from thy throne,
And reign, my Father, reign alone.

3 My suffering time shall soon be o'er;
Then shall I sigh and weep no more;
My ransomed soul shall soar away,
To sing thy praise in endless day.

652

Affliction worketh Glory.

- 1 In trouble and in grief, O God,
Thy smile hath cheered my way;
And joy hath budded from each thorn
That round my footsteps lay.
- 2 The hours of pain have yielded good
Which prosperous days refused;
As herbs, though scentless when entire,
Spread fragrance when they're bruised.
- 3 The oak strikes deeper as its boughs
By furious blasts are driven;
So life's tempestuous storms the more
Have fixed my heart in heaven.
- 4 All-gracious Lord, whate'er my lot
In other times may be,
I'll welcome still the heaviest grief
That brings me near to thee.

Anon.

653

Himself hath suffered.

- 1 CHRIST leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
No one into his kingdom comes
But through his opened door.
- 2 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessed face to see;
For, if thy work on earth be sweet,
What must thy glory be?
- 3 Then I shall end my sad complaints;
And weary, sinful days;
And join with those triumphant saints
That sing Jehovah's praise.
- 4 My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim:
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

Richard Baxter, 1681.

654

My Times are in Thy Hand.

- 1 My times of sorrow and of joy,
Great God, are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
And go at thy command.
- 2 If thou shouldst take them all away,
Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.
- 3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word
Though all the world were gone,
But seek enduring happiness
In thee, and thee alone.

655 My Grace is sufficient for Thee.

2 Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
How canst thou want if he provide,
Or lose thy way with such a Guide?

3 Did ever trouble yet befall,
And he refuse to hear thy call?
And has he not his promise passed,
That thou shalt overcome at last?

4 He who has helped me hitherto
Will help me all my journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise
New trophies to his endless praise.

John Newton.

2 Thy mercy bids all nature bloom;
The sun shines bright, and man is gay;
Thine equal mercy spreads the gloom
That darkens o'er his little day.

3 Full many a throb of grief and pain
Thy frail and erring child must know;
But not one prayer is breathed in vain,
Nor does one tear unheeded flow.

4 Thy various messengers employ;
Thy purposes of love fulfil;
And 'mid the wreck of human joy,
Let kneeling faith adore thy will.

Andrews Norton.

656 Light beyond the Cloud.

1 Thy will be done: I will not fear
The fate provided by thy love;
Tho' clouds and darkness shroud me here,
I know that all is bright above.

2 Father, forgive the heart that clings,
Thus trembling, to the things of time;
And bid my soul, on angel wings,
Ascend into a purer clime.

3 E'en now, above, there's radiant day,
While clouds and darkness brood below;
Then, Father, joyful on my way
To drink the bitter cup I go.

Jane Roscoe.

658

1 I CANNOT always trace the way
Where thou, Almighty One, dost move;
But I can always, always say,
That God is love, that God is love.

2 When fear her chilling mantle throws
O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
As to her native home, upsprings,
For God is love, for God is love.

3 When mystery clouds my darkened path,
I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove,
In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love, that God is love.

4 Yes, God is love;—a thought like this
Can every gloomy thought remove,
And turn all tears, all woes, to bliss,
For God is love, for God is love.

Anon.

657 Resignation.

1 My God, I thank thee; may no thought
E'er deem thy chastisement severe;
But may this heart, by sorrow taught,
Calm each wild wish, each idle fear.

Thy Will be Done.

- 2 Though cast down, we're not forsaken;
Though afflicted, not alone;
Thou didst give, and thou hast taken;
Blessed Lord,—thy will be done.
- 3 Tho' to-day we're filled with mourning,
Mercy still is on the throne;

With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing—thy will be done.

- 4 By thy hands the boon was given,
Thou hast taken but thine own:
Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Evermore,—thy will be done.

Rest in God.

- 2 How to him should evil come
Who has found in thee a home?
In the refuge of thy breast,
Give me, Lord, eternal rest!
- 3 Hark! the voice of love divine:
"Fear not, trembler,—thou art mine!
Fear not! I am at thy side,
Strong to suffer, sure to guide.
- 4 "Call on me in want and woe:
I will keep thee here below;
And, thy day of conflict past,
Bear thee to myself at last."

Henry F. Lyte, 1834.

661

It is God that worketh with You.

- 1 HUMAN soul, to whom is given
Holy hungerings after heaven,
Faithful to the end endure,
Make thy heavenly calling sure.
- 2 God, to keep thee safe from harms,
Spreads his everlasting arms,
Feeds with secret strength divine,
Waits to whisper "Thou art mine."
- 3 Gently will he tend the weak;
Bruiséd reeds he ne'er will break;
He will bless thee with his peace,
Fill with all his righteousness.

662 Joy and Peace in Believing.

- 2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
"Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may!
- 3 "It can bring with it nothing
But he will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe his people too;
And God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice:
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice."

664 Behold, what Manner of Love.

- 2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.
- 3 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,

Send down thy Spirit, like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

- 4 We would no longer lie,
Like slaves, beneath the throne;
My faith shall Abba, Father, cry,
And thou the kindred own.

1. Fa-ther, be-neath thy shel-ter-ing wing, In sweet se-cu-ri-ty we rest,
And fear no e-vil earth can bring; In life, in death, su-preme-ly blest.

665 Under his Wings shalt thou trust.

2 For life is good, whose tidal flow
The motions of thy will obeys;
And death is good, that makes us know
The life divine which all things sways.

3 And good it is to bear the cross,
And so thy perfect peace to win;
And naught is ill, nor brings us loss,
Nor works us harm, save only sin.

4 Redeemed from that we ask no more,
But trust the love that saves to guide:
The grace that yields so rich a store
Will grant us all we need beside.

William H. Burleigh.

666 Pardoned Sin.

1 SWEET peace of conscience, heavenly guest,
Come, fix thy mansion in my breast;
Dispel my doubts, my fears control,
And heal the anguish of my soul.

2 Come, smiling hope, and joy sincere,
Come, make your constant dwelling here;
Still let your presence cheer my heart,
Nor sin compel you to depart.

3 O God of hope and peace divine!
Make thou these secret pleasures mine;
Forgive my sins, my fears remove,
And fill my heart with joy and love.

Ottiwell Heginbotham.

667 Lift up your Heads, ye Gates.

1 OH, blest the souls, for ever blest,
Where God as Ruler is confessed!
O happy hearts and happy homes,
To whom the King of Glory comes!

2 Fling wide thy portals, O my heart!
Be thou a temple set apart,
So shall thy Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin.

3 Deliverer, come! we open wide
Our hearts to thee; here, Lord, abide!
Let all thy glorious presence feel;
O King of souls, thyself reveal!

From the German.

668 An Independent and Happy Life.

1 How HAPPY is he born or taught,
Who serveth not another's will;
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his highest skill.

2 Whose passions not his masters are;
Whose soul is still prepared for death
Not tied unto the world with care
Of prince's ear or vulgar breath;

3 Who God doth late and early pray
More of his grace than goods to lend
And walks with man, from day to day,
As with a brother and a friend.

4 This man is freed from servile bands
Of hope to rise, or fear to fall;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, yet hath all.

669 All my Springs are in Thee.

- 2 In darkest shades, if thou appear,
My dawning is begun;
Thou art my soul's bright morning star,
And thou my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his love is mine,
And whispers I am his.
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way,
To embrace my dearest Lord.

Isaac Watts.

670 Sweet Prospects.

- 1 WHEN languor and disease invade
This trembling house of clay,
'Tis sweet to look beyond my pain,
And long to fly away;—
- 2 Sweet to look inward, and attend
The whispers of his love;
Sweet to look upward to the place
Where Jesus pleads above;—
- 3 Sweet, in the confidence of faith,
To trust his firm decrees;
Sweet to lie passive in his hands,
And know no will but his.
- 4 Sweet to rejoice in lively hope,
That, when my change shall come,
Angels will hover round my bed,
And waft my spirit home.

Augustus M. Toplady.

671 The Inner Calm.

- 1 CALM me, my God! and keep me calm,
Soft resting on thy breast;
Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,
And bid my spirit rest.
- 2 Yes, keep me calm, though loud and
The sounds my ear that greet, [rude
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street,—
- 3 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like him who bore my shame;
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng
Who hate thy holy name.
- 4 Calm as the ray of sun or star,
Which storms assail in vain;
Moving unruffled through earth's war,
The eternal calm to gain.

Horatius Bonnet.

672 Peace as a River.

- 1 GIVE me a heart of calm repose
Amid the world's loud roar,
A life that like a river flows,
Along a peaceful shore.
- 2 Come, Holy Spirit, hush my heart
With gentleness divine;
Indwelling peace thou canst impart;
O, make the blessing mine.
- 3 Come, Holy Spirit, breathe that peace
Which flows from pardoned sin;
Then shall my soul her conflict cease,
And find a heaven within.

Consolation.

- 2 When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
Is dimmed and vanished too,—
- 3 O, who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom
Our peace-branch from above?
- 4 Then sorrow, touched by thee, grows
With more than rapture's ray; [bright,
The darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

Moore.

674

Thou shalt hide them in Thy Presence.

- 1 Thy gracious presence, O my God,
All that I wish contains;
With this, beneath affliction's load,
My heart no more complains.
- 2 O, happy scenes above the sky,
Where thy full beams impart
Unclouded beauty to the eye,
And rapture to the heart.
- 3 Lord, shall the breathings of my heart
Aspire in vain to thee?
Confirm my hope that where thou art
I shall forever be.
- 4 Then shall my cheerful spirits sing
The darksome hours away,
And rise on faith's expanded wing
To everlasting day.

675

A Father of the Fatherless.

- 1 WHERE shall the child of sorrow find
A place for calm repose?
Thou, Father of the fatherless,
Pity the orphan's woes.
- 2 What friend have I in heaven or earth
What friend to trust, but thee?
My father and my mother gone,
O Lord, remember me.
- 3 Thy gracious promise now fulfil,
And bid my trouble cease;
In thee the fatherless shall find
Pure mercy, grace, and peace.
- 4 I've not a secret care or pain
But God that secret knows;
Thou, Father of the fatherless,
Pity the orphan's woes.

Anon.

676

Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.

- 1 O THOU whose mercy guides my way,
Though now it seem severe,
Forbid my unbelief to say,
There is no mercy here.
- 2 O, may I, Lord, desire the pain
That comes in kindness down,
Far more than sweetest earthly gain,
Succeeded by a frown.
- 3 Then, though thou bend my spirit low,
Love only shall I see;
The gracious hand that strikes the blow
Was wounded once for me.

677 He shall sit as a Refiner of Silver.

- 2 If thou the furnace dost employ,
Thou sittest as refiner near,
To purge away the base alloy,
Till thine own image bright appear.
- 3 Though oft thy way is in the sea,
Thy footsteps in the winged storm,
Though erected billows threaten me,
Love slumbers in their frowning form.
- 4 Submissive would I kiss the rod;
Needful each stroke, I humbly own;
Help me to trust thee, O my Lord,
If now thy wisdom be unknown.

Anon.

678 Joy cometh in the Morning.

- 1 O, DEEM not they are blest alone
Who lives a peaceful tenor keep;
For God, who pities man, has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.
- 2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.
- 3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.
- 4 For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear;
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

Bryant.

679 Prayer for Help at all times.

- 1 IS THERE a lone and dreary hour,
When worldly pleasures lose their power?
My Father, let me turn to thee,
And set each thought of darkness free.
- 2 Is there an hour of peace and joy,
When hope is all my soul's employ?
My Father, still my hopes will roam,
Until they rest with thee, their home.
- 3 The noontide blaze, the midnight scene,
The dawn of twilight's sweet serene,
The glow of health, the dying hour,
Shall own my Father's grace and power.

Mrs. Gilman.

680 Hymn of Trust.

- 1 O LOVE divine, that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee we cast each earth-born care;
We smile at pain while thou art near.
- 2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, Thou art near.
- 3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, Thou art near.
- 4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O love divine, forever dear,
Content to suffer, while we know,
Living and dying, thou art near.

681 The Godly Man blessed.

- 2 But in the statutes of the Lord
Has placed his chief delight;
By day he reads or hears the word,
And meditates by night.
- 3 He, like a plant of generous kind,
By living waters set,
Safe from the storm and blasting wind,
Enjoys a peaceful state.
- 4 Sinners, in judgment, shall not stand
Among the sons of grace,
When Christ, the Judge, at his right hand,
Appoints his saints a place.

Isaac Watts.

682 Peace as a River.

- 1 WE bless thee for thy peace, O God,
Deep as the soundless sea,
Which falls like sunshine on the road
Of those who trust in thee.
- 2 We ask not, Father, for repose
Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have, through all life's woes,
Thy peace within our breast.
- 3 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with thee;—
- 4 That peace which flows serene and deep,—
A river in the soul,
Whose banks a living verdure keep,
God's sunshine o'er the whole;—
- 5 Such, Father, give our hearts such peace,
Whate'er the outward be,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to thee.

Anon.

683 We are Saved by Hope.

- 1 THE world may change from old to new,
From new to old again;
Yet hope and heaven forever true,
Within man's heart remain.
- 2 Hope leads the child to plant the flower,
The man to sow the seed,
Nor leaves fulfilment to her hour,
But prompts again to deed.
- 3 And ere upon the old man's dust
The grass is seen to wave,
We look through falling tears, to trust
Hope's sunshine on the grave.
- 4 O, no! it is no flattering lure,
No fancy weak or fond,
When hope would bid us rest secure,
In better life beyond.

Mrs. Sarah Flower Adams.

684 The secret Place of the Most High.

- 1 THERE is a safe and secret place
Beneath the wings divine,
Reserved for all the heirs of grace;
O, be that refuge mine.
- 2 The least and feeblest there may bide
Uninjured and unawed;
While thousands fall on every side,
He rests secure in God.
- 3 He feeds in pastures large and fair
Of love and truth divine;
O child of God, O glory's heir,
How rich a lot is thine.
- 4 A hand almighty to defend,
An ear for every call,
An honored life, a peaceful end,
And heaven to crown it all!

3 Jesus, thou Friend divine,

691 How beautiful upon the Mountains.

1 How BEAUTEous are their feet
 Who stand on Zion's hill!
 Who bring salvation on their tongues,
 And words of peace reveal!

How charming is their voice!
 How sweet the tidings are!—
 "Zion, behold thy Saviour King;
 He reigns and triumphs here."

2 How happy are our ears,
 That hear this joyful sound,
 Which kings and prophets waited for,
 And sought, but never found!
 How blessed are our eyes,
 That see this heavenly light!
 Prophets and kings desired it long,
 But died without the sight.

3 The watchmen join their voice,
 And tuneful notes employ;
 Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
 And deserts learn the joy.

 Through all the earth abroad;

3 And when our labors all are o'er,
Then we shall meet to part no more,—
Meet, with the ransomed throng to fall,
And crown the Saviour Lord of all.

Mrs. Voke, 1816.

698 Go into all the World and preach.

1 GO, PREACH my gospel, saith the Lord;
Bid the whole earth my grace receive;
They shall be saved who trust my word,
And they condemned who disbelieve.

2 I'll make your great commission known,
And ye shall prove my gospel true
By all the works that I have done,
By all the wonders ye shall do.

3 Teach all the nations my commands;
I'm with you till the world shall end;
All power is trusted in my hands;
I can destroy, and I defend.

4 He spoke, and light shone round his head;
On a bright cloud to heaven he rode;
They to the farthest nations spread
The grace of their ascended Lord.

Isaac Watts.

699 Receive him in the Lord with Gladness.

1 WE bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head;
Come as a servant: so he came,
And we receive thee in his stead.

2 Come as a watchman: take thy stand
Upon the tower amid the sky,
And when the sword comes on the land,
Call us to fight, or warn to fly.

3 Come as a teacher, sent from God,
Charged his whole counsel to declare;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

4 Come as a messenger of peace,
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love;
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

James Montgomery.

700 The same commit thou to Faithful Men.

1 O THOU who art above all light,
Our God, our Father, and our Friend
Beneath thy throne of love and light,
Let thy adoring children bend.

2 We kneel in praise, that here is set
A vine that by thy culture grew;
We kneel in prayer that thou wouldst wet
Its opening leaves with heavenly dew.

3 Since thy young servant now hath given
Himself, his powers, his hopes, his youth
To the great cause of truth and heaven,
Be thou his Guide, O God of truth.

4 And when he sinks in death, by care,
Or pain, or toil, or years oppressed,
O God, remember then our prayer,
And take his spirit to thy rest.

701 They watch for your Souls.

- 2 'Tis not a cause of small import
The pastor's care demands,
But what might fill an angel's heart,
And filled a Saviour's hands.
- 3 They watch for souls, for which the Lord
Did heavenly bliss forego;
For souls which must forever live
In rapture or in woe.
- 4 May they that Jesus whom they preach
Their own Redeemer see:
Lord, watch thou daily o'er their souls
That they may watch for thee.

Philip Doddridge.

702 Ordination.

- 1 O FATHER of the living Christ,
Fount of the living Word,
Pour on the shepherd and the flock
The Spirit of the Lord!
- 2 Amid this mingled mystery
Of good and ill at strife,
Help them, O God, in him to find
The Way, the Truth, the Life.
- 3 This way together may they tread,
That truth with joy receive,
That life of heaven, on earth begun,
Through cloud and sunshine live.
- 4 One may they be in faith and hope,
As one in works of love,
Till all be one in Christ and thee
In the Great Church above.

William Newell.

703 Dedication.

- 1 O THOU, whose own vast temple stands
Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
Have raised to worship thee.
- 2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send,
Within these courts to bide,
The peace that dwelleth, without end,
Serenely by thy side.
- 3 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
And pure devotion rise,
While round these hallowed walls the storm
Of earth-born passion dies.

William Cullen Bryant.

704 Removal of the Ark.

- 1 ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
And enter to thy rest;
Behold, thy church, with longing eyes,
Waits to be owned and blest.
- 2 Enter, with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy word;
All that the ark did once contain,
Could no such grace afford.
- 3 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.
- 4 Here let him hold a lasting throne;
And as his kingdom grows,
Fresh honors shall adorn his crown,
And shame confound his foes.

Dedication.

- 2 Here let thy holy days be kept;
And be this place to worship given,
Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
The house of God, the gate of heaven.
- 3 Here be thy praise devoutly sung;
Here let thy truth beam forth to save;
As when, of old, thy Spirit hinged
On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.
- 4 And when the lips, that with thy name
Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
On others may devotion's flame
Be kindled here, and purely burn.

706

Dedication.

- 1 LORD, in thy presence we appear,
With willing hands and hearts sincere,
To consecrate beneath the skies,
An altar for thy sacrifice.
- 2 The universe is thine, O God,
Eternity thy vast abode;
Then what is man that he should be
The builder of a house for thee.
- 3 But though thy "temple is all space,
The heaven of heavens thy dwelling-place,
Yet wilt thou deign, Almighty God,
To make this building thine abode.
- 4 Here, where thy waiting children meet
Fix thou, O Lord, thy mercy-seat;
And in this temple we have raised,
O let thy gracious name be praised.

Rev. P. Roberts.

707

Invocation.

- 1 Unto thy temple, Lord, we come
With thankful hearts to worship thee;
And pray that this may be our home
Until we touch eternity:—
- 2 The common home of rich and poor,
Of bond and free, and great and small;
Large as thy love for evermore,
And warm and bright and good to all.
- 3 May thy whole truth be spoken here;
Thy gospel light for ever shine;
Thy perfect love cast out all fear,
And human life become divine.

Robert Collyer, 1873.

708

- 1 THOU God of grace and love untold,
We to thy presence now draw nigh;
While angels, at thy throne, behold
Thee in thy majesty on high.
- 2 Within this house let peace abound,
And heavenly love each heart inspire;
Here may thy word in grateful sound
Beget in all a holy fire.
- 3 And may thy servants who proclaim
The wonders of the Christ, our Lord,
Be men of heart and soul and aim,
To lead each listener up to God.
- 4 May sinners here thy mercy know,
And saints thy love and peace unfold;
Upon all hearts that joy bestow
More priceless than the wealth of gold.

Rev. L. F. Clayton.

709 The Great King.

2 Here may thine ears attend
Our interceding cries,
And grateful praise ascend,
All fragrant, to the skies:
Here may the world melodious sound,
And spread celestial joys around.

3 Here may the listening throng
Imbibe thy truth and love;
Here Christians join the song
Of seraphim above;
Till all who humbly seek thy face,
Rejoice in thine abounding grace.

3 O thou truest Friend, unite
All thy consecrated band,

Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns—
Turns, a fugitive unblest:
Brethren, where your altar burns,

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;

Where you die shall be my grave.

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more;
Every idol I resign.

713 Used when Receiving New Members.

1 MAY those who have thy name confessed
 Now find in God eternal rest;
 From day to day still more increase
 In faith, and love, and holiness.

2 As living members, may they share
 The joys and griefs that others bear,
 And active in their stations prove,
 In all the offices of love.

3 From all temptations now defend,
 And keep them, Lord, unto the end,
 While in thy house they still improve,
 Till called to join the church above.

714 Admission of Members.

1 BELIEVING souls, of Christ beloved,
 Who have yourselves to him resigned,
 Your faith and practice both approved,
 A hearty welcome here shall find.

2 Now saved from sin and Satan's wiles,
 Though by a scorning world abhorred,
 Now share with us the Saviour's smiles,
 Come in, ye ransomed of the Lord.

3 In fellowship we join our hands,
 And you an invitation give;
 Unite with us in sacred bands;
 The pledges of our love receive.

4 Do thou, who art the church's Head,
 This union with thy blessing crown:
 And still, O Lord, revive the dead,
 Till thousands more thy name shall own.

1 WITNESS, ye men and angels, now;
Before the Lord we speak;
To him we make our solemn vow,
A vow we dare not break:—

2 That, long as life itself shall last,
Ourselves to Christ we yield;
Nor from his cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.

3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on his grace rely,
That, with returning wants, the Lord
Will all our need supply.

And keep we in thy ways,
And, while we turn our vows to prayers,
Turn thou our prayers to praise.

718 The Little Flock.

1 CHURCH of the Ever-living God,
The Father's gracious choice!
Amid the voices of this earth
How feeble is thy voice.

2 A "little flock!"—'tis well, 'tis well;
Such be her lot and name;
Through ages past it has been so,
And now 'tis still the same.

3 But the chief Shepherd comes at length,
Her feeble days are o'er,
No more a handful in the earth,
A "little flock" no more.

4 No more a lily among thorns,
Weary and faint and few;
But countless as the stars of heaven,
Or as the early dew.

Horatius Bonar.

1 If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie;
If tender thoughts within us burn,
To feel a friend is nigh;—

2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell

Who bore our guilt and woe!

3 While yet in anguish he surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed,—
"Meet and remember me!"

3 Death may our souls divide

Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember thee.
- 3 Remember thee, and all thy pains,

Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,

And mind and memory flee,
When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,

Baptism of Jesus.

- 1 "I come," the great Redeemer cries,
"To do thy will, O Lord!"
At Jordan's flood, behold! he seals
The sure prophetic word.
- 2 "Thus it becomes us to fulfil
All righteousness," he said;
He spake obedient, and beneath
The yielding wave was laid.
- 3 Hark! a glad voice; the Father speaks,
From heaven's exalted height;
"This is my Son, my well-beloved!
My joy, my chief delight."
- 4 Jesus, the Saviour, well-beloved!
His name we will profess,
Like him, desirous to fulfil
Each law of righteousness.

- 5 No more we'll count ourselves our own,
But his in bonds of love;
O may such bonds forever draw
Our souls to things above.

Fulfil all Righteousness.

- 1 BURIED beneath the yielding wave
The great Redeemer lies;
Faith views him in the watery grave,
And thence beholds him rise.
- 2 Thus do his willing saints, to-day,
Their ardent zeal express,
And, in the Lord's appointed way,
Fulfil all righteousness.
- 3 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain,—
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.

Benjamin Beddome, 1818.

729 The Lord's Table.

1 LORD, at thy table I behold
The wonders of thy grace,
But most of all admire that I

2 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That such a soul has room!
My Saviour takes me by the hand,
And bids me freely come.

2 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven,

But one communion make;

All of his grace partake.

2 One family, we dwell in him;
One church above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

3 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

4 O God, be thou our constant Guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

736 A Communion Hymn.

- 1 O FOR a prophet's fire,
O for an angel's tongue,
To speak the mighty love of Him
Who on the cross was hung!
2 These symbols of his death,

We haste to catch the teeming shower,

Till all proclaim thee Lord.

When all thy sparkling gems shall shine,

 Remove and pass away.
 Like shadows of the morning
 Before the blaze of day.
 Let all that now unites us
 More sweet and lasting prove,
 A closer bond of union,
 In a blest land of love.

Jane Borthwick, 1863.

Proclaim the contest ended,
 And him who once was slain,
 Again to earth descended,
 In righteousness to reign?

Universal Hallelujah.

1 WHEN shall the voice of singing
 Flow joyfully along?
 When hill and valley, ringing
 With one triumphant song,

2 Then from the craggy mountains
 The sacred shout shall fly;
 And shady vales and fountains
 Shall echo the reply:
 High tower and lowly dwelling
 Shall send the chorus round,
 All hallelujah swelling
 In one eternal sound.

J. Edmeston, 1824.

1. Triumph-ant Zi-on, lift thy head From dust, and darkness, and, the dead; Tho' humbled long, a-wake at length, And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength, And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.

749 Awake! put on thy Strength, O Zion.

2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
And let thy various charms be known:
Then, decked in robes of righteousness,
The world thy glories shall confess.

3 God, from on high, thy groans will hear;
His hand thy ruins shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

Philip Doddridge.

There shall thy saints thy glory see,
And there perform their public vows.

2 O thou whose mercy bends the skies
To save when humble sinners pray,
All lands to thee shall lift their eyes,
And grateful isles of every sea.

3 Soon shall the flocking nations run
To Zion's hill and own their Lord;
The rising and the setting sun
Shall see the Saviour's name adored.

2 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy Friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end;
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely send.

3 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
All thy warfare now is past:
God thy saviour will defend thee;
Victory is thine at last;
All thy conflicts
End in everlasting rest.

Thomas Kelly.

752 The Dayspring from on High.

1 CHRISTIAN, see! the orient morning
Breaks along the heathen sky;
Lo, the expected day is dawning—
Glorious Dayspring from on high;
Hallelujah!
Hail the Dayspring from on high!

2 Lord of every tribe and nation,
Spread thy truth from pole to pole;
Spread the light of thy salvation
Till it shine on every soul;
Hallelujah!
Hail the Dayspring from on high!

Thy Kingdom Come.

2 Thy kingdom come, with power and grace,
To every heart of man;
Thy peace and joy and righteousness,
In all our bosoms reign,—

3 The righteousness that never ends,
But makes an end of sin;
The joy that human thought transcends,
Into our souls bring in;

4 The kingdom of established peace,
Which can no more remove;
The perfect powers of godliness,
The omnipotence of love.

And let the bright, the perfect day
Speed onward to its goal.

2 Let every hateful passion die,
Which makes of brethren foes;
And war no longer raise its cry,
To mar the world's repose,

3 Let faith and hope and charity
Go forth through all the earth;
And man, in heavenly bearing, be
True to his heavenly birth.

4 Yea, let thy glorious kingdom come,
Of holiness and love;
And make this world a portal meet
For thy bright courts above.

Let thy love on all be poured;
Let awakened nations sing
Glory to their heavenly King,

Earth shall then her fruits afford,
God to man his blessing give,
Man to God devoted live;
All below, and all above,
One in joy and light and love.

Victory, though you die!

 In selfish ease we lie,

 Help can only come from thee.

 Shun the world's bewitching snare,
 Break the tempter's fatal power;

 And begin, from this good hour,
 To revive thy work afresh.

Hugh Stowell, 1854.

770 Go ye into all the World.

- 1 SOUND, sound the truth abroad:
 Bear ye the word of God
 Through the wide world:
 Tell what our Lord hath done;
 Tell how the day was won,
 And from his lofty throne
 Satan is hurled.

- 2 Far over sea and land—
 'Tis our Lord's own command—
 Bear ye his name:
 Bear it to every shore;
 Regions unknown explore;
 Enter at every door:
 Silence is shame.

771 Thy Kingdom come.

 O'er all earth's broad domains,
 Where sin has left its stains,
 Till naught that's pure remains,

- 2 Let Christians ne'er forget,
 The word of God holds yet
 Its power of old.
 Send forth the gospel light,
 However dark the night,
 There God's own truth and might
 Shall hope unfold.

- 3 Dispel the mists that blind
 The heathen's darkened mind
 In sin and woe.
 Haste the Millennial morn,
 When error's power is shorn,
 And nations yet unborn
 The Christ shall know.

- 4 Then hoary age and youth,
 In spirit and in truth,
 Shall worship thee.
 O speed the blessed day,
 When from sin's blighting sway,
 Forever and for aye,
 Earth shall be free.

MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s & 8s. [IAMBIC]

LOWELL MASON, 1824.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains, From In-dia's cor-al strand, Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down the golden sand,—

From many an ancient riv - er, From many a palmy plain,— They call us to de - liv - er Their land from error's chain.

772 Missionary Hymn.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile;

In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strown:
The heathen in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,—
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O, salvation!

The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
The mighty King and Saviour,
In bliss returns to reign.

Bishop Reginald Heber, 1819.

Accept these hands to labor,
These hearts to trust and love,
And deign with them to hasten
Thy kingdom from above.

2 As laborers in thy vineyard
Send us out, Christ, to be Content to bear the burden
Of weary days for thee.
We ask no other wages
When thou shalt call us home,
But to have shared the travail
Which makes thy kingdom come.

J. S. B. Monsell.

774

1 Oh, that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home!
How long the holy city
Shall heathen feet profane?
Return, O Lord, in pity,
Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror,
Thy saving grace impart;
Roll back the vail of error,
Release the fettered heart;
Let Israel, home returning,
Their lost Messiah see;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy Church to thee.

Give power and unction from above,
Where'er the joyful sound is heard.
- 3 Be darkness, at thy coming, light;
Confusion, order, in thy path;

James Montgome

776 Home Missions.

- 1 Look from thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.
- 2 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.
- 3 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.
- 4 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

William C. Bryant.

777 City Mission.

- 1 Go, MESSENGER of peace and love,
To people plunged in shades of night;
Like angels sent from fields above,
Be thine to shed celestial light.
- 2 Go to the hungry—food impart;
To paths of peace the wanderer guide;
And lead the thirsty, panting heart
Where streams of living waters glide.
- 3 Thy love a rich reward shall find
From him who sits enthroned on high;
For they who turn the erring mind
Shall shine like stars above the sky.

Balfour.

778 Christ's Coming.

- 1 Jesus! thy church, with longing eyes,
For thine expected coming waits;
When will the promised light arise,
And glory beam from Zion's gates?
- 2 Ev'n now, when tempests round us fall,
And wintry clouds o'ereast the sky,
Thy words with pleasure we recall,
And deem that our redemption's nigh.
- 3 Oh, come and reign o'er every land;
Let Satan from his throne be hurled;
All nations bow to thy command,
And grace revive a dying world.
- 4 Teach us, in watchfulness and prayer,
To wait for the appointed hour;
And fit us, by thy grace, to share
The triumphs of thy conquering power.

He Stills the Waves.

2 And though loud the wind is howling,
 Fierce though flash the lightnings red,
 Darkly though the storm-cloud's scowling
 O'er the sailor's anxious head,
 Thou canst calm the raging ocean,
 All its noise and tumult still,
 Hush the tempest's wild commotion,
 At the bidding of thy will.

2 Be his kingdom now promoted;
 Let the earth her Monarch know;
 Be my all to him devoted;
 To my Lord my all I owe.
 Praise the Saviour, all ye nations;
 Praise him, all ye hosts above;
 Shout, with joyful acclamations,
 His divine, victorious love.

Francis.

3 Thus my heart the hope will cherish,
 While to thee I lift mine eye,
 Thou wilt save me ere I perish,
 Thou wilt hear the sailor's cry.
 And though mast and sail be riven,
 Life's short voyage soon be o'er;
 Safely moored in heaven's wide haven,
 Storm and tempest vex no more.

781 Quit you like Men; be strong.

1 WE are living, we are dwelling
 In a grand and awful time,

 Worlds are charging to the shock.

 My Redeemer and my Lord;
 Were ten thousand worlds my manor,
 All were nothing to his word.
 While the heralds of salvation
 His abounding grace proclaim,
 Let his friends, of every station,
 Gladly join to spread his fame.

2 Worlds are charging, heaven beholding;
 Thou hast but an hour to fight;
 Now, the blazoned cross unfolding,
 On! right onward for the right.
 On! let all the soul within you
 For the truth's sake go abroad:
 Strike! let every nerve and sinew
 Tell on ages—tell for God.

2 I know thou wilt not slight my call,
For thou dost mark the sparrow's fall;
And calm and peaceful is my sleep,
Rocked in the cradle of the deep.

3 In ocean caves still safe with thee
The germ of immortality;
And calm and peaceful is my sleep,
Rocked in the cradle of the deep.

Mrs. Willard.

783 Lord, save us; we perish.

1 THE billows swell, the winds are high;
Clouds overcast my wintry sky:
Out of the depths to thee I call;
My fears are great, my strength is small.

2 O Lord, the pilot's part perform,
And guide and guard me through the storm;
Defend me from each threatening ill;
Control the waves; say, Peace, be still.

3 Amid the roaring of the sea,
My soul still hangs her hope on thee;
Though tempest-tossed and half a wreck,
My Saviour through the floods I seek.

Cowper.

784 Look not upon the Wine.

1 SLAVERY and death the cup contains;
Dash to the earth the poisoned bowl;
Softer than silk are iron chains,
Compared with those that chafe the soul.

2 Hosannas, Lord, to thee we sing,
Whose power the giant fiend obeys;
What countless thousands tribute bring
For happier homes and brighter days!

3 Thou wilt not break the bruised reed,
Nor leave the broken heart unbound:
The wife regains a husband freed,
The orphan clasps a father found.

4 Spare, Lord, the thoughtless, guide the
Till man no more shall deem it just [blind,
To live by forging chains to bind
His weaker brother in the dust.

Hymns of the Spirit.

785 Their Sacrifices shall be accepted.

1 WHEN, driven by oppression's rod,
Our fathers fled beyond the sea,
Their care was first to honor God,
And next to leave their children free.

2 Above the forest's gloomy shade
The altar and the school appeared;
On that the gifts of faith were laid,
In this their precious hopes were reared.

3 The altar and the school still stand,
The sacred pillars of our trust,
And Freedom's sons shall fill our land
When we are sleeping in the dust.

4 Before thine altar, Lord, we bend,
With grateful song and fervent prayer,
For thou, who wast our fathers' Friend,
Wilt make our children still thy care.

Arr. by W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Star of peace, to wanderers wea-ry, Bright the beams that smile on me; Cheer the pi - lot's vision dreary, Far, far at sea; Cheer the pi - lot's vision dreary, Far, far at sea.

788 The Guiding Star.

- 2 Star of hope, gleam on the billow;
Bless the soul that sighs for thee;
Bless the sailor's lonely pillow,
Far, far at sea.
- 3 Star of faith, when winds are mocking
All his toil, he flies to thee;

Save him, on the billows rocking,
Far, far at sea.

- 4 Star divine, O, safely guide him;
Bring the wanderer home to thee;
Sore temptations long have tried him,
Far, far at sea.

Jane Cross Simpson.

1. We come, O Lord, be - fore thy throne, And, with u - nit - ed pleas,
We meet and pray for those who roam Far - off up - on the seas.

789 Prayer for Seamen.

2 O, may the Holy Spirit bow
The sailor's heart to thee,
Till tears of deep repentance flow
Like raindrops in the sea.

3 Then may a Saviour's dying love
Pour peace into his breast,
And waft him to the port above
Of everlasting rest.

GOD SPEED THE RIGHT. 8s & 4s.

From the German.
DUET.

1. { Now to heav'n our pray'rs as - cend - ing, God speed the right;
In a no - ble cause con - tend - ing, God speed the right; } Be our zeal in heav'n recorded, With success on earth rewarded, God speed the right, God speed the right.

790

2 Be that prayer again repeated,
God speed the right;
Ne'er despairing, though defeated,
God speed the right;
Like the good and great in story,
If we fail, we fail with glory,
God speed the right.

3 Patient, firm, and persevering,
God speed the right;
Ne'er th' event nor danger fearing,

God speed the right;
Pains, nor toils, nor trials heeding
And in heav'n's own time succeeding.
God speed the right.

4 Still our onward course pursuing,
God speed the right;
Ev'ry foe at length subduing,
God speed the right;
Truth our cause, whate'er delay it,
There's no power on earth can stay it,
God speed the right.

791 The opening of the Prison.

2 So thy mercy's angel, bending,
Heard a friendless prisoner's call,
And through night's cold vault descending,
Loosed from chains thy servant Paul.

Father, as thy love is endless,
Working by thy servants thus,
The forsaken and the friendless
Deign to visit, e'en by us.

1. O Lord of Hosts, al - might - y King, Be - hold the sac - ri - fice we bring;

To ev - ery arm thy strength impart, Thy spir - it shed through ev - ery heart.

792 The Sword of the Lord.

2 Wake in our breasts the living fires,
The holy faith that warmed our sires;
Thy hand hath made our nation free;
To die for her is serving thee.

3 Be thou a pillared flame to show
The midnight snare, the silent foe;
And when the battle thunders loud,
Still guide us in the moving cloud.

4 God of all nations, sovereign Lord,
In thy dread name we draw the sword,
We lift the starry flag on high
That fills with light our stormy sky.

5 From treason's rent, from murder's stain,
Guard thou its folds till peace shall reign—
Till fort and field, till shore and sea,
Join our loud anthem, Praise to thee.

AMERICA, 6s & 4s,

English Hymn.

793 National Hymn.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our father's God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;

Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

S. F. Smith, 1833.

794 Our Native Land.

1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great might!

2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On him we wait:
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the State!

John S. Dwight, 1844.

795 Thou ledest Joseph like a Flock.

1 O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshipped thee.

2 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;

And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

3 And here thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

1. Lord, while for all man-kind we pray, Of ev-ery clime and coast,
Oh! hear us for our na-tive land,— The land we love the most.

796 Prayer for our Country.

- 2 Oh! guard our shore from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.
- 3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth and thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.
- 4 Lord of the nations! thus to thee
Our country we commend;
Be thou her Refuge and her Trust,
Her everlasting Friend.

John Reynell Wreford, 1837.

797 Our Fathers have told us.

- 1 O LORD, our father's oft have told,
In our attentive ears,
Thy wonders in their days performed,
And elder times than theirs.

- 2 For not their courage, nor their sword,
To them salvation gave,
Nor strength that from an equal force
Their fainting troops could save,—
- 3 But thy right hand and powerful arm,
Whose succor they implored;
Thy presence with the chosen race
Who thy great name adored.
- 4 As thee, their God, our fathers owned,
Thou art our sovereign King:
O, therefore, as thou didst to them,
To us deliverance bring.

- 5 To thee the triumph we ascribe,
From whom the conquest came;
In God we will rejoice all day
And ever bless thy name.

DAY'S PSALTER.

1. For all thy saints, O God, Who strove in Christ to live, Who followed him, obeyed, adored, Our grateful hymn receive.

798 Thanksgiving for all Saints.

- 2 For all thy saints, O God,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Christ their great reward,
And yearned for him to die.
- 3 They all, in life and death,
With him, their Lord, in view,

Learned, from thy Holy Spirit's breath,
To suffer and to do.

- 4 For this thy name we bless,
And humbly pray that we
May follow them in holiness,
And live and die in thee.

BROWNE, C. M. D.

799

2 Not as the conqueror comes,
They, the true-hearted, came,
Not with the roll of stirring drums,
And the trump that sings of fame:
Not as the flying come,
In silence and in fear;
They shook the depths of the desert's gloom,
With their hymns of lofty cheer.

3 Amidst the storm they sang;
And the stars heard, and the sea!
And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
To the anthem of the free,

The ocean eagle soared
From his nest by the white wave's foam,
And the rocking pines of the forest roared,
This was their welcome home!

4 What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
They sought a faith's pure shrine!
Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod!
They have left unstained, what here they found;
Freedom to worship God.

Thanksgiving.

2 Thanks be to Him who makes the morn,
And bids it glow with beams new-born;
Who draws the shadows of the night,
Like curtains, o'er our wearied sight.

3 Thanks be to Him who sheds abroad,
Within our hearts, the love of God—
The Spirit of all truth and peace,
Fountain of joy and holiness.

Horatius Bonar.

2 For when the soul lay bound below
A heavy yoke of forms and creeds,
And none thy word of truth could know,
O'ergrown with tares and choked with weeds,—

3 The monarch's sword, the prelate's pride,
The church's curse, the empire's ban,
By one poor monk were all defied,
Who never feared the face of man.

Thanksgiving for the Faithful.

1 For all thy gifts we praise thee, Lord,
With lifted song and bended knee;
But now our thanks are chiefly poured
For those who taught us to be free.

The champions of thy holy word.

Bless ye the Lord.

- 2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're traveling to the grave.
- 3 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As months and days increase;
And every beating pulse we tell
Leaves but the number less.
- 4 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense
To walk this dangerous road;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

Isaac Watts.

808 Seed-time and Harvest.

- 1 FOUNTAIN of mercy, God of love,
How rich thy bounties are,
The rolling seasons, as they move,
Proclaim thy constant care.
- 2 When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hides the grain,
Thy goodness marks its secret birth,
And sends the early rain.
- 3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord, is thine; 3
The plants in beauty grow;
Thou giv'st the summer's suns to shine,
The mild, refreshing dew.
- 4 We own and bless thy gracious sway;
Thy hand all nature hails;
Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day,
Summer nor winter fails.

Anna Flowerdew, 1812.

809 The Close of the Year.

- 1 O God, to thee our hearts would pay
Their gratitude sincere,
Whose love hath kept us, night and day
Throughout another year.
- 2 Of every breath and every power
Thou wast the gracious Source;
From thee came every happy hour
Which smiled along its course.
- 3 For joy and grief alike we pay
Our thanks to thee above,
And only pray to grow each day
More worthy of thy love.

William Gaskell.

810 Beginning of the Year.

- 1 BREAK, new-born year, on glad eyes break!
Melodious voices move!
On, rolling Time! thou canst not make
The Father cease to love.
- 2 Our hearts in tears may oft run o'er;
But Lord, thy smile still beams;
Our sins are swelling evermore:
But pardoning grace still streams.
- 3 Lord, from this year more service win,
More glory, more delight!
O make its hours less sad with sin,
Its days with thee more bright!
- 4 O golden then the hours must be!
The year must needs be sweet;
Yes, Lord, with happy melody
Thine opening grace we greet.

821 He shall save the Children.

2 In the morning of their days
May their hearts be drawn to thee;
Let them learn to lisp thy praise
In their earliest infancy.

3 When we see their passions rise,
Sinful habits unsubdued,
Then to thee we lift our eyes,
That their hearts may be renewed.

While on thee our souls rely,
Hear our prayer, in mercy hear.

822 'They are thine.'

1 DEAR Saviour, if these lambs should stray
From thy secure inclosure's bound,
And, lured by worldly joys away,
Among the thoughtless crowd be found,—

2 Remember still that they are thine,
That thy dear, sacred name they bear;
Think that the seal of love divine,
The sign of covenant grace, they wear.

3 In all their erring, sinful years,
O, let them ne'er forgotten be;
Remember all the prayers and tears
Which made them consecrate to thee.

4 And when these lips no more can pray,
These eyes can weep for them no more,
Turn thou their feet from folly's way,
The wanderers to thy fold restore.

Where sweetest herbage grows.

3 The weakest lamb amid the flock
Shall be its Shepherd's care;
While folded in our Saviour's arms,
We're safe from every snare.

The paths of peace have trod;
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,

- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill,
Must shortly fade away.

We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.

Reginald Heber.

825 Happy is the man that findeth Wisdom.

- 1 O, HAPPY is the man who hears
Instruction's warning voice,
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice.
- 2 Wisdom hath treasures greater far
Than east and west unfold,
And her rewards more precious are
Than all the gain of gold.
- 3 She guides the young with innocence
In pleasure's paths to tread;
A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the hoary head.
- 4 According as her labors rise,
So her rewards increase;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

Scotch Paraphrases.

826 The Entrance of Thy Words giveth Light.

- 1 How SHALL the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.
- 2 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day,
And through the dangers of the night
A lamp to lead our way.
- 3 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

Isaac Watts.

827 Early Piety.

- 1 WHEN we devote our youth to God,
'Tis pleasing in his eyes;
A flower, when offered in the bud,
Is no vain sacrifice.
- 2 'Tis easier work if we begin
To fear the Lord betimes;
For sinners who grow old in sin
Are hardened in their crimes.
- 3 It saves us from a thousand snares
To mind religion young;
Grace will preserve succeeding years
And make our virtues strong.
- 4 To thee, almighty God, to thee
May we our hearts resign;
'Twill please us to look back and see
That our whole lives were thine.

3 Cast me not off when strength declines,
When hoary hairs arise:
And round me let thy glory shine
Whene'er thy servant dies.

3 So now, and till we die,
Sound we thy praises high,

Who to thy church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our King.

Early Piety.

2 Lord, I accept thine offered grace,
I come to seek my Father's face,
Nor will he turn his ear away
Who taught my heart and lips to pray.

3 One thing I ask, and wilt thou hear,
And grant my soul a gift so dear?
Wisdom, descending from above,
'The sweetest token of thy love;

4 Wisdom betimes to know the Lord,
To fear his name and keep his word;
To lead my feet in paths of truth,
And guide and guard my wandering youth.

5 Then shouldst thou grant a length of days, 4 Great Source of wisdom, teach my heart
My life shall still proclaim thy praise;
Or early death my soul convey
To realms of everlasting day.

Ottwell Heginbotham, 1799.

832

The Measure of my Days.

1 ALMIGHTY Maker of my frame,
Teach me the measure of my days;
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to thy praise.

2 My days are shorter than a span;
A little point my life appears;
How frail at best is dying man!
How vain are all his hopes and fears!

3 O, spare me, and my strength restore,
Ere my few hasty minutes flee;
And when my days on earth are o'er,
Let me forever dwell with thee.

Anne Steele.

833

The Time is short.

1 God of eternity, from thee
Did infant Time his being draw;
Moments, and days, and months, and years,
Revolve by thine unvaried law.

2 Silent and slow they glide away;
Steady and strong the current flows,
Lost in eternity's wide sea,
The boundless gulf from whence it rose.

3 With it the thoughtless sons of men
Upon the rapid stream are borne,
Swift to that everlasting home,
Whence not one soul can e'er return.

4 Great Source of wisdom, teach my heart
To know the price of every hour,
That time may bear me on to joys
Beyond its measure and its power.

Philip Doddridge, 1755-

834

He fleeth also as a shadow.

1 LIKE shadows gliding o'er the plain;
Or clouds that roll successive on,
Man's busy generations pass,
And while we gaze, their forms are gone.

2 He lived, he died, beheld the sun,
The abstract of the historian's page;
Alike in God's all-seeing eye,
The infant's day, the patriarch's age.

3 O Father, in whose mighty hand
The boundless years and ages lie,
Teach us thy boon of life to prize,
And use the moments as they fly.

John Taylor.

Heaven Alone Unfading.

2 The evening cloud, the morning dew,
The withering grass, the fading flower
Of earthly hopes are emblems true,
The glory of a passing hour.

3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die
And all beneath the skies is vain,

There is a land whose confines lie
Beyond the reach of care and pain,
4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares, and chase our fears
If God be ours, we're traveling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

Thou hast made my Days as a Hand-breadth.

2 The once loved form, now cold and dead
Each mournful thought employs;
And nature weeps her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.

3 Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.

4 Cease then, fond nature, cease thy tears;
Religion points on high;
There everlasting spring appears,
And joys that never die.

Yet senseless mortals vainly strive
To lavish out their years.

2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
Without a moment's stay;
Just like a story, or a song,
We pass our lives away.

3 God from on high invites us home,
But we march heedless on,
And, ever hastening to the tomb,
Stoop downward as we run.

4 Draw us, O God, with sovereign grace.
And lift our thoughts on high,
That we may end this mortal race,
And see salvation nigh.

Anne Steele.

Isaac Watts.

839 "Number our days."

- 1 BENEATH our feet and o'er our head

Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven.

Each season has its own disease,
Its peril every hour.

The dead, who underneath thee lie,
Shall live for hell or heaven!

Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,

2 Asleep in Jesus! O, how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost its venom'd sting!

850 The Flower fadeth.

1 As THE sweet flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus swiftly fled its life away.

2 It died ere its expanding soul
Had ever burned with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.

3 It died to sin, and died to care;
But for a moment felt the rod;
Then, rising on the viewless air,
Spread its light wings and soared to God.

856 Is it well with the Child?

- 1 Go to thy rest, fair child,
Go to thy dreamless bed,
While yet so gentle, undefiled,
With blessings on thy head.
- 2 Ere sin had seared the breast,
Or sorrow woke the tear,
Rise to thy throne of changeless rest,

No, gentle angel; seek thy place
Amid the cherub train.

Anon.

855 Well done.

- 1 SERVANT of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.
- 2 Tranquil amidst alarms,
Death found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.
- 3 The pains of death are past;
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
- 4 Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

857 Our Salvation nearer than when we believed.

- 1 ONE sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er:
Nearer my parting hour am I
Than o'er I was before;—
- 2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns;
Nearer the crystal sea;—
- 3 Nearer that hidden stream,
Winding through shades of night,
Rolling its cold, dark waves between
Me and the world of light.
- 4 Jesus, to thee I cling:
Strengthen my arm of faith;
Stay near me while my way-worn feet
Press through the stream of death.

Not lost, but gone before.

1 ANOTHER hand is beckoning us,
Another call is given;

The path that leads to heaven.

2 Oh, half we deemed she needed not
The changing of her sphere,
To give to heaven a shining one,
Who walked an angel here!

3 Unto our Father's will alone

2 Spirits from bondage thus set free
I may, I must believe,
Are somewhere in immensity,

Sorrow not, even as Others.

1 DEAR as thou wast, and justly dear,
We will not weep for thee:
One thought shall check the starting tear:
It is, that thou art free.

2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain:
O, who that saw thy parting hour,
Could wish thee back again?

3 Triumphant in thy closing eye
The hope of glory shone;
Joy breathed in thine expiring sigh,
To think the fight was won.

4 Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
O, may such grace on me be shed,
And make my end like thine!

Beyond the dark and narrow tomb
Appears the dawn—of heaven.

1. Still one in life and one in death, One in our hope of rest above, One in our joy, our trust, our faith, One in each other's faithful love.

876 Heaven a Social State.

2 Yet must we part, and, parting, weep;
What else has earth for us in store?
Our farewell pangs how sharp and deep!
Our farewell words how sad and sore!

3 Yet shall we meet again in peace,
To sing the song of festal joy,
Where none shall bid our gladness cease,
And none our fellowship destroy.

4 There hand in hand firm-linked at last,
And heart to heart enfolded all,
We'll smile upon the troubled past,
And wonder why we wept at all.

Horatius Bonar.

877 Holiness a Condition of Heaven.

1 HEAVEN is a place of rest from sin;
But all who hope to enter there
Must here that holy course begin
Which shall their souls for rest prepare.

2 Clean hearts, O God, in us create;
Right spirits, Lord, in us renew;
Commence we now that higher state,
Now do thy will as angels do.

3 In Jesus' footsteps may we tread,
Learn every lesson of his love,
And be from grace to glory led,
From heaven below to heaven above.

1. Heavenward doth our journey tend; We are strangers here on earth; Thro' the wilderness we wend

Towards the Canaan of our birth: Here we roam a pil-grim band; Yonder is our na-tive land.

878 The Homeward Journey.

2 Heavenward! doth God's spirit cry,
When I hear him in his word,
Showing thus the rest on high,
Where I shall be with my Lord;
When his word fills all my thought,
Oft to heaven my soul is caught.

3 Heavenward death shall lead, at last,
To the home where I would be;
All my sorrows overpast,

I shall triumph there with thee;
Jesus, thou hast gone before,
That we, too, might heavenward soar.

4 Heavenward! heavenward! Only this
Is my watchword on the earth;
For the love of heavenly bliss
Counting all things little worth;
Heavenward all my being tends,
Till in heaven my journey ends.

Sweet Rest.

2 Loved ones have gone before us,
 They beckon us away;
 O'er aerial plains they're soaring,
 Blest in eternal day:
 But we are in the army,
 And dare not leave our post;
 We'll fight until we conquer
 The foe's most mighty host.—REF.

3 Our Captain's gone before us,
 He kindly calls us home
 To yonder world of glory,
 And sweetly bids us come.
 The world, the flesh, and Satan
 Will strive to hedge our way,
 But we'll o'ercome these powers,
 And hourly watch and pray.—REF.

4 And Jesus will be with us,
 E'en to our journey's end,
 In every sore affliction
 His present help to lend.
 He never will grow weary,
 Though often we request;
 He'll give us grace to conquer,
 And take us home to rest.—REF.

"A City."

1 JERUSALEM, the glorious!
 The glory of the elect,—
 O dear and future vision
 That eager hearts expect!
 Ev'n now by faith I see thee,
 Ev'n here thy walls discern;
 To thee my thoughts are kindled,
 And strive, and pant, and yearn!

2 The Cross is all thy splendor,
 The Crucified, thy praise;
 His land and benediction
 Thy ransomed people raise;—
 Jerusalem! exulting
 On that securest shore,
 I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,
 And love thee evermore!

3 O sweet and blessed Country!
 Shall I e'er see thy face?
 O sweet and blessed Country!
 Shall I e'er win thy grace?
 Exult, O dust and ashes!
 The Lord shall be thy part;
 His only, his for ever,
 Thou shalt be, and thou art!

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
 All jubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng.
 The Prince is ever in them,
 The daylight is serene;
 The pastures of the blessed
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
 And there, from care released,
 The shout of them that triumph,
 The song of them that feast.
 And they who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight,
 Forever and forever
 Are clad in robes of white.

Bernard of Clugny, 1150. Tr. J. M. Neale, 1851.

882 "Short Toil."

1 BRIEF life is here our portion;
 Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
 The life, that knows no ending,
 'The tearless life, is there:

Oh, happy retribution!
 Short toil, eternal rest;
 For mortals, and for sinners,
 A mansion with the blest!

2 And there is David's fountain,
 And life in fullest glow;
 And there the light is golden,
 And milk and honey flow;
 The light, that hath no evening,
 The health, that hath no sore,
 The life, that hath no ending,
 But lasteth evermore.

3 There Jesus shall embrace us,
 There Jesus be embraced,—
 That spirit's food and sunshine;
 Whence earthly love is chased:
 Yes! God my King and Portion,
 In fullness of his grace,
 We then shall see for ever,
 And worship face to face.

Be thou at my right hand;
So shall I never fail:
Uphold thou me, and I shall stand;

1 My Father's house on high—
Home of my soul! how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
Yet clouds still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.

2 Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.
And then I feel that he,— Remembered or forgot,—
The Lord is never far from me,
Though I perceive him not.

But pure repose and love
Breathe through the bright, celestial air,
The spirit of the dove.

3 Come to the bright and blest,

888 Heaven Everywhere.

1 OUR heaven is everywhere,
If we but love the Lord,
Unswerving tread the narrow way,
And ever shun the broad.

2 'Tis where the trusting heart
Bows meekly to its grief,
Still looking up with earnest faith
For comfort and relief.

3 Wherever truth abides,
Sweet peace is ever there:
If we but love and serve the Lord,
Our heaven is everywhere.

Miss Fletcher.

887 The Bliss of Heaven.

1 THERE is no night in heaven;
In that blest world above
Work never can bring weariness,
For work itself is love.

2 There is no grief in heaven;
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

3 There is no sin in heaven;
Behold that blessed throng!
All holy is their spotless robe,
All holy is their song.

4 There is no death in heaven;
But, when the Christian dies,
The angels wait his parted soul,
And waft it to the skies!

Francis M. Knolls.

889 Awake and Sing.

1 REST for the toiling hand,
Rest for the anxious brow,
Rest for the weary, way-worn feet,
Rest from all labor now;
2 Soon shall the trump of God
Give out the welcome sound
That shakes thy silent chamber-walls,
And breaks the turf-sealed ground.

3 Ye dwellers in the dust,
Awake! come forth and sing;
Sharp has your frost of winter been.

2 Oh! the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight;
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight.

3 No chilling winds nor poisonous breath;
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.

And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?

Samuel Stennett.

891 The Land that is very far off.

1 FAR from these narrow scenes of night
Unbounded glories rise,
And realms of infinite delight,
Unknown to mortal eyes.

2 Fair, distant land! could mortal eyes
But half its charms explore,
How would our spirits long to rise
And dwell on earth no more.

3 No clouds those blissful regions know:
Realms ever bright and fair;
For sin, the source of mortal woe,
Can never enter there.

4 Prepare us, Lord, by grace divine,
For thy bright courts on high;
Then bid our spirits rise and join
The chorus of the sky.

Anne Steele.

892 The Promised Land.

1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

3 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

4 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unobscured eyes;

5 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side.

896 The Songs and Bliss of Heaven.

- 2 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
Hark! their songs melodious rise,
Songs of praise to Jesus' love:
Happy spirits! ye are fled,
Where no grief can entrance find;
Lulled to rest the aching head,
Soothed the anguish of the mind.
- 3 All is tranquil and serene,
Calm and undisturbed repose,
There no cloud can intervene,
There no angry tempest blows:
Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
Sorrow in eternal rest.

Thomas Raffles.

897 The Victory of the Saints.

- 1 PALMS of glory, raiment bright,
Crowns that never fade away,
Gird and deck the saints in light,
Priests and kings, and conquerors they:

Yet the conquerors bring their palms
To the Lamb amidst the throne,
And proclaim, in joyful psalms,
Vict'ry through his cross alone.

- 2 Kings for harps their crowns resign,
Crying, as they strike the chords,—
"Take the kingdom—it is thine,—
King of kings, and Lord of lords!"
Round the altar priests confess,—
If their robes are white as snow,
'Twas the Saviour's righteousness,
And his blood, that made them so.

- 3 Who were these?—On earth they dwelt,
Sinners once of Adam's race,
Guilt, and fear, and suffering felt,
But were saved by sovereign grace:
They were mortal, too, like us;
Ah! when we like them must die,
May our souls, translated thus,
Triumph, reign, and shine on high.

Its wa-ters, so free, are flow-ing for thee, Oh, seek that beau-ti-ful stream.

911

2 Its fountains are deep and its waters are pure;

And sweet to the weary soul;

It flows from the throne of Jehovah alone!

Oh, come where its bright waves roll.

3 This beautiful stream is the River of Life!

It flows for all nations free!

A balm for each wound in its water found;
Oh, sinner, it flows for thee!—REF.

4 Oh, will you not drink of this beautiful stream,

And dwell on its peaceful shore?

The Spirit says, Come all ye weary ones,
home,

And wander in sin no more.—REF.

HOW CAN I KEEP FROM SINGING? 8s & 7s.

Rev. R. Lowry, by per.

1st. 2nd. Repeat for CHORUS.

1. { My life flows on in endless song; Above earth's lam-en-ta-tion, }
 { I catch the sweet, tho' far-off, hymn, (Omit.....) } That hails a new cre-a-tion; Thro' all the tu-mult and the strife, I hear the mu-sic ring-ing; It finds an ech-o in my soul—How can I keep from sing-ing?

912

2 What tho' my joys and comforts die?
 The Lord my Saviour liveth;
 What tho' the darkness gather round?
 Songs in the night he giveth;
 No storm can shake my inmost calm,
 While to that refuge clinging;
 Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth
 How can I keep from singing?

3 I lift my eyes; the cloud grows thin,
 I see the blue above it;
 And day by day this pathway smooths
 Since first I learned to love it,
 The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
 A fountain ever springing;
 All things are mine since I am his—
 How can I keep from singing?

Anon.

913 [Tune—WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN
JESUS. Key of F.]

1 WHAT a friend we have in Jesus,
 All our sins and griefs to bear;
 What a privilege to carry
 Everything to God in prayer!
 Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
 Oh, what needless pain we bear—
 All because we do not carry
 Everything to God in prayer.

2 Have we trials and temptations?
 Is there trouble anywhere?
 We should never be discouraged—
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find a friend so faithful,
 Who will all our sorrows share?
 Jesus knows our every weakness—
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy laden,
 Cumbered with a load of care?
 Precious Saviour, still our refuge—
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
 Take it to the Lord in prayer;
 In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
 Thou wilt find a solace there

- 1 OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed | be Thy | name; || Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on | earth, as it | is in | heaven;
- 2 Give us this day our | daily | bread; || And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive |
them that | trespass a- | gainst us.
- 3 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver | us from | evil; || For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for | ever and | ever. A- | men.

917 "THY WILL BE DONE!"

Close. Thy will be done!

- 1 "THY will be | done!" || In devious way the hurrying stream of | life may | run; || Yet
still our grateful hearts shall say, | "Thy will be | done!"
- 2 "Thy will be | done!" || If o'er us shine a gladdening and a | prosperous | sun, || This prayer will make it more divine— | "Thy will be | done!"
- 3 "Thy will be | done!" || Though shrouded o'er our | path with | gloom, || One comfort—one is ours,—to breathe, while we adore, | "Thy will be | done!"

RESPONSIVE READINGS.

SELECTION 1.

Psalm viii.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength, because of thine adversaries.

That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honor.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;

Thou hast put all things under his feet: all sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Psalm xxiv.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? and who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart;

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, and hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek after him, that seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm CL.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts:

Praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet:

Praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals:

Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 2.

Psalm XIX.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language; their voice cannot be heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it:

And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever:

The judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:

Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

In keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors? clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me:

Then shall I be perfect, and I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight,

O Lord, my rock, and my redeemer.

Psalm LXVII.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us;

That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God; let all the peoples praise thee.

O let the nations be glad and sing for joy:

For thou shalt judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God; let all the peoples praise thee.

The earth hath yielded her increase: God, even our own God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalms c.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and we are his;

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise:

Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy endureth forever; and his faithfulness unto all generations.

SELECTION 3.

Psalms XLVII.

O clap your hands, all ye peoples; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For the Lord Most High is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

He shall subdue the peoples under us, and the nations under our feet.

He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved.

God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the nations: God sitteth upon his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are gathered together to be the people of the God of Abraham:

For the shields of the earth belong unto God; he is greatly exalted.

Psalms XXXIII.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: praise is comely for the upright.

Give thanks unto the Lord with harp: sing praises unto him with the psalter of ten strings.

Sing unto him a new song, play skillfully with a loud noise.

For the word of the Lord is right; and all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the loving-kindness of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made;

And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap:

He layeth up the deeps in store-houses.

Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

The Lord bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought:

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.

The counsel of the Lord standeth fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord;

The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

The Lord looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sons of men:

From the place of his habitation he looketh forth upon all the inhabitants of the earth;

He that fashioneth the hearts of them all, that considereth all their works.

There is no king saved by the multitude of an host:

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great power.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy,

To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul hath waited for the Lord: he is our help and our shield.

For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in thee.

SELECTION 4.

Psalm LXV.

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts:

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, the holy place of thy temple.

By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness, O God of our salvation:

Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded about with might:

Which stilleth the roaring of the seas, the roaring of the waves, and the tumult of the peoples.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens:

Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,

Thou greatly enrichest it; the river of God is full of water:

Thou providest them corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.

Thou waterest her furrows abundantly;

Thou settlest the ridges thereof: thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the hills are girded with joy.

The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

Psalm xxxii.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture was changed as with the drought of summer.

I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid:

I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:

Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.

Thou art my hiding place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;

Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go; I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding:

Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in, else they will not come near unto thee.

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous:

And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

SELECTION 5.

Psalm LI.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in thy sight:

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with a free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it: thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering:

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Psalm CXXII.

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord.

Our feet are standing within thy gates, O Jerusalem;

Jerusalem, that art builded as a city that is compact together:

Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, for a testimony unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

For the sake of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

Psalm CXXXIII.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious oil upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard;

That came down upon the skirt of his garments; like the dew of Hermon, that cometh down upon the mountains of Zion:

For there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

Psalm LXXXIV.

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord;

My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young.

Even thine altars, O Lord our hosts, my King, and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the valley of weeping they make it a place of springs; yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength, every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and a shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Psalm XLVI.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas:

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth:

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Psalm xiv.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.

They are corrupt, they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek after God.

They are all gone aside; they are together become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord

There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

Ye put to shame the counsel of the poor, because the Lord is his refuge.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion!

When the Lord bringeth back the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

SELECTION 7.

Psalm XLIII.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:

O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

For thou art the God of my strength; why hast thou cast me off?

Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

O send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me:

Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy:

And upon the harp will I praise thee,
O God, my God.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God:

For I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm xxvii.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh, even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear:

Though war should rise against me,
even then will I be confident.

One thing have I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after;

That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,

To behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion:

In the covert of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall lift me up upon a rock.

And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies roundabout me;

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;

I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice:

Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face;
my heart said unto thee, Thy face,
Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face from me; put not thy servant away in anger:

Thou hast been my help; cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the Lord will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord; and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries;

For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

Wait on the Lord: be strong, and let thine heart take courage; yea, wait
thou on the Lord.

SELECTION 8.

Psalm XXIII.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;

For thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm I.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked.

Nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord;

And in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season.

Whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The wicked are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,

Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous:

But the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm xv.

Lord, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly and worketh righteousness, and speaketh truth in his heart.

He that slandereth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his friend, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.

In whose eyes a reprobate is despised; but he honoreth them that fear the Lord.

He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not,

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent.

He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

APOSTLES' CREED.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,

Born of the Virgin Mary,

Suffered under Pontius Pilate,

Was crucified, dead and buried:

The third day he arose again from the dead:

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father
Almighty;

From thence he shall come to judge
the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. AMEN.

SELECTION 9.

THE LAW OF GOD.

Exodus xx: 3-17.

Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;

Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them;

For I the Lord thy God am a jealous
God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate me;

And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain;

For the Lord will not hold him guilt-
less that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work;

But the seventh day is a sabbath unto
the Lord thy God;

In it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates;

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day.

Wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt do no murder.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW.

Matt. xxii. 37-40.

And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the great and first commandment.

And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

On these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.

SELECTION 10.

DECALOGUE OF BEATITUDES AND PROMISES.

Matt. v. 3-12.

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Matt. vi. 9-13.

Our Father which art in heaven.

Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

THE ETERNAL THING.

I. Cor. xiii.

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself,
is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked,
taketh not account of evil;

Rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth;

Beaureth all things, believeth all things,
hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy
in part;

But when that which is perfect is come,
that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child,
I felt as a child, I thought as a child:
now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things.

For now we see in a mirror, darkly;
but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I have been known.

But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
